

From the McGeorge Academic Success Program:

Seniors, mark your calendars for the 2011

Early Bird Bar Review Program!

The Early Bird Bar Review Program is a series of FREE substantive law review sessions taught by a Bar/Bri professor. Get a head start on your bar studies, write essay exams, and get feedback on your answers!

All sessions will meet in Classroom C at the following dates and times:

Sunday, February 27	1:00 to 5:00 p.m.	CONTRACTS
Saturday, March 12	9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.	PROPERTY
Saturday, April 9	9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.	CA & FED. CIV PRO
Sunday, April 17	1:00 to 5:00 p.m.	CA & FED. EVIDENCE

Every student who attends the entirety of each session and completes each practice exam on time and in good faith will receive a $200 reimbursement* good toward a California Bar/Bri Bar Review course!

*The reimbursement is good only for a Bar/Bri Bar Review course completed in California and is not valid for courses completed in any other state or with any other company. Complete rules are listed on attendance cards that will be distributed at the first session. Rules are available in advance by contacting Professor Lee at cle1@pacific.edu.