McGeorge-At-A-Glance

Office of Student Affairs
The Office of Student Affairs exists to serve McGeorge students. Our principal job is to help students navigate through school. We provide academic counseling to JD students and assistance to all McGeorge students with disabilities. We oversee student wellness and work with our student government and student organizations. We also enforce the Code of Student Responsibility.

Code of Student Responsibility
McGeorge students are governed by the Code of Student Responsibility both on- and off-campus at all times from the day you submit your application to graduation, expulsion, voluntary withdrawal, or academic disqualification not followed by reinstatement. The Code is divided into four parts – Cannons of Ethics, Disciplinary Rules, Organizational Rules, and Procedural Rules. This Code embodies the key concepts of professionalism and civility that are so crucial to the legal profession.

The Docket and The WRIT
The Office of Student Affairs prepares two weekly emails for students called The Docket and The WRIT (Weekly Report of Important Things), with important announcements, deadlines, and upcoming events. It is critical you read these emails to stay abreast with campus happenings and key information you will need that you will not receive elsewhere.

Disabled Student Services
McGeorge makes every reasonable effort to accommodate students with physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities. Appropriate services and modifications are worked out on a case-by-case basis. Our campus facilities are accessible to students with mobility impairments, and, in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, we do not discriminate in the administration of our educational programs, admissions, scholarships, loans, or other activities or programs based on disability. Please review the online Handbook and contact the Office of Student Affairs at sacstudentaffairs@pacific.edu for more information.

Office of the Registrar
The Office of the Registrar is the official academic records office. Our roles are varied, including managing class registration, recording grades, distributing graded exam materials, issuing official transcripts, processing enrollment and degree verifications, performing degree audits, and issuing diplomas.

Academic Year
The academic year extends from May – the first day of the summer session – through May – the last day of the Spring Semester. Your cumulative GPA at the end of the academic year is significant because it will be used to make advancement and scholarship determinations. The Academic Calendar can be found on the McGeorge website.

Faculty Support Office (“FSO”)
The FSO supports McGeorge students with obtaining course syllabi before the first day of class, manages the testing process (including the Examplify/ExamSoft software, as well as assessments, final exams, and Scantron multiple choice quizzes), distributes reference materials, and publishes professor office hours. The FSO maintains a LibGuides site where important start-of-the-semester materials may be found. Many professors use the FSO as a location where students turn in (and timestamp) papers or other written assignments. All Moot Court, Mock Trial, Trial Ad, GLS Program, Law Journal, and Inns of Court logistical arrangements are processed by the FSO. The FSO also provides clerical support for faculty teaching, scholarship and service. Students are encouraged to seek the FSO’s assistance in relaying questions to professors while still preserving anonymity.

Accessing Syllabi
To access course syllabi, go to the FSO’s LibGuides page, which you can find linked from both the FSO and Library’s pages on the website. If you are accessing the LibGuides page from off campus, you will need to log in using your name and student ID number (not your insidePacific password). Please contact the Library if you have any log-in issues.
Technology

Student E-mail: McGeorge sends the majority of its correspondence solely through email to your University-assigned email account (username@u.pacific.edu). Students are responsible for all information sent to their university-assigned email, and are required to check their email on a frequent and consistent basis in order to stay current with campus communications and, if necessary, act in a timely manner based upon these emails.

InsidePacific (insidePacific.Pacific.edu) is the university’s campus portal with student access to register, check grades, print transcripts, manage your PacificCard balance, and other information and services. Sign in using your PacificNet username and password.

Canvas (Canvas.Pacific.edu) is Pacific’s learning management system which enables faculty to offer online assignment submission, discussion boards, wiki pages, and other tools. Canvas also allows students to interact outside of the class meeting time.

Free Resources for Students: Pacific also offers other free technology resources to currently enrolled students including:

- Virus protection software and security services (go.Pacific.edu/AntiVirus);
- Microsoft Office 365, a suite of services that allows you to collaborate and share documents with colleagues (go.Pacific.edu/Microsoft-Office-365); and
- WebEx, a web conferencing and collaboration tool (go.Pacific.edu/Pacific-Webex-For-Students).

If you need IT support, stop by the Pacific Technology Helpdesk located in the Law Library Monday through Friday from 7:30 a.m., to 6:30 p.m. You may also contact IT at sachelpdesk@pacific.edu or 916-739-7325 (ServiceNow.Pacific.edu).

Campus Public Safety

The Public Safety Department provides 24-hour patrol, crime prevention and response services for the Sacramento campus community. To contact the on-duty Public Safety Officer please call the 24-hour Public Safety phone number: 916.739.7200. (Or call 916.217.0896 when campus phone lines are down or during a campus power outage.) To request an escort, call 916.739.7200 or contact the attendant on duty at the Sacramento Campus and Law Library circulation desk.

Tuition and Fees

McGeorge publishes tuition payment and policy information in the Academic Catalog and on the web at mcgeorge.edu/Future_Students/JD_Programs/Costs_and_Aid/Tuition_and_Fees.htm and mcgeorge.edu/Tuition_Payment_Policy.htm. Please consult those resources for more information, and contact the Business Office at sac_busoffice@pacific.edu or 916.739.7054 with any questions.

New Student Checklist

Welcome to campus! As you embark on your first semester, here are important items to complete:

- Check your Pacific email. Correspondence from Pacific will be sent to your Pacific email account, so be sure to check it frequently. Contact the IT Helpdesk (sachelpdesk@pacific.edu or 916-739-7325) if you have any technical difficulties.

- Attend First Week. First Week (also called Orientation) provides the academic and administrative information necessary for a successful 1L year, as well as opportunities to connect socially with the classmates, professors, and staff who will become your colleagues and support system during law school and beyond. You will be required to sign in and out of various First Week sessions to verify attendance. Contact Admissions with any questions.

- Submit your official transcripts to the Admissions Office. There is an ABA requirement that we have your final degree-granting transcript on file by the start of classes.

- Sign and submit your Student Handbook Acknowledgement Form. This form will be distributed during the Nuts n’ Bolts presentation at Orientation. Signing the form acknowledges that you received a copy of your JD Student Handbook (aka, the Black Book). Submit your signed form to the Office of Student Affairs before the start of classes.

- Check the Booklist and get your textbooks. The Booklist is posted online at mcgeorge.edu/Students/Services/Bookstore.htm.

- Submit your emergency contact information to PacificConnect. In the event of an emergency, Public Safety uses the PacificConnect system to contact students, staff, and faculty with real-time alerts. You can access PacificConnect through insidePacific. You can also provide a loved one’s contact information for notification as well.

- Complete your Work Certification on insidePacific (full time students only). Students who are enrolled in more than 12 units may not engage in more than 20 hours per week of paid work. Dean Carr will explain how to access this form during the Nuts n’ Bolts Presentation at Orientation.

- Accept Financial Responsibility on insidePacific. All students are required to accept Financial Responsibility for each term. To complete via mobile device, go to: insidePacific > expand the menu at top of the page > Select the Sacramento Students Link > Select the Pacific Today Link > Go to the Financial Responsibility Acceptance box and click on the link to accept financial responsibility > select the current term (e.g. LAW Fall 2018) in the drop down > read the statement and click on the “I Accept” button.

- Go to the FSO’s LibGuides page to download your course syllabi. Most law school classes have a reading assignment that needs to be completed before the first day.

- Look in TWEN and Canvas for course websites to join. Your TWEN password will be handed out during the Orientation. If you have problems with TWEN, see Monica Sharum or Dan Breuer in the Library. Canvas uses your regular Pacific login.

- Update your contact info with the Office of the Registrar if it has changed. This includes address changes, name changes, etc. Use the online form at mcgeorge.wufoo.com/forms/contact-information-form.

- Remember your continuing duty to timely disclose any conduct that would have required disclosure in your law school application. Disclosures prior to the first day of classes should be submitted to Admissions, and after the first day to Student Affairs.
☐ Request Accommodations under the American’s with Disabilities Act. McGeorge’s Policy Handbook for Students with Disabilities is available online at mcgeorge.edu/Disabled_Student_Services.htm. Those needing accommodations should review the policy and contact the Office of Student Affairs at sacstudentaffairs@pacific.edu to request the necessary paperwork.

☐ Complete the Health Insurance Enrollment/Waiver Process. To ensure your academic success, Pacific mandates that you maintain comprehensive health insurance if you are enrolled in 6 or more units per semester. The waiver deadline is September 7, 2018 at 5:00 p.m., after which anyone who did not complete the waiver process will be auto-enrolled in the student plan at a cost of $1,592 per semester. The waiver/enrollment process is a requirement you must meet each academic year. Visit pacific.edu/insuranceoffice for more information. Complete the waiver online at go.pacific.edu/myhealth.

☐ Network. Like any skill, networking takes practice. Attend bar association meetings and on-campus events, get to know your professors, and generally begin to build your professional network. Personal contacts are a primary source for securing jobs for most of our students. Those contacts are often facilitated through school sponsored events, courses, and extra-curricular activities.

☐ Get involved in 1 or 2 extra-curricular activities. Join a Registered Student Organization, volunteer on a SBA Student Committee, seek out Pro Bono opportunities such as the Immigration Fair, Pro Se Help Day, or JusticeBus trips through One Justice, or get involved with the Sacramento Campus Community Garden…find enjoyable activities that will round out your 1L experience and help you stay happy, healthy, and motivated.

☐ Run/vote for 1D and 1E Student Bar Association Representative. The SBA reserves two seats on its Board of Governors for first-year JD students. Sitting on the SBA Board is an opportunity to feel connected with campus as a whole and to develop your leadership skills. Check your email for instructions about how to run for one of these positions.

☐ Register with the California State Bar. Review the Black Book “Bar Admission” page for instructions.

☐ Take a tour of the library and meet the helpful librarians. Learn about online study aids, tips to help you navigate TWEN, Canvas, and the campus network, plus get to see all that the Library has to offer you for study space. Sign up for a tour (at least 24 hours in advance) during First Week or the first week of school by using the Library Room Use & Study Room Reservations page: mcgeorge.libcal.com.

☐ Do not upgrade your operating system or purchase a laptop with the very latest operating system. Examplify does NOT support Beta versions of MS Windows or Mac OSX, nor does it typically support the Consumer Release version until several weeks after its release. Always confirm minimum system requirements with the Examplify support site.

☐ Attend your Mandatory CDO Orientation. Beginning October 15, the Career Development Office will meet with each student to orient you to our services and help you begin to develop your individualized career plan. At this meeting you will get access to McGeorgeCareersOnline, information about 1L summer jobs, and receive your Career Development Planner.

