An Invitation From the Dean

If you're a law school applicant or just thinking about a legal career, I have an invitation for you. Come visit our beautiful 13-acre campus and meet the people who've made Pacific McGeorge an international leader in educating practice-ready lawyers.

Our world-renowned faculty are prominent educators in the areas of international, governmental affairs, advocacy, intellectual property, corporate, family, and public interest law. Situated in the heart of Sacramento, our students take full advantage of the plentiful legal opportunities in California's capital city. From clinics, internships, and clerkships, the educational and professional experiences our students receive prepare them for the real world challenges of today's legal issues.

Our alumni span the entire globe. Pacific McGeorge graduates practice law in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and in over 40 countries. This network of alumni include: judges, district attorneys, public defenders, corporate counsel, managing partners in major law firms, solo practitioners, elected officials, and government lawyers. A law degree from Pacific McGeorge opens the doors to innumerable legal careers and can even enhance the career path of a non-practicing attorney.

I invite you to join us on Saturday, April 18 and meet with me in an open, informal setting. Come with your questions or just come to learn about the wonderful opportunities we have to offer. Please dress casually and enjoy the day. We hope to see you there.
