Each semester The Elder and Health Law Clinic’s law students and clinical fellow speak to various community groups on financial safety for seniors and other associated subjects. Presentations are available Monday – Friday. If you are located in Sacramento County and are interested in having someone from the clinic speak to your group, please complete the form below and mail or fax it to us.

REQUEST FOR SPEAKER

Please print

Name of Organization: _____________________________________________________

Contact Person: ___________________________________ Title: ___________________

Address: __________________________________________________________________

Phone: ___________________________; Email: ______________________________

1. Please give three possible dates and times for the event:
   (1) ____________________; (2) ______________________; (3) ______________________

2. Preferred presentation topic: ________________________________________________

3. Number of people expected to attend: ________________

4. Is the audience seniors, caregivers, professionals who work with seniors, other?
   __________________________________________________________________________

5. Please further describe the audience: __________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________

6. Special instructions regarding directions and/or parking for the presenter: ___________
   __________________________________________________________________________

7. Is there technology available to show a PowerPoint?   YES   NO