- Submit your Moral Character Application. The California Bar takes at least 6 months to process Applications and recommends that you file at least 8-10 months before the exam.
- Finalize your Bar Prep Plans, including finances and time off work to focus on studying. Consider taking the PASS I and PASS II classes during your final year of law school.
- Make bar preparation your full-time job. Get extra feedback on your essay writing through McGeorge – check the McGeorge Bar Prep Page and/or Blog for the schedule.
Academic Advising

Aside from certain required courses, the way you design your upper-division schedule is largely left to your discretion. There are a number of resources available to help you make course selection decisions:

Schedule a McGeorge Academic Planning (“MAP”) appointment with the Office of Student Affairs.
When you need help sorting through your academic, co-curricular, and extra-curricular options, advising is available through the Office of Student Affairs. Schedule a MAP appointment at any point during the year with either Jennifer Carr, Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, or Rebekah Grodsky, ’10, Director of Academic and Student Affairs, by contacting Kelli Sarnowski at 916.739.7089 or emailing sacstudentaffairs@pacific.edu. Typically the later part of the Spring semester of your first year (after the schedule of classes is released) is a good time to begin planning for your remaining two or three years.

Read this Book!
There is a strong possibility that your question is answered somewhere in here.

Familiarize yourself with the list of subjects that will be tested on the bar exam.
Each state tests different material on its bar examination. Alums report that taking the bar-tested subjects in law school proved to be immensely helpful during bar study.

Talk to your professors, upper division students, and practicing lawyers.
They have been there, done that, and have lots of helpful advice to share.

Review the online Pathways.
Whether you arrive at McGeorge with a clear idea of the kind of lawyer you want to be, or plan to explore a variety of opportunities during your legal studies, helping you to successfully reach your goals is our priority. We want you to make informed career choices that resonate with your talents and passions. We have developed 24 legal Pathways, which describe distinct practice areas. Reviewing the Pathways as you develop your individual academic and career plans can help you ensure that you credential yourself for the job that you want. Academic Support

You probably have heard that law school is hard, and that it is like nothing you have experienced before. Both of these statements are true. As a result, just about every student in law school needs assistance to achieve their full potential. McGeorge affords that assistance in a number of ways through its comprehensive Academic Support Program.

First Year Skills Lab & 1L Study Teams
All first-year students at McGeorge are required to take a 1-unit Skills Lab that is incorporated into a substantive law course, such as Torts or Property. During this course, students have the opportunity to practice and receive feedback on the various skills needed to be a successful law student. These skills include critical reading, case briefing, extracting and writing rules, note-taking, outlining, the IRAC exam-writing method, legal analysis, multiple choice assessments, time management, and stress management. Additionally, all first-year students are placed in 1L Study Teams, which are led by an upper division student. The 1L Study Teams meet once per week and have required assignments, which are connected to both the substance and skills taught in their Skills Lab.

Small Section Criminal Law
Full-time students whose first semester grades indicate they would benefit from more intensive skills instruction and all part-time students will be placed in smaller sections of Criminal Law. These smaller sections will allow for greater focus on improving the legal skills necessary for success in law school and legal practice. In addition to learning the required Criminal Law material, students will learn relevant aspects of modern brain science, complete skills exercises and a significant number of assessments, receive detailed feedback on their work, and participate in one-on-one counseling.

Individual Assistance
Professors Stephanie Thompson and Courtney Lee are available to meet with and counsel students at any time regarding study techniques (critical reading, case briefing, outlining, attack sheets), exam taking, time management, supplemental materials, study groups, and other matters related to academic progress and/or the bar exam.

Academic Support Resource Center
The Academic Support Resource Center is a study space on the first floor of the Library, just inside the main entrance near the seating area. Students may come to the Resource Center to study individually, meet in their study groups, or meet with teaching assistants. Within the Resource Center is a library of supplemental study materials that students may check out for free including course supplements, commercial outlines, audio materials, flash cards, and bar exam preparation materials.

Practice Examinations
The primary methods of assessment in law school are essay and multiple choice exams. Both formats require students to apply the law to new fact scenarios by analyzing how the facts might support good arguments for each side. These assessment methods are used because they are similar to state bar examinations and the practice of law, where hypothetical fact patterns become real client problems.

Most professors release past essay exams so that students may take practice exams on their own to prepare for their assessments. Students can then meet individually with their professors or academic support faculty to discuss their answers. This individual exam writing practice is key to student success in law school. Past exams are available on the Library online database, and students are encouraged to download these exams and compile their own practice exam libraries.
Directed Study Program
Students whose cumulative first-year grades indicate they would benefit from more intensive skills instruction are placed in the Directed Study Program. This Program is designed to help students reach their full potential in law school through a continuum of academic support and counseling, as well as to introduce them to the skills necessary to pass the bar exam on the first attempt. Students placed in Directed Study will remain in the program for the duration of their time at McGeorge.

REMEDIES AND PRINCIPLES OF LAW: All students in the Directed Study Program take Remedies and Principles of Law. Full-time students take this course during second year and part-time students during their third year. This course will review principles of core substantive law taught during the first year and key remedies, including injunctions, restitution, and damages. Students will practice using the rules of law and remedies to answer bar-type essay, multiple choice, and performance test questions effectively, and receive detailed feedback and guidance on how to improve their law school studying and exam-taking skills.

PRINCIPLES OF AGENCY: Select Directed Study Program students will also take the Principles of Agency course in the Fall semester of their second year. This one-unit course covers the law of agency while focusing on improving study skills, exam writing, and legal analysis. Students take multiple written assessments with extensive individualized feedback and one-on-one counseling to help students achieve their full potential.

PASS I: In either the Fall or Spring of their final year, Directed Study Program students are required to take Practical Analysis, Strategies, & Skills I (PASS I). PASS I is a pass/fail course worth three units that covers effective preparation and performance strategies for the multiple choice, essay, and performance test components of the California Bar Exam. PASS I students complete substantial writing practice and receive extensive individualized feedback on their answers. Although Directed Study Program students are required to take PASS I for graduation, this course is open to all McGeorge students in their final year of study.

PASS II: PASS II is a three-unit, graded elective course offered in the Spring that reviews the substantive law of Civil Procedure, Contracts, and Property. Students use commercial bar review course materials in this fast-paced class that prepares them for post-graduation bar preparation. Although not required, all McGeorge students, whether in the Directed Study Program or not, are strongly encouraged to enroll.

Other Requirements: Students in Directed Study also have other required courses on specific bar-tested topics and will meet regularly with the Dean of Students to discuss their academic scheduling and progress.

Working While in Law School

Full-Time Students
Law students may not engage in paid employment for more than 20 hours per week in any semester in which the student is enrolled in more than 12 course hours.

Annual Certification
Students are required to certify each year, during the registration process, that they understand this policy and agree to be bound by it.

Division vs. Enrollment
Please note that for purposes of this rule, it does not matter whether you are classified as being part of the Full-Time or Part-Time Division. If you are enrolled in more than 12 units that semester, you cannot engage in paid employment for more than 20 hours per week.

Change of Division

Upon satisfactory completion of the first year of study, students may apply for transfer between the full-time and part-time programs.

Part-time students who wish to move into the full-time division are advised that the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs will consider academic performance to date in making her determination. Students with at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA will be permitted to switch.

To switch divisions:
1. Develop a general plan for how you will meet the various degree requirements,
2. Consult with the Financial Aid Office, and
3. Schedule a meeting with Dean Carr for academic counseling and approval.

Contact the Office of Student Affairs at sacstudentaffairs@pacific.edu or 916.739.7089 to schedule your appointment.

*To stay on track for graduation, part-time students generally take 2-5 units each summer. Alternatively, evening students who have flexibility to take daytime classes, may opt to take extra classes during the academic year. Either way, tuition for any units outside of the block rate is charged on a per unit basis.

Directed Study Program students must also complete the following courses:

Upper-Division Writing Requirement and Opting out of GLS II

To satisfy the upper-division writing requirement, you can either complete Global Lawyering Skills II or serve as a comment staff writer on the University of the Pacific Law Review. Students frequently have questions about this requirement:

Q: Can I do both Global Lawyering Skills II and law review?

A: Yes. Students are encouraged to serve on law review after their first year (Full-Time) or second year (Part-Time) experience at McGeorge. Full-time second year students who are selected to work on the journal Comment staff have the option of waiving out of Global Lawyering Skills II. No waiver is available for Part-Time students who serve on the law journal in their third year.

Since law journals focus on academic writing and legal citation, and GLS II focuses on practical writing, advocacy, oral presentation, and other lawyering skills, the two experiences are quite distinct. Students are encouraged to take advantage of both experiences, and GLS professors are willing to accommodate students who have law journal deadlines with extensions on written work. A number of second year students in recent years have elected to serve on the law journal while enrolling in GLS II. Their experience has been largely positive.

Another way to structure a course of study to avoid missing out on either the law journal or GLS II experience is to defer GLS II to the third year. For a student who is not interested in pursuing opportunities in Moot Court in the third year, this path may be attractive. However, the most direct path to Moot Court participation is through success in the GLS II program. So, students who would like to pursue Moot Court should enroll in GLS II in their second year.

Q: What is the process for opting out of Global Lawyering Skills II?

A: There is no special process. If you know that you will be opting out, simply do not register for a GLS II class. If you are unsure or you are considering doing both, then register for a GLS II class. If you register for a GLS II class and later decide to opt out, you may do so by dropping your GLS II class before the Add/Drop Deadline. Be warned that GLS II classes fill early and if you wait to decide to register for GLS II, you may not get your first choice section.

Q: Do any other courses satisfy this requirement?

A: No. Although we have other fantastic upper-division writing courses, they do not satisfy this particular requirement. Please also note that Greensheets does not satisfy this requirement.

If you have any questions about the viability of enrolling in GLS II while serving on law review, please contact Professor Moylan, Associate Dean for Experiential Learning at mmoylan@pacific.edu. She is happy to discuss the topic with any interested students.

Q: What is a Clinic or Externship?
A: Through Externships and Legal Clinics, students get hands-on legal experience, putting the theory learned in the classroom into practice in an on-campus or hybrid clinic, or an externship in a government agency or nonprofit setting. Students in the on-campus clinics represent real clients under careful supervision and all clinical and Externship students gain real-world legal skills.

Q: What is a Simulation Course?
A: Simulation courses provide substantial experience, not involving an actual client, that (1) is reasonably similar to the experience of a lawyer advising or representing a client or engaging in other lawyering tasks in a set of facts and circumstances devised or adopted by a faculty member, and (2) includes direct supervision of the student’s performance by the faculty member; opportunities for performance, feedback from a faculty member, and self-evaluation; and a classroom instructional component.

1. For the vast majority of the instructional time, the students will be immersed in lawyer-like settings and engaged in lawyer-like tasks.

2. Traditional classroom work may be a component of the course for the purpose of conveying doctrine or other substantive material, but it will be integrated into the lawyer-like work to be performed by the students.

3. Students will bear the responsibility for identifying and learning the legal doctrine just as lawyers do in practice.

4. Students will bear the responsibility for organizing and producing the assigned work. Collaborative projects are encouraged.

