Charles H. Whitebread, The Eight Secrets of Top Exam Performance in Law School, 1995 (Reserve KF 283 .W48 1995)

D. How to Find Subject Specific Study Guides

Several topical study aid series exist which provide summaries of legal concepts. Current study aids are located on Reserve. Popular series include:

- Examples & Explanations series (Aspen)
- Law School Legends on Audio CD (Gilbert Law Series)
- Nutshell series (Thomson/West)
- Understanding the law series (LexisNexis)

To find other specific study materials, use the library's online catalog, GoCat (link.....). A good search strategy is to perform a keyword search on GoCat, by name of the study aid series and topic [for example, "understanding" or "understanding and torts"]. Scroll down the list of titles displayed on GoCat -- write down the complete call number and provide it to the attendant at the Reserve Desk to obtain the desired materials.

Note: Books on reserve can be used in the Library only, for two hours. CDs may be borrowed for three days.

E. Other Resources

Pacific McGeorge School of Law provides further support and resources to help students do their best in law school. Students interested in learning more may contact Ms. Courtney Lee, Director of Academic Success, 916-739-7242.

F. Finding These Materials at Your Local Library

You can use WorldCat at <http://www.worldcat.org> to search local libraries for the materials listed above.
