
PACIFIC MCGEORGE
GLOBAL BUSINESS
& DEVELOPMENT LAW JOURNAL

FORMERLY The Transnational Lawyer

VOLUME 21

2008

NUMBER 2

Symposium

Taking Stock of Sustainable Development at 20: A Principle at Odds with Itself?

Introduction

Stephen C. McCaffrey 151

Taking Stock of Sustainable Development at 20: What We Have Accomplished and What Comes Next?

Dr. Gro Harlem Brundtland 155

The Promise of the Brundtland Report: Honored or Betrayed?

Ambassador Alberto Székely 159

The 1997 U.N. Watercourses Convention: Retrospect and Prospect

Stephen C. McCaffrey 165

Articles

Legal Outsourcing to India: The Demise of New Lawyers and Junior Associates

Michael G. Owen 175

International Water Law and Sovereignty: A Discussion of The ILC Draft Articles on the Law of Transboundary Aquifers

Margaret J. Vick 191

Comments

Reform of U.S. Chemicals Regulations May Not Be Out of REACH

David Brownfield 223

Ecotourism in the Arctic Circle: Regional Regulation Is Necessary to Prevent Concerned Environmentalists from Further Contributing to Climate Change

Mary E. Edes 251

All Hail the European Union: Implications of Microsoft v. Commission on

Global Antitrust Enforcement Clayton Graham	285
Strawberry Fields Forever? United Kingdom Copyright Duration for Sound Recordings Daniel Houston Drummy	313
Ecotourism: Calling a Truce Between Ski Resort Developers and Environmental Groups Audrey Kelm	339
An Analysis and Synthesis of the Decisional Law Applying Article XX(g) of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade Jasper L. Ozbirn	371