5. Because of the nature of these courses, regular and frequent student-faculty interaction outside of the classroom is expected. Students will produce a series of lawyer-like writings and/or participate in a series of exercises that demonstrate skills such as oral advocacy, fact-gathering, counseling, interviewing, and dispute resolution integrated with legal theory and professional identity. These projects will require students to exercise professional judgment and engage in problem solving.

6. Students will receive in-depth feedback and opportunities to improve based on feedback. Students will not have a final examination at the end of the course.

7. The syllabus for a Simulation Course will (a) set forth the definition of a Simulation Course provided above and (b) identify the lawyering skills that the course will cover and the exercises that will teach those skills.
Q: What is a Practicum Course?
A: Practicum Courses are courses in which at least one-third of instruction is devoted to a professional skill or set of professional skills characteristically used by practicing lawyers. Practicum courses give students the opportunity to learn substantive law and also learn and appreciate the context in which that law is to be applied by working on lawyer-like projects on simulated legal matters.

Q: How will I know which courses qualify?
A: By their very nature, these courses tend to be dynamic, cutting-edge offerings. From year-to-year the list of qualifying courses will change to reflect legal trends and interesting opportunities for McGeorge students. In past academic years, simulation courses have included: Advanced Appellate Advocacy, Taking and Defending Depositions, Mediation, and Trial Advocacy. Practicum courses have included: Business Transactions: The Art of the Deal, Elder Law & Social Policy, and Family Law. Each year, a list of qualifying courses is provided to students with the Academic Schedule and posted on the website on the Registrar’s Office page.

Q: May I take extra experiential courses?
A: Space permitting, yes. Some students select more than the required number of Clinics and Externships and several practicums and simulations! Students report that the courses in the Experiential Curriculum prepare them well for the practice of law.

Q: What if I cannot meet the Clinic/Externship Requirement because of my job?
A: Students who work full time (approximately 40 hours/week) during normal business hours may request a waiver of the Externship/Legal Clinic portion of the Experiential Curriculum. Waiver requests will be reviewed by the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, and/or the Associate Dean for Experiential Learning and granted for good cause only. Each student requesting a waiver will be contacted to meet personally with either Dean Carr, Dean Colatrella, or Dean Moylan. Waiver forms are available at the Office of Student Affairs.

Directed Study Program FAQ

Q: Why do we have Directed Study?
A: The Directed Study Program is intended to bolster a student’s command of and confidence in core legal skills, with the goal of increasing success in law school and paving the way to bar exam success. There is a strong correlation between performance in law school and bar passage. Failure to pass the bar on the first try is difficult financially, emotionally, and professionally, so we want to do everything possible to help McGeorge students succeed.

Q: Who is part of Directed Study?
A: Students who have a cumulative GPA below a 3.0 after their first year are automatically enrolled in the Directed Study Program for the duration of their enrollment at McGeorge and must meet its requirements.

Q: How will I know whether I’m in Directed Study or not?
A: Students are notified within their Academic Progress Email at the conclusion of their first year. For more information about Academic Progress Emails, see the Advancement and Grades section of this book.
Classroom Policies and Standards

Class Attendance, Preparation, Participation & Performance
Regular and punctual class attendance is mandatory and required by the American Bar Association. The faculty expects that you will be fully prepared and that you will actively participate in class. The faculty is required to take class attendance. Many professors incorporate preparation, participation, and class performance into consideration in grading. Your attendance and active involvement in class discussion form a central part of the learning process in law school for you and your classmates. Failure to meet the minimum standards set by your professors may result in a lower grade, or exclusion from taking the final examination or submitting the final assignment, resulting in a failing grade.

Classroom Conduct
The Code of Student Responsibility notes: “[l]egal education demands free debate, characterized by the quick interplay of ideas, skilful use of logic, and knowledge of precedents, all tempered by compassion.” Students are expected to act civilly, ethically, professionally, and respectfully towards one another and their professors, and to be sensitive and accommodating to the wide range of feelings and perspectives of our diverse faculty and student body.

Religious Holidays
McGeorge is committed to diversity and inclusion and this extends to how we observe religious holidays. McGeorge respects the rights of all members of our community to observe religious holidays and our hope is that we can all work together—staff, faculty, and students—to find constructive ways to achieve this. Students are encouraged to be proactive in speaking with professors and others about possible conflicts early in each semester and working together to find suitable solutions. The Office of Student Affairs also works with students whose religious commitments conflict with classes and/or exams.

Laptop Use
Laptop computers may be used in class only for appropriate academic purposes as determined by the professor. Some professors do not permit in-class laptop use; however, in some cases laptop use may be permitted as an accommodation for a documented disability under the Americans with Disabilities Act. Using a laptop computer during class for a non-academic purpose (e.g., browsing the internet) distracts other students and may violate the Code of Student Responsibility.

Faculty Office Hours
All full-time faculty members have regular office hours posted outside of their office. They make every effort to honor these hours by being available at the times indicated. The approachability of our faculty is a hallmark of McGeorge, so do not hesitate to take advantage of this opportunity.

Policies of Individual Professors
Faculty members have the discretion to give students further information about how they interpret the rules concerning attendance, class preparation, class participation, and other subjects, and what consequences flow from violations of those rules.
Recording Classes

Based upon a resolution approved by the faculty, tape recording of class sessions is prohibited except to accommodate:

1. A student’s observance of a religious holiday. If a student plans to miss class due to religious observation, the Office of Student Affairs must be notified one week in advance of the class(es) to be taped;

2. A student’s absence from a make-up class scheduled at a time that conflicts with a regularly scheduled class. If a conflict exists between a make-up class and a regularly scheduled class, please notify the Office of Student Affairs as soon as the make-up class is announced, so the request may be processed;

3. The scheduling of a make-up class or review session outside of the regular class hours;

4. Students who are called to active military duty by the Armed Forces;

5. A student’s documented disability as part of services recommended for and provided to students under the Americans with Disabilities Act;

6. Students in the LLM Legal Research Writing and Analysis course when the instructor has determined that the student is having difficulty in understanding spoken English;

7. Any extraordinary circumstances outside a student’s control, as approved by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs or the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs; or

8. A request by faculty for special purposes such as, e.g., developing online instruction, marketing, or capturing a guest lecture, as approved by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

No student shall copy, display, download, upload, post, release or otherwise distribute or publish any recordings of any class given at McGeorge, nor shall any student use such recordings for any commercial purpose without the written consent of the instructor. Violations of this policy will result in disciplinary action pursuant to the Code of Student Responsibility.

To request permission to record, email the Office of Student Affairs at sacstudentaffairs@pacific.edu. Once approved, students may self-record their classes.

Institutional Learning Outcomes

Learning outcomes are the lawyering skills that students are expected to obtain through the completion of a legal education. Consistent with ABA Standards, upon completion of a JD degree, graduates of the McGeorge School of Law will demonstrate mastery of the following student learning outcomes at the level needed for admission to the bar and effective and ethical participation in the legal profession as an entry level attorney. McGeorge School of Law has designed its curriculum to prepare students with the key skills and competencies needed to demonstrate these learning outcomes in the legal profession.

Each student will:

1. Demonstrate the ability to identify and understand key concepts in U.S. substantive law, legal theory, and procedure.

2. Apply knowledge and critical thinking skills to perform competent legal analysis, reasoning, and problem solving.

3. Demonstrate the ability to strategize, develop, and conduct efficient legal research in U.S. law.

4. Demonstrate the ability to identify and understand foundational concepts in international law and to perform international legal research.

5. Demonstrate communication skills, including effective listening and critical reading, writing in objective and persuasive styles, and oral advocacy and other oral communications.

6. Demonstrate professional judgment, ethics, and professionalism through conduct consistent with the legal profession’s values, standards, and discipline.

7. Demonstrate the ability to understand, collaborate, and engage with people of diverse backgrounds and experiences in a variety of legal settings and contexts.

8. Demonstrate understanding of the legal profession’s commitment to access to justice.

9. Demonstrate understanding of career options and steps toward defining and achieving career goals in light of personal values.
Examination Policies

Most courses have a comprehensive written examination at the end of each semester. Professors may also have one or more exams, quizzes, or written assessments and/or assignments during a semester. Some courses, such as clinical courses, Trial Advocacy, or Directed Research, may not have examinations but have grades based on evaluation of written assignments and performance standards.

Exam Schedule
The tentative final exam schedule is published before registration. Students may not register for classes with conflicting exams.

Exam Instructions
Students are advised to read the exam instructions carefully; students are responsible for knowing and complying with all examination instructions.

Exam Materials
Unless an announcement is made to the contrary, students are permitted to have only pens, pencils, and a laptop computer with them in the examination room. If it is necessary to bring backpacks, etc., into the room, the items must be left either in the front or back of the room, as the proctor indicates, and not retrieved until time has been called for all students to stop. McGeorge is not responsible for items left unattended during exam periods; leave valuable items at home.

Conduct During Exams
Students are expected to conduct themselves honorably and in a professional manner during examinations. Any breach of this standard may result in disciplinary action under the Code of Student Responsibility.

Submitting Questions & Exam Responses
Examination materials must be turned in as the proctors designate before the student leaves the examination room. The student may retain essay examination questions at the conclusion of the exam unless the professor has specifically designated the materials must be returned and it is so announced by the exam proctor. Multiple-choice questions, if any, are stapled together and always must be returned at the conclusion of the examination; each page must be numbered with the student’s exam number and the packet is turned in with the Scantron sheet.

Policy Regarding Rescheduling Exams
Exams must be taken at the scheduled date and time, unless the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs approves an exam change. Approved excuses are limited to the following circumstances:

- A bona fide illness, emergency, or personal tragedy,
- A conflict with the student’s religious observance, jury duty, or National Guard obligations,
- Rescheduling is approved as an accommodation for a disability and timely notice has been provided to the Office of Student Affairs, as described in the policy for students with disabilities,
- A student has a conflict between an exam and a required co-curricular activity (i.e., competition team travel), or
- A student has three consecutive exams. In such cases the second exam will be the one rescheduled. For example, if a student had the following three exams scheduled: Wednesday from 6:00 to 9:00 pm, Thursday from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm, and Thursday from 1:00 to 4:00 pm, the Thursday morning exam would be rescheduled.

Full written verification of the details of such an event may be required.

Only the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs can approve a student to miss an examination or any portion of an examination. To maintain the anonymity of the grading process, do not contact your professor about exam scheduling or missed exams.

If one or more examinations need to be rescheduled, the student must email sacstudentaffairs@pacific.edu at least four weeks prior to the examination (or as soon as the emergency arises). The Assistant Dean for Student Affairs will then review and either approve or deny the request.
Advancement and Grades

Academic Progress Email
Roughly 40 days after Spring exams end, you will receive an email from Dean Carr titled “Academic Progress Email” which contains vital information about your academic status, next steps for continued study, and instructions for how to access your transcript on insidePacific. Read this email carefully. If you are in Directed Study, on probation, disqualified, or have failed a required course, that information will be included in your Academic Progress Email. First-year students will also receive an Academic Progress Email in mid-January after their first semester grades have been released.

Academic Progression
The Office of the Registrar will review your academic progress at the end of each Fall and Spring semester to determine your class attribute level using the following table which is based on 33% (Day) and 25% (Eve) completion:

Exam and Paper Return
At McGeorge, many professors return exams and papers to students, which is a practice that differs from that of many law schools. Reviewing your exams gives you an opportunity to evaluate your performance and to learn from successes and mistakes. During the semester, midterm exams/assignments are returned to students either in class or through the FSO. Final exams/assignments are available approximately 2-3 weeks following the last day of grade posting for the term. You will receive an email with instructions regarding the exam pickup process. Exam booklets remain available for pick up during the first 45 days of the next full term, after which they are shredded.

Withdrawal/Leave of Absence
Class attendance is a fundamental aspect of the law school’s program. Thus, no law student will be allowed to take a leave of absence for a portion of a semester, including summer.

If extraordinary circumstances dictate that a student must take time off from law school, the student must withdraw from all courses in which he/she is enrolled in that semester. Students who withdraw, other than those in the first year of the full-time program or either of the first two years of the part-time program, may request to return as soon as the following semester, but in no event may the leave continue for more than two full semesters. Eligibility to return to the law school will be evaluated by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Assistant Dean for Student Affairs upon the written request of the student, including reasonable evidence that the student is ready to resume study.

A first year student in the full-time program or a student in either the first or second year of the part-time program who withdraws from the law school must reapply through the Office of JD Admissions. Eligibility to return to the law school may be denied based on academic performance as of the date of withdrawal.

Involuntary Withdrawal
McGeorge School of Law may require a leave upon specified terms, terminate a student’s enrollment, or decline to award a degree if the Administration determines it is in the best interests of the law school or that a student is not qualified for admission to the legal profession because of factors other than academic standing.

Repeating Courses
Students may not repeat courses in which they received a non-failing grade. A student who receives a failing grade (“F”) in a required course must repeat that course and the highest number of grade points that can be credited is the equivalent of a “C+” grade. Under G&A Rule 701, the original grade remains on the transcript, but only the repeat grade counts for GPA purposes. (Note: different rules apply for students on probation or who have been readmitted following disqualification.)
Class Rank
At the end of each academic year, JD students are ranked against students in their academic year and division based on cumulative GPA. Class ranks are emailed to students after sufficient time has elapsed from the publication of year-end transcripts so as to allow time for correction of any clerical or processing discrepancies. Ranking information is not provided by phone.

In mid-July you will receive an email from the Office of the Registrar titled “Class Rank” that will contain your class rank. Class ranks are calculated only one time per year. Students who change Divisions are ranked with the class of the Division in which they are enrolled during the Spring term. Students must complete the entire academic year (Fall and Spring) in order to be ranked.

Grade Changes
Individual professors do not have authority to change grades once submitted, and the G & A rules expressly discourage them from re-reading examination papers for the purpose of reevaluation and grade change. Do not contact your professor directly to request a grade change.

- If you believe there is a mathematical error, contact the Office of the Registrar.
- If you believe that there was an abuse of discretion in assigning the grade, the procedure to challenge a grade is described in G&A Rule 505. Contact Dean Carr if you are considering such a petition.

Good Standing
A student is in good standing with a cumulative GPA of 2.33 or above.

Probation
A student whose cumulative GPA Falls within the range from 2.18 – 2.32 at the end of any academic year, other than the final year, may continue his or her enrollment on academic probation, under the conditions described in G&A Rule 605.1. Students cannot repeat probation.

Academic Disqualification
Under G&A Rule 605, a first year student must have at least a 1.90 GPA at the end of the Fall semester in order to advance to the Spring semester. Students who do not meet the 1.90 GPA threshold after the Fall semester are academically disqualified. After the first semester, a student is disqualified when his or her cumulative GPA at the completion of an academic year falls below 2.18, or, for a student who was on academic probation, when their cumulative GPA falls below 2.33. Procedures and timing for requesting readmission following academic disqualification are discussed in G&A Rule 703.

Application for Graduation
JD students must complete the “Application for Graduation” on insidePacific no later than the Add/Drop Deadline in the term prior to their final term. You may graduate at the end of the Fall semester, end of the Spring semester, or end of the summer sessions, but graduation ceremonies are held only once a year in May. A degree audit will be performed once your Application is received, and you will receive an email confirmation with the results.

Grading

Grading System
For courses with final letter grades (as distinguished from Pass/Fail courses), grades range from A+ to F. Weighted averages are computed from exam scores and scores on any other graded assignments in the course, and the professor then designates the range of averages to equate to a letter grade.
A professor may adjust grades may be adjusted upward or downward based on class attendance, preparedness, participation, and performance.

Anonymous Grading
Under G&A Rule 501.1, grading in most courses at McGeorge is anonymous. Each Fall, students are given a new confidential exam number to use for assignments and exams. The professor does not know which grade goes with which student by student name.

In some courses, however, grading may not be completely anonymous. In those courses, students will use their confidential exam number for some assignments and exams and will use their name for other assignments and exams. In other courses, grading is not anonymous at all – assignments and exams are graded using only the student’s name.

Additionally, professors can provide grade adjustments based on a student’s attendance, preparation, participation, and performance, per G&A Rule 302. In such cases, the professor will necessarily know a student’s name when making the adjustment. Moreover, a professor may also opt to ascertain how a student performed on the assignments and exams in the course when deciding on an adjustment for that student.

Professors will inform students in writing of the anonymous or non-anonymous grading procedures for the assignments, exams, and grade adjustments in their course. If you have a question about how grading will operate for a particular course, please ask the professor.

Grading Scale/Scores
Under G&A Rule 411, anonymous grading in Torts, Contracts, Property, Civil Procedure, Criminal Law, Statutes & Regulations, Legal Profession, and Global Lawyering Skills I, scores are based on the following scale, which is roughly equivalent to the following letter grades:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Scaled Points</th>

</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>

<tr>

</tbody>
</table>

Scores do not appear on transcripts and do not represent a final grade in a course. All scores are subject to adjustment and finalization under G&A Rule 501. In courses other than those listed above, there is no standard grading scale.

Grade of Incomplete
A grade of “INC” (Incomplete) may be entered in a course when the requirements for that course are not completed for reasons the professor deems to be acceptable. The incomplete work must be completed by the first day of classes of the second semester (including summer session) after the semester when the INC course ended. If not, a grade of “F” (fail) will be entered, as specified in G&A Rule 409. For graduating seniors, the incomplete work must be completed within 30 days of when the INC is entered or a grade of “F” (fail) will be entered.
Subjective Interpretation of Grades
Under G&A Rules 501 and 502, letter grades, ranging from A+ to F, with pluses and minuses, have the following subjective interpretations:

<table>

Under G&A Rule 504, units of credit for a course are awarded if the course grade is “D” or higher. No course or unit credit is granted for a grade of “F.”

Grade Point Average (GPA)
A student’s GPA is determined by dividing his/her grade points earned by the number of units attempted, but not counting P/F units in which a grade higher than “fail” was received. Grade point values are awarded for letter grades (multiplied by the number of units for that course) as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Grade Points</th>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A+</td>
<td>4.33</td>

Grade Distributions
Under G&A Rule 501, all grades in required courses other than Global Lawyering Skills I & II and Principles of Agency must meet the following grade distribution standard, in addition to the targeted arithmetic means:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Letter Grade</th>
<th>Grade Distribution Standards (Min% – Max%)</th>
<th>Corresponding Score on the G&amp;A Rule 411 100 Point Scale</th>
<th>Corresponding Grade Points</th>

</tr>
<tr>

<td></td>
<td>1.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>F</td>
<td>Lower than 50</td>
<td></td>
<td>0.00</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

In determining compliance with the ranges above, fractions may be rounded up or down at the discretion of the instructor. For example, in a class of 70 students, 5% = 3.5 students and 15% equals 10.5 students. The instructor may therefore give 3 to 11 grades of C+.
Pass/Fail Courses
Some elective courses are designated as Honors/Pass/Low Pass/Fail courses in the Catalog. Of the 88 semester units required for graduation, 72 must be earned in graded (i.e., not P/F) courses. The only P/F courses are those so designated by the faculty. Students do not have the option to enroll in a graded course on a P/F basis. Under G&A Rule 202, the following grading standards apply in P/F courses:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Subjective Interpretation</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Honors</td>
<td>Work performed at a superior level</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pass</td>
<td>Work performed at an acceptable level</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Low Pass</td>
<td>Work performed at the “C” or “C-” levels</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fail</td>
<td>Receives no unit credits for the course</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Students earning the grade of “Fail” do not receive unit credits for the course. In determining a student’s cumulative grade point average, units attempted in P/F courses are not counted for any course in which a grade higher than “Fail” was received.

Grades Earned at Other Law Schools
Grades earned at another law school and accepted towards a student’s McGeorge JD degree do not count in computing a student’s McGeorge grade point average. Only the units, not individual course grades, are recorded on a student’s McGeorge transcript.
Grading “Curve” FAQ

Q: Is the grading system a mandatory curve?
A: The grading system is not a mandatory curve, at least in the traditional sense. In required courses, it does require professors to distribute the grades, but they have a lot of latitude as to how they do that. Having a targeted mean ensures that whatever the distribution, the students in that class are not materially advantaged or disadvantaged relative to other students taking the course. Also, elective courses are governed only by targeted means, which ensures some comparability but gives maximum flexibility as to distribution.

Q: Why were the G&A Rules amended to include mandatory distributions and targeted means?
A: Previously professors had no guidance about the distribution of grades. This led to some very high grades and some very low ones, sometimes even within different sections of the same subject. This inconsistency raised very real fairness issues, especially where class standing and scholarship monies are concerned. It also made our grading less transparent and reliable to outside audiences, such as employers.

Q: Why did we adopt the 100 point scale?
A: Previously, there were ten points (90-100) at the A+ level, and all the other scores were compressed between about 60 and 90. The 100 point scale spreads the scores out more, and in addition, the scores are roughly equivalent to those awarded at other institutions.

Q: Why don’t all of my courses have to use the 100 point scale?
A: Professors believed there was less need for scoring uniformity after the first year. Therefore, upper-division faculty have more discretion.

Q: Do professors have to fail students?
A: No. The G&A Committee did not want to adopt a system where professors were required to fail a certain percentage of students, and that is reflected in the mandatory distribution where grades of C and under may range from 0 to 15%.

Q: Who should I talk to if I have a question about grading?
A: If you want to verify what your scores were, you should contact the Office of the Registrar. If you have a question about the G&A Rules or wish to contest a grade, you should contact Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, Dean Carr, or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, Dean Colatrella.
Grading and Advancement Committee

The JD Grading and Advancement Committee (“G&A Committee”) is the body duly authorized to study, develop, adopt, and apply rules, regulations, and procedures pertaining to examinations, grading, advancement, graduation, and related matters for JD students. The G&A presents major policy considerations to the entire faculty for debate and vote before official adoption.

G&A Rules
The JD G&A Rules (pertaining to examinations, grading, advancement, graduation, and related matters) are located on the McGeorge website. These rules are subject to amendment at any time by the faculty, without prior notice. Although the faculty seeks to avoid changes which would result in preventing a student who is satisfactorily following a regular course of study from graduating at the normal time, students do not acquire any vested rights in the continued enforcement of the JD G&A Rules as now set forth.

G&A Petitions
Any student who is adversely affected by the application of the JD G&A Rules may file a petition for relief through the Office of Student Affairs. The G&A Committee meets once per month to hear student petitions. The schedule for these meetings is set each year at the beginning of Fall Semester. Upon receipt, the Office of Students Affairs will calendar the petition for the next scheduled meeting of the Committee.

There is no specific format for a G&A petition, however all petitions should set forth the nature of the relief being requested and the reasons why it should be granted. Petitions should be emailed to sacstudentaffairs@pacific.edu.

Students who submit a G&A petition also have the right to make a personal appearance before the committee. The purpose of a personal appearance is to provide any additional information that was not available at the time the petition was filed and/or to answer any questions that the Committee members may have regarding the petition. If you wish to make a personal appearance, be sure to specify this on your petition and provide a phone number where you can be reached for scheduling purposes.

Prior to the hearing, the Committee members will receive and review copies of all petitions and any attachments. The G&A Committee is the final decision-making body in matters concerning student petitions; there is no appeal to the Dean or Provost.

Any questions may be directed to the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs (Dean Carr) or the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs (Dean Colatrella).

Students should refrain from contacting the faculty members on the Committee in connection with the preparation of their petitions, as this may compromise the fairness and objectivity of the process.
Honors and Awards

Dean’s List
Students who earn a 3.30 or higher annual GPA at the completion of an academic year are named to the Dean’s Honor List and will see a notation to that effect on their transcript.

Witkin Awards
The student who earns the highest score in an eligible course earns the Witkin Award for that course and receives a certificate from the Witkin Legal Institute. If there is a tie for the highest score, the student with the highest cumulative GPA receives the Witkin Award. The Witkin List is posted on the FSO bulletin board and LibGuides site after each term, once all grades have been finalized and all grade appeals have been heard. Certificates are mailed to the student’s local address on file approximately 2-3 weeks following the posting of the results.

Graduation Honors

Valedictorian Awards
The graduating student in each Division with the highest grade point average in the Division is presented a medal that recognizes his or her achievement.

The Order of the Coif
A national law school honor society founded to encourage legal scholarship and advance the ethical standards of the legal profession. Seniors whose academic records place them in the top 10% of the combined Full-Time and Part-Time Division and who have completed at least 75% of their law studies in graded courses at McGeorge are eligible for election to membership.

With Great Distinction
Members of the graduating class whose cumulative grade point average is 3.50 or higher graduate “With Great Distinction.”

With Distinction
Members of the graduating class whose cumulative grade point average is 3.10 or higher graduate “With Distinction.”

Traynor Society
Students whose grades during any two academic years qualified them for the Dean’s Honor List are named members of the Traynor Society, named in honor of the late Honorable Roger J. Traynor, former Chief Justice of the California Supreme Court.

The Order of Barristers
Ten graduating seniors may be elected to membership in recognition of performance in intramural and interscholastic appellate and trial advocacy competitions.

The Faculty Honors and Awards Committee
The Faculty Honors and Awards Committee annually selects graduating JD students for the awards and honors listed below. Your 2018-19 Student Representative on this Committee is Andrew Blan, ’19.

Outstanding Graduating Senior Award
This award is given annually to the student in each division who most successfully demonstrates excellence in scholastic achievement; consideration is also given to criteria such as honors the student received and the student’s participation in activities that exemplify the highest academic and individual achievements during his or her law school career.

Outstanding Scholastic Achievement Award
This award is given annually to the student in each division who has made the most significant contribution toward overall legal scholarship in his or her class. This award is intended to recognize significant study and writing in particular area, such as might be demonstrated through publication of a student comment, or other meaningful contribution to legal scholarship or study.
Outstanding Student Achievement Award
This award is given annually to a student in each division based primarily on student leadership abilities, with secondary consideration being given to the student’s scholastic standing and honors; service in government offices, committees, and special projects; participation in the Pacific Law Review; work on other student publications; participation on competition teams; outside activities; and work experience during law school.

ALI-ABA Scholarship & Leadership Award
This award is given annually to the student in each division who best represents a combination of scholarship and leadership qualities embodied by the American Law Institute and the American Bar Association. ALI-ABA provides post-admission education for the legal profession. ALI-ABA is dedicated to keeping the legal community abreast of current developments and providing practitioners with the resources necessary to enhance their practice.

Outstanding Student Service Award
This award is given annually to up to 3 students in the day division and up to 2 students in the evening division to recognize students who have given the most significant service and contributed in the most meaningful way to the McGeorge Community.

Diversity & Inclusion Award
This award is given annually to the student in each division who demonstrated extraordinary commitment to enhancing inclusion on campus through positive communication between persons of different backgrounds, developing creative ideas for increasing and valuing diversity, promoting an environment free from bias and discrimination, and organizing or facilitating various academic or community events promoting diversity, respect, and inclusiveness.

Other Awards
Nominations for awards from various organizations are made each year according to their procedures and criteria.
Dual Degree Programs

McGeorge has three dual degree programs, in which – with advance approval – graduate credit earned in one program is accepted toward the degree from the other program. The three programs include: JD/MBA, JD/MPP, and JD/MPA.

Admission
Students must be admitted separately to the McGeorge School of Law JD Program and to the program that will confer the Master’s degree. Admission to McGeorge’s JD Program does not guarantee admission into other degree programs, even those housed within the McGeorge School of Law.

Approval
Students who want to pursue a dual degree should consult with the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs regarding their planned course of study. Students can schedule an appointment with Dean Carr by contacting the Office of Student Affairs at sacstudentaffairs@pacific.edu or 916.739.7089.

JD/MBA Programs
We offer dual JD/MBA program with the University of the Pacific, Eberhardt School of Business in Stockton. McGeorge will accept up to 12 units of graduate credit earned at University of the Pacific. Students should consult directly with the Business School regarding how many units of law school credit will be accepted towards the MBA.

JD/MPP and JD/MPA Opportunity
Students may pursue both a JD and a Master of Public Policy Degree (MPP) in the full-time day division, or a JD and a Master of Public Administration (MPA) in the part-time evening division. This option reduces by a year the total time needed to complete both degrees separately. Students apply to each program separately and in the first year, only Law courses are taken. Speak with counselors of both programs to learn more.

Other Programs
Occasionally, a student may be interested in pursuing a Master’s degree in an area in which a dual degree program is not available, such as history, international relations, or social work. The student should consult with the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs to determine if any credit for the Master’s program coursework would be accepted by McGeorge. Upon approval of a written proposal, up to 6 units of credit may be accepted toward the JD degree.

Transfer of Credit
To be accepted by McGeorge as elective credit toward the JD unit requirements, the credit (1) must be for graduate level courses, and (2) must have been earned concurrently between initial matriculation and graduation from the McGeorge JD program.

Transcript
An official transcript of completed Master’s course work to be accepted toward the JD degree must be furnished to the Registrar; only the number of units (not grades) accepted are reflected on the McGeorge transcript.

Centers of Distinction

McGeorge has three Centers of Distinction focused on Global Business & Development, Advocacy & Dispute Resolution, and Public Law & Policy. As discussed in the “Concentrations” section, each Center offers students the opportunity to pursue a concentration in its area of legal specialty in addition to your JD degree.

Center for Advocacy & Dispute Resolution
This Center supports our outstanding Mock Trial, Moot Court, Client Counseling, and ADR competition teams, presents scholarly programs, including the annual Lou Ashe Scholar in Residence symposia and presentation, hosts the National Ethics Mock Trial Competition, and engages in international advocacy training.

The Center recently completed a several year teaching exchange with Russian law professors to enhance advocacy training in Russia. The Center has trained Chilean prosecutors and defense attorneys in client counseling, plea bargaining, and trial skills, and trained law professors throughout China in experiential learning and advocacy. Aided by our innovative Trial and Appellate Advocacy Concentration and Global Lawyering Skills courses, our student competition teams excel. The Trial Advocacy Program is regularly ranked among the top Trial Advocacy programs in the country, including last year when Trial Advocacy was ranked 15th in the country and 10th the year before. The Moot Court Program is frequently ranked in the top fifteen nationally as well. The school also provides students a rare opportunity to represent clients in federal court at hearings and trials through its year-long Federal Defender clinic, one of only a few in the country.

In recent years, we have also raised our profile in ADR, and now have a unique and highly regarded Prisoner Civil Rights Mediation clinic that provides students with an opportunity to mediate cases in the Eastern District of California. In June 2018, the McGeorge negotiation team consisting of Doug Leach, ‘18 and Leah Parrish, ‘18 and coached by Claudia Wrazel, won the ABA National Negotiation Competition and the International Negotiation Competition in Wales!

Faculty members associated with the Center also publish books, case files, law review articles, and host symposia on a wide variety of topics, including “Modern Jury Issues” in Spring 2018 and “Miranda at 50: Time for a Makeover?” which took place in April 2016.

Capital Center for Law & Policy
The Capital Center trains students to make and change law and policy through an interdisciplinary approach across McGeorge’s graduate programs. The core of its programs is the nationally recognized Capital Lawyering Concentration, one of few such programs, offering specialized classes, a legislative clinic, externships, law and policy trainings and events, specialized public policy and government jobs career counseling, and networking activities with alumni and policymakers around the capital. In the Legislative and Public Policy Clinic, students lobby bills into law. Their work has been featured in LA Times articles and other media.

The Center’s programs also include the Capital Commendation for Public Service, the Washington D.C. Fellowship, affiliation with the “Greensheets” California Legislation Review, the California Initiative Review, the Public Legal Services Society, and the Government Affairs Student Association.

Global Center for Business & Development
The Global Center is dedicated to ensuring that McGeorge students are well prepared for careers in an ever-more globalized marketplace and to promoting the development and dissemination of policy research and scholarship pertaining to global issues. The Global Center co-directors, Professors Jarrod Wong and Omar Dajani, oversee the International Concentration, which guides students through curricular choices and provides those who successfully complete the coursework and other requirements with a certificate that signals international law expertise and commitment to employers. The Global Center also runs an international internship program, through which students can apply for placements in internships with a variety of employers and types of organizations around the world.

Each year, the Global Center hosts international speaker series and symposia on campus. Students are encouraged to attend Global Center events and join the conversation.

You can find a full listing of the Concentration requirements on the McGeorge website here: mcgeorge.edu/Students/Academics/Areas_of_Specialty/Certificates_of_Concentration.htm

Q: What if there isn’t a Certificate of Concentration in the area of law I want to pursue?
A: If McGeorge does not offer a Certificate of Concentration in your desired practice area, there are other ways to accomplish the same aim – for example, you could take electives and pursue co-and extra-curricular activities to build your skillset and increase your connections in a specific field.

Q: Can I earn two (or more) Certificates of Concentration?
A: The short answer is “maybe.” Some programs have overlapping requirements that make it feasible to complete both. For example, if you take Federal Income Taxation, it will satisfy a requirement for both the Business and Tax Concentration. However, depending on which two programs you want to pursue, you may find it difficult (if not impossible) to complete both due to the inevitable conflicts you will encounter in the academic schedule. If you find yourself in this position, it would be wise to consider whether your efforts might actually be better focused elsewhere, such as pursuing Legal Clinic or Externship positions in both of your areas of interest (which are another way to build your resume) rather than devoting virtually all of your elective units to completing two Concentrations.

Please consult with Dean Carr and/or the Concentration Faculty Director if you have any questions.
International Study Opportunities

Salzburg Summer Abroad Program
Broaden your law school experience by taking advantage of McGeorge’s unique summer program in Salzburg, Austria. Salzburg has been the site of McGeorge School of Law’s annual Summer Program on International Legal Studies since 1974. The three-week program in Salzburg offers international and comparative law courses in public and commercial law fields. European and American faculty, as well as renowned practitioners teach courses. To learn more about the Salzburg Summer Program, email mcgeorgesummerabroad@pacific.edu.

In addition to the academic program in Salzburg, students may also enroll in one unit internships with legal offices abroad to be completed in advance of the Salzburg program. Participating in an internship provides practical legal education, as well as promotes networking globally with lawyers in other jurisdictions.

Please note that all students who participate in the Salzburg Summer Program must be enrolled students at an ABA-approved law school as of the first day of the program in order to participate, meaning that any student who is academically disqualified after the Spring semester will not be able to participate. Please consult with Dean Carr before enrolling in the program if your GPA is below a 2.5 after the Fall semester.

Summer Abroad Programs at Another ABA Accredited Law School
McGeorge students may take up to six units of elective credit at another ABA-accredited law school. To request permission, submit a Rule 902 Application to the Office of Student Affairs (pick up a paper copy of the application in-person or email sacstudentaffairs@pacific.edu for the electronic version). Upon approval, McGeorge will accept up to 6 units of credit earned with passing grades in elective courses (not Externships).

Exchange Programs
Add a true international dimension to your JD experience by participating in an Exchange Program, spending a semester or year studying law at a university in another country. McGeorge currently has exchange agreements with four universities:

- University of Salzburg, Austria – Salzburg is located at the geographic and historic crossroads of Central Europe. Classes are held in the Law Faculty Building of the University of Salzburg, located in a renovated 16th Century palace in the heart of Salzburg’s historic Old Town. Courses are taught in English and focus primarily on the law of the European Union.

- Catholic University of Louvain, Belgium – The entire town of Louvain-la-Neuve was built around the campus of this university in the French-speaking part of Belgium. Some courses are held in English, but to be able to participate in this exchange, a reasonable fluency in French is necessary. Applications for the Fall semester must be submitted by the previous May 31 and for the Fall semester by the previous October 31.

- University of Copenhagen, Denmark – This university has been around for centuries and is located in the heart of Denmark’s largest city. It offers a full selection of law courses in English, so knowledge of Danish is not necessary to study there. Students must be nominated by McGeorge to participate in this exchange, and interested students should request to be nominated no later than May 31 for enrollment in either the following Fall or Spring semester.

- Bucerius Law School, Hamburg, Germany – This was Germany’s first private law school, and it has become known throughout the world as an innovator in legal education. Exchange students are accepted for the Fall semester only. Applications to be an exchange student may be made online and must be submitted by May 31 of the year for which the application is made. All courses are taught in English.

These Exchange Programs give you an opportunity to get first-hand knowledge of another country’s legal system and culture. Gaining a global perspective is essential in today’s legal practice. Approved classes taken at these universities will qualify for credit towards your JD degree. If you are considering an Exchange Program, please contact Clemence Kucera at ckucera@pacific.edu or 739.7353 at your earliest stages of planning.
International Externships/Internships
Students can earn academic credit for international Externships/Internships (also referred to as a “Semester-In-Practice” or “Summer-In-Practice”), or they can elect to volunteer. In recent years students have gone to Vietnam, the Netherlands, Germany, Italy, Guatemala, Cambodia, India, Switzerland (Geneva), China, and Hong Kong, among other places. A listing of available international internships is regularly updated and is available through the CDO. For students interested in interning in a foreign private practice, please contact Clemence Kucera at ckucera@pacific.edu or 916.739.7353.

International Concentration
By completing specified courses, students are eligible to obtain a Concentration indicating a program of study concentrating on International Law (see Certificates of Concentration section).

Related International Activities
- Visiting Scholars: The Global Center hosts distinguished foreign professors or jurists who complete independent research projects, audit courses, and participate in campus events.
- Visiting Foreign Faculty: The Global Center hosts 2-3 distinguished professors or practitioners each year who teach elective courses.
- International Law Society: McGeorge’s International Law Society (MILS) is a student organization that brings together those interested in international law. Members meet to discuss current legal trends and the club sponsors speakers on current international topics.

Opportunities to get involved with the above events and activities are regularly featured in The Docket and The WRIT.

Fast Track LLM in Water Resources Law

Our Fast Track LLM program allows JD students at Pacific McGeorge to apply up to 12 credits of JD coursework towards the LLM in Water Resources Law. You may specialize in either U.S. or international water law and earn your LLM degree in just one additional semester of study.

If you are interested in pursuing this advanced degree in water law, we encourage you to consider the fast track option during academic planning. The ideal time to apply for the fast track LLM is during the Spring of your 2L year. For details about the program and application process, contact the Graduate and International Programs Office at graduatelaw@pacific.edu or 916-739-7353. You can also find more information online at go.mcgeorge.edu/waterlaw.
Legal Clinics

Legal Clinics have been a hallmark of McGeorge for over 50 years. We have a broad array of clinical programs to meet our students’ learning needs and to serve our community’s legal needs. Clinical experience is one of the ways that our school shows its commitment to public service, social justice, and real-world work experiences for our students. We teach what can best be learned through experience: creative problem-solving and skilled advocating for clients. Visit the Legal Clinics Facebook page and website at mcgeorge.edu/Students/Academics/Experiential_Learning/Legal_Clinics.htm.

Community Legal Services (CLS)
Our three on-campus clinics (Immigration Law, Elder and Health Law, and Bankruptcy) are known as Community Legal Services. Law students are placed in the role of an attorney in a law office setting serving low-income clients. Students take major responsibility for real cases under careful faculty supervision, deal with the particular issues in the pending cases, learn case management and then use those real-life experiences to discuss in an academic setting the issues that lawyers face in their legal careers. Students often appear in administrative, state and federal courts. CLS also employs full time work-study students during the summer.

Hybrid, Off-Campus Clinic
We have also established two innovative hybrid clinics (Federal Defender and Prisoner Civil Rights), each with an important community partner, where students do much of their work off-campus. Our Federal Defender Clinic is one of only a few such clinics in the country.

Legislative and Public Policy Clinic
Our Legislative and Public Policy Clinic recognizes the role of lawyers in the public policy arena. Students advocate for and draft legislation and policy to be sponsored by members of our community and other clients.

All Clinics include a seminar component.

What people had to say about the Legal Clinics:

“Law firms are looking for students who have been in a clinic, represented clients in a courtroom under the supervision of an attorney, have been in trial competitions. These (factors) carry more weight than before.” John O’Malley, Recruiting Partner at Downey Brand, in an interview with Comstock’s magazine

“My clinic experience provided me with real life situations and not the typical classroom environment. I interviewed clients, conducted factual investigations and legal research for my cases, drafted legal documents and pleadings, and represented clients at hearings. I was able to see how legal issues play out and are resolved in the real world, and as a result I am a better-prepared attorney.” Cheryl Robertson ’10, Litigation Attorney at Girardi & Keese

“Working in the Clinic has ingrained the philosophy of the “whole client” concept in me. That is, as a student attorney, we are trained to become aware of the many multi-faceted issues that a seemingly simple case can produce.” Mick Rubio ’12

“Clinic work is the perfect experience for our students – a combination of advocacy, ethics and professional growth. Best of all, there are some very grateful clients who couldn’t have access to the legal system and social justice without us.” Melissa Brown, Director, Legal Clinics and Professor of Lawyering Skills

“Trying to help these clients function in the judicial system is very rewarding. One of our young clients, a crime victim who had been ostracized by her community, is finally able to apply for permanent citizenship. Now she and her family are able to come out of the shadows.” Blake Nordahl, Professor of Lawyering Skills and Supervising Attorney
Clinic Descriptions

Bankruptcy Clinic students represent (under supervision) debtors and creditors in bankruptcy proceedings. Students will: Interview and counsel clients. Assist clients in all aspects of case assessment, negotiation & settlement, and representation of debtors in bankruptcy proceedings in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of California. Participate in a weekly seminar course.

Elder Law and Health Clinic students represent (under supervision) people aged 60 and up with a variety of issues unique to the aging population including, alternatives to conservatorships, wills, trusts, powers of attorney, social security, Medicare/MediCal, and elder abuse. Elder law (including health issues for the elderly) is one of the country’s growing areas of legal specialization. Students will: Acquire a command of complicated substantive state and federal law, as well as a high level of ethical competence. Many cases require an interdisciplinary approach to lawyering, where clinic students have the opportunity to represent elders in court and on transactional matters concerning planning for death, incapacity and a variety of other issues. Students will also participate in joint classes with UCD Medical Students. In addition to elders, students in this clinic will provide civil legal services to persons experiencing homelessness. The Homeless Advocacy Clinic is part of the medical-legal partnership with our legal clinics and WellSpace Health. Legal services include access to public benefits, reduction of fees and fines, criminal record expungement, drivers’ license reinstatement, and child support modifications.

Federal Defender Clinic students represent (under supervision) indigent defendants in federal court. Students will: Work on cases under the joint supervision of two Assistant Federal Defenders and Professor Bricker. Draft legal memoranda, argue motions, handle jury and bench trials, and develop a working knowledge of criminal and sentencing statutes. Clinic students have represented clients in more than 100 cases since the Clinic opened in 2009, and they have won some impressive victories.

Immigration Law Clinic students have the opportunity to represent (under supervision) indigent non-citizens before the Department of Homeland Security and the Executive Office for Immigration Review in applications for various immigration benefits including adjustment of status and relief from removal. Students will: Provide legal assistance to low-income clients on immigration matters, including VAWA, adjustment of status, specialized visas (U, T and DACA), as well as representation in adversarial proceedings before the Immigration Court. Students work on all phases of the case from the initial consultation to preparing the closing letters. Clinic students interview and counsel clients, as well as prepare declarations, legal briefs and supporting exhibits in their representation of clients before the US Citizenship and Immigration Service.

Legislative and Public Policy Clinic is a year-long clinic in which students identify areas of law and policy suitable for reform. Students will: Collaborate with other clinic students in our various clinics, community organizations and experts to craft statutory language that is submitted to the Legislative Counsel’s office. Working with community sponsors, authors are identified to introduce a bill for legislative action. Participation in the Capitol Certificate Program is preferred, but not required.

Prisoner Civil Rights Mediation Clinic students co-mediate section 1983 prisoner civil rights cases with a federal magistrate judge. Students will: Learn both the theory and practice of mediation and develop the skills necessary to serve as mediators, including participating in mediation simulations. Students will also learn section 1983 prisoner case law.

Externships

Externships promote real-world practical experience by assisting students to think outside the box and encouraging a broad visioning of options, potential and goals. Approved General Externship and Judicial Externship opportunities allow students to earn academic credit, develop skills and legal knowledge, experience daily legal practice, and build resume and networking opportunities. Visit our Director of Externships for approved Externship Sites at local, state, and federal courts, government agencies, nonprofit entities, and limited for-profit firms.

Application Process

- Review approved Externships Sites in the Directory of Externships on the Externships Libguide
  - On Campus: libguides.mcgeorge.edu/externships
  - Off Campus: 0-libguides.mcgeorge.edu.pacificatclassic.pacific.edu/externships

- Students on academic probation at the start of a semester are not eligible to serve in an Externship.

Application Documents

- Mandatory: Resume and Cover Letter
- Documents that may be requested: Unofficial Transcript, Writing Sample, References/Letter of Recommendation

Competition Teams

Our student teams are top performers in some of the most prestigious national and international competitions, including our own National Ethics Trial Competition, where national teams compete to demonstrate excellence in trial advocacy and professional responsibility. Through participation on a competition team, you can expand your courtroom or alternate dispute resolution experience, improve oral and written advocacy skills, and refine client counseling, negotiation, and arbitration skills. Team membership is based on a competitive application process.

First-Year Competitions
The Ben Franz Mock Trial Competition and the First-Year Moot Court Competition take place each Spring semester and all 1D and 1E students who are interested in advocacy are encouraged to participate. These competitions help to identify talent for our teams, but are open to all students irrespective of whether they decide to try out for spots on the competition teams.

How does it work?
The competitions are organized by upper-division students. Interested 1D and 1E students sign up to participate in one or both competitions and receive training and instruction in trial and/or appellate advocacy from the upper-division student-organizers. The competitions are designed and dates are selected to allow students to participate in both opportunities.

All 1D and 1E students who sign up get to compete in the preliminary rounds. Those who score highly advance to the finals.

The top three finalists in the Ben Franz First-Year Mock Trial Competition receive a scholarship, have their name permanently engraved on a plaque on display in the Courtroom Trophy Case, and are almost always selected as competition team members the following year.

The First-Year Moot Court Competition awards cash prizes to the top oralist, top brief writer, and top advocate, plus top performers are regularly offered research assistant positions during their second year. Moot court research assistants are then given top priority for selection as team members in their 3L year. Hence, competing, and performing well, in the 1L moot court competition provides an added reward.

Mock Trial Competition Team
Our Mock Trial Teams are comprised of 2D, 3D, 2E, 3E, and 4E students who display talent in trial advocacy and a willingness to work hard to achieve excellence. The teams compete against law schools throughout the country, engaging in every phase of trial practice including arguing pretrial motions, opening statements, closing arguments, and direct and cross examinations.

Why try out for Mock Trial?
Our teams have won many trophies all over the country and have an excellent national reputation. This past year U.S. News and World Report ranked us fifteenth in the country in Trial Advocacy, in large part because of the success of our teams. Many of our Mock Trial Team alumni have become extremely successful trial lawyers and judges, owing their jobs and success in large measure to the training they received during their time on the team. Prospective employers in Sacramento are favorably impressed when they learn that a graduate seeking a job was a team member. We maintain a close to 100% employment rate for graduating team members. The Sacramento District Attorney and Public Defenders Offices are among the many organizations that continue to hire our graduates’ year after year.

Where do our teams compete?
Our teams compete throughout the United States. Some team members comprise our scrimmage team which competes against another McGeorge Mock Trial team on campus in the Fall and participates as a traveling team in the Spring. The mock trial fact patterns are almost always derived from real cases around the country.

Keep an eye on your University email for more information about participating in these competitions during your first year.
The Annual All-McGeorge Competition
Each year in January our trial teams compete against the four top performers in the Fall Trial Advocacy course (called the Mock Trial Honors Team) in the intraschool All McGeorge Competition. The competitors are scored by experienced trial lawyers and former trial teamers. 16 additional students play the roles of live witnesses during the rounds. Those students get to play different roles on the stand, viewing advocacy from the perspective of testifying witnesses.

Who can try out for the Mock Trial Team?
All 2D, 3D, 2E, 3E, and 4E students not on probation are eligible to try out for the Mock Trial Team. We have had several Part-Time students join the team and compete for three consecutive years. Having completed or being concurrently enrolled in Evidence and Trial Advocacy is a plus but not a prerequisite to making the team.

When are Mock Trial Team tryouts?
Preliminary tryouts are held in late April. Students work with a short fact pattern and perform five minutes of a cross examination and five minutes of a closing argument. 24 to 26 students are called back for final rounds a week later. From this group of finalists, 16 to 20 are chosen to be on the team.

Mock Trial Team Time Commitment & Units
Once chosen to be on a team, students participate in a late-summer boot camp, culminating in an intra-squad competition at the beginning of the school year. During the year, students attend practices three times a week. Teams generally compete in one to two competitions in the Fall and again in the Spring. Team members are also required to participate in a full-year Mock Trial Evidence course where they learn how to apply the Federal Rules of Evidence in a courtroom setting. The Mock Trial Evidence class is 1 graded unit each semester. In addition to the units earned from Mock Trial Evidence, traveling teams earn 2 P/F units over the academic year, and scrimmage team members earn between 1 and 2 P/F units over the same period, depending upon the number of competitions in which they compete.

Ferris/White $10,000 Trial Advocacy Award
Each Spring one outstanding Trial Advocacy/Mock Trial student is awarded a $10,000 prize for displaying superior skill in the courtroom. Two other students receive the Trial Advocate of the year and Joseph Taylor Excellence in Advocacy Award, both of which include small cash prizes.

Trial Advocacy Association
There are opportunities to participate in Trial Advocacy-related events, even if you are not a Mock Trial Team member, by joining the student-run Trial Advocacy Association. Among other activities, this organization holds meetings focusing on advocacy issues, invites outside speakers to serve on panels, participates in the Mock Trial Summer Trial Advocacy Training Program and helps run our first-year Ben Franz Mock Trial Competition.

National Ethics Trial Competition
In the Spring, Professors Leach and Bricker run the National Ethics Trial Competition, where teams from around the country compete at the Federal Courthouse downtown. Over the course of this four-day competition, numerous student volunteers are needed to act as live witnesses, bailiffs and clerks in the courtrooms.

Moot Court Competition Team

McGeorge has one of the top Moot Court programs in the country. In recent years, it has been ranked in the top ten of all law school Moot Court programs on two independent listings. The program offers opportunities for students to compete nationally and internationally in as many as 15 different competitions.

What is Moot Court?
Moot court deals with the appellate side of advocacy. As such, it emphasizes legal writing and oral argument. All students who have completed their second year of law school are eligible for moot court. Selected students show strong skills in either written advocacy, oral advocacy, or both. All of the Moot Court teams are coached by McGeorge professors and by Moot Court Program alums.

Why try out for Moot Court?
Many employers are now viewing Moot Court team membership on par with law review work because of the direct correlation it provides to actual practice. Students who achieve success in Moot Court invariably have the skills to be successful practicing attorneys because of the high degree of writing and oral skills the practice of law requires, and because of the evidence of strong time-management skills participation in Moot Court promotes. Moot Court alums are especially loyal to the program. Many hold that it is the most significant and rewarding single activity they participated in while in law school. In addition, the excellent instruction in appellate advocacy they receive, students find the experience of competing on behalf of their law school in a program that is nationally recognized especially meaningful.

Where do our teams compete?
In the 2017-18 academic year, McGeorge participated in eleven competitions. They dealt with the following areas of law: criminal procedure, entertainment law, corporate law, admissibility of evidence, asylum and immigration law, human rights law, constitutional law, hate crime legislation, copyright and trademark law, cultural heritage law, employment law and international law. McGeorge teams received eight top oralist awards including three best in tournament awards, nine top brief awards including two for the best brief in the tournament, and won six of the competitions. In the top California state competition the McGeorge team won the top brief award, the top individual oralist award and the best overall team award, as well as finishing second in the team oral competition. The prior year, the McGeorge team won all of the team awards, the first time in the 40 year history of the competition that the same school won all three awards. In the largest national competition, McGeorge was one of only two schools (out of 120) that sent two teams to the final rounds.

How do I become a team member?
Membership on the competition teams is based on acceptance onto the Moot Court Honors Board, which is a student-run organization that is supervised by the Faculty Director of the Moot Court Program, Professor Ed Telfeyan. Last year the honors board included 19 3D students, 4 3E students and 3 4E students. In addition, 8 2L students were research assistants for specific competition teams. They were chosen by virtue of their success in the intra-school first-year moot court competition.

When do I apply?
Students apply for the program at the end of the Spring semester of their second year. Acceptance is based in large part on the work in the second-year Global Lawyering Skills course which includes the preparation of a full appellate brief and the presentation of a full appellate oral argument. New members of the Honors Board are chosen the following summer.

Advanced Appellate Advocacy
All Moot Court team members are required to take the Advanced Appellate Advocacy course Professor Telfeyan teaches. That course is a two-semester, four-unit graded course.

Moot Court Society
The Honors Board also runs the Moot Court Society, which is a club that is open to all students. Every year the Moot Court Society features a guest speaker on the subject of appellate advocacy. In past years jurists like Justice Kathleen Butz and George Nicholson of California’s Third District Court of Appeal and appellate attorneys have been featured.

More Information:
For more information about the McGeorge Moot Court program, contact Professor Ed Telfeyan at etelfeyan@pacific.edu or 916-739-7340, or any of the current Moot Court Honors Board members.

ABA Negotiation Competition

Team
The ABA Law Student Division Negotiation Competition provides a means for law students to practice and improve their negotiating skills. The competition simulates legal negotiations in which law students, acting as lawyers, negotiate a series of legal problems. The simulations consist of a common set of facts known by all participants and confidential information known only to the participants representing a particular side. All of the simulations deal with the same general topic, but the negotiation situation varies with each round and level of the competition. In June 2018, the McGeorge negotiation team consisting of Doug Leach, ‘18 and Leah Parrish, ‘18 and coached by Claudia Wrazel won the ABA National Negotiation Competition and the International Negotiation Competition in Wales! Contact the ADR Club President David Obisanya at d_obisanya@u.pacific.edu if you are interested in learning more.

Client Counseling Competition

Team
The ABA Client Counseling Competition is a unique competition in that it requires students to master knowledge of a particular area of law and use skills of interviewing, listening, and empathy to discern a client problem and to counsel the client on a path towards resolution of that legal problem. Judges are lawyers and counselors, and the student lawyers meet with various actors playing different client roles throughout the competition. The legal subject matters change from year to year, but they often involve torts, professional responsibility, and ethics. Students are selected for the ABA Client Counseling team that competes in the Spring through participation in the Client Interviewing and Counseling course offered in the Fall semester. For more information, contact Associate Dean for Experiential Learning Mary-Beth Moylan at mmoylan@pacific.edu.

Mock Trial, Moot Court, and Other Advocacy Teams

Participation Policy
McGeorge School of Law has approved moot court, mock trial and other similar advocacy programs, directed by full-time faculty members, where the students are selected on a competitive basis. No student or team of students may enter any other moot court, mock trial competition, excluding intra-mural competitions, or any other advocacy competition without the approval of the director of the relevant program. The purpose of this policy is to ensure that any student or team of students seeking to compete in such competitions receives adequate instruction and coaching and that any such individual or team represents the law school in a favorable light.
Journals

The University of the Pacific Law Review (UPLR) is a student-run, scholarly journal published on a quarterly basis, containing articles written by members of the bar and bench, legal analysis and commentary on cutting-edge transnational issues, student-authored comments, and student-authored reviews of recently enacted California legislation. Eligible students have two opportunities to solicit for UPLR membership:

Review of California Legislation (“Greensheets”)
Greensheets, named for the distinctive color of its pages, reviews recently enacted California legislation. The top 50% of students in the 1D/2E classes are eligible to compete for Greensheets membership through the solicitation process each March. Solicitation consists of a brief, closed-research writing competition. Members spend the summer writing articles about bills making their way through the legislature. Creditworthy articles are eligible for publication.

2018-2019 Greensheets Staff Writers
Molly Alcorn, Kim Carrubba, Amy Gassner, Thomas Gerhart, Hayley Graves, Devinn Larsen, Jenny Liao, Trisha Mannie, Ejiro Okoro, Camille Reid, Les Swizer, Katie Young

Comment
Entering 2D, 2E, and 3E students who meet any of the following criteria and have not previously solicited for Comment are invited to participate in solicitation: top 50% of their class; Witkin award in GLS I; current Greensheets member (upon successful completion of Greensheets assignments); transfer student in the top 50% of their former law school class. Solicitation consists of a brief, closed-research writing competition in July. Members spend the year writing persuasive comments on unique legal issues of their choosing. A select number of comments are chosen for publication the following year.

UPLR Editors
2D members of Greensheets or Comment are eligible to run for board or editorial positions for the following year. 2E members of Greensheets or Comment are eligible to run for editorial positions for the following year (their 3E year) and eligible to run for board positions in their 3E year (to serve as a board member during their 4E year).

Directed Research

Directed Research provides the opportunity for JD students to engage in a comprehensive individual research project under the supervision of a full-time faculty member. The work product may take the form of a scholarly paper, empirical study, analysis of topical readings, or other creative format that demonstrates in-depth legal research and original analysis.

Advance Approval Required
Advance approval of the research topic and unit credit is required. A student must submit a detailed written proposal of the research topic and obtain approval from a full-time faculty member willing to supervise the student’s research. The proposal and a completed “Directed Research Request Form” (available online and from the Office of the Registrar) must then be submitted to the Registrar by the last day to add/drop of the term in which the student intends to enroll in Directed Research.

Supervision Required
Directed Research must be supervised by a full-time faculty member on a regular basis. Specifics regarding supervision of the course are left to the supervising faculty member, but the general expectation is that the student will provide an outline and draft of the project at established deadlines, and the faculty member will provide regular feedback to the student.

Number of Units
A student may enroll for either 1 or 2 credit hours (Honors/Pass/Low Pass/Fail) for Directed Research. A student is expected to put in at least 50 hours of work for each credit hour. If the resulting work product is a paper, as a general rule, the student should produce a paper of approximately 20 pages in length for 1 unit of credit or 40 pages in length for 2 units of credit.

Limitation
A student is not permitted to receive credit for Directed Research for a project produced for the student’s employer or for any other law school course or activity.
Student Complaint Procedure
(ABA Standard 510)

American Bar Association (ABA) Standard 510 requires each law school to publish and comply with policies regarding student complaints that address the school’s program of legal education.

Any student at the law school who wishes to bring a formal complaint to the administration regarding a significant problem that directly implicates the school’s program of legal education and its compliance with the ABA Standards, should do the following:

1. Submit the complaint in writing to the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs. The complaint may be sent via email, U.S. Mail, facsimile, or delivered in person to the Office of the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs. There is also a web-based form located online at mcgeorge.edu/Student_Complaint_Process.htm.

2. The complaint should describe in detail the behavior, program, process, or other matter that is at issue, and should explain how the matter directly implicates the law school’s program of legal education and its compliance with a specific, identified ABA Standard(s).

3. The complaint must contain the complaining student’s name, his/her student ID#, his/her official law school email address, and his/her current mailing address.

When an administrator receives a student complaint that complies with the foregoing requirements, the following procedures shall be followed:

1. The Assistant Dean for Student Affairs will acknowledge the complaint within three business days of receipt. Acknowledgement may be made by email, U.S. Mail, or by personal delivery, at the option of the Assistant Dean.

2. Within 10 business days of acknowledgement of the complaint, the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, or the Assistant Dean’s designee, shall respond to the substance of the complaint, either in writing or in person, and shall indicate what steps are being taken by the law school to address the complaint. If further investigation is needed, the complaining student shall, upon conclusion of the investigation, be provided with substantive response to the complaint within 10 business days after completion of the investigation.

3. Any appeal regarding a decision on a complaint shall be brought before the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs. Any appeal from the decision of the Associate Dean shall be brought before the Dean of the Law School. The decision of the Dean will be final. Any appeal must be brought within 10 business days from the date of the response by the Assistant Dean or the Associate Dean.

4. A copy of the complaint and a summary of the process and resolution of the complaint shall be kept in the office of the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs for a period of eight years from the date of final resolution of the complaint.

Registration Policies and Overview

Timing
McGeorge has annual registration, meaning that students will register for the entire academic year (Fall and Spring) during late June. Students register via insidePacific web registration (instructions below). Registration for summer school takes place in mid-March.

Spring Registration for First-Year Students
Incoming/first-term JD students will be pre-registered for their Fall courses by the Office of the Registrar during First Week. First-year students will register for their Spring courses a few weeks following the start of the Fall term. The Office of the Registrar will assist first-year students in registering for their Spring courses. In the Fall, the Office will send an email explaining when the office will be providing information and assistance.

*If during your final semester you wish to take fewer than the minimum number of units required for your division and be charged tuition on a per-unit basis, you must submit a written request in advance to Dean Carr at jcarr@pacific.edu.
Adding Classes
Students may add classes through the Add/Drop Deadline. No student will receive academic credit for any course unless he/she is officially registered in the course. Some courses have special enrollment procedures, such as an application process. A select number of courses require instructor approval to enroll. These special cases are noted in the registration instructions sent to students each Spring. McGeorge has established wait list procedures for adding closed classes (see “Closed Classes and Waitlists”). Students must follow these procedures and should not seek instructor approval for adding a class. Late add requests must be submitted in writing (email) to Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, Dean Carr.

Classes with Insufficient Registration
Classes with insufficient registration may be cancelled at the discretion of the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, Dean Colatrella.

Course Time Conflicts
Students may not register for courses if meeting times overlap in whole or in part. Not even a one-minute overlap will be allowed.

Closed Classes and Waitlists
Waitlists are formed after a class is full (aka, “closed”); waitlists determine the priority for enrollment as seats become available. During the initial registration period, students confronted with a closed class should place their names on the waitlist immediately. Our waitlists often clear, so there is a good possibility that you will get into the course. Nonetheless, it is imperative that you have a backup option, in case you do not get in off the waitlist.

Distance Learning
Under ABA Standard 306, no student may enroll in more than 4 units of distance learning in a semester, and no more than 12 units during their time at McGeorge. Students may not enroll in any distance learning course prior to completing a minimum of 28 units.

Dropping Classes
Students may drop any upper-division course without approval through the Add/Drop Deadline. It is the student’s responsibility to know the tuition and fee refund provisions. After the Add/Drop Deadline, classes may be dropped for good cause and only with the written approval of the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs (Dean Carr) and will result in a “W” on the student’s transcript. No class may be dropped after the last day of classes. First-year students may not drop classes except in extraordinary circumstances. When such circumstances exist, the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs (Dean Carr) may permit a full-time student to drop to the standard first-year part-time course selection. No other courses may be dropped. Students who stop attending a class and do not complete the formal drop process are subject to receiving an “F” grade and are liable for tuition. Students who do not take a final examination or complete required coursework will receive an “F” grade.

Prerequisite and Concurrent Enrollment Requirements
To determine whether a course has a prerequisite or concurrent enrollment requirement, please read its course description, which is available online at catalog.pacific.edu/law/courses.

Holds
You will not be able to register for classes if you have an outstanding balance, unless you have made satisfactory payment arrangements with the Law School. Prior to your registration window, you should check insidePacific to confirm that there are no holds on your account. If there is a hold on your account, you cannot register for classes.

Registration Issues
If you encounter any problems while trying to register, immediately email the Office of the Registrar at sacregistrar@pacific.edu. The Registrar’s Office staff will be on hand via email during Registration to assist students with troubleshooting registration issues on a first-come-first-served basis so as to most quickly resolve any issues that may arise.
GLS II Registration
GLS II is a required course during the second year of the JD program. Because the Spring GLS II course material is a continuation of the Fall material, students must register for the same professor in the Spring term that they chose for the Fall, no exceptions.

Bar-Tested Courses
Although not required for everyone, all students are strongly encouraged to take Business Associations, Community Property, Criminal Procedure, Remedies & Principles of Law, and Wills & Trusts as these subjects are tested on the California bar exam. Because of their importance, these courses are regularly offered several times each year in both day and evening time slots. Additionally, PASS I and PASS II, which help students prepare to be successful on the bar exam, are highly encouraged for all students.

Intersession
McGeorge offers one-unit classes which start the week prior to the Spring semester. Students may utilize Spring tuition units to enroll in these Intersession courses.

Assessment & Review Sessions
Faculty believe that regular assessment and feedback about academic progress is key to student success and therefore schedule assessments throughout the semester, particularly in bar-tested courses. Blocks of time have been designated for this purpose for first year students and are labeled on your schedule as "Assessment & Review Sessions." These sessions will be held on an as-needed basis; students should plan their schedules accordingly by reserving these blocks in their individual calendars.

Registration Quick Tips

1. You must select the correct term.
It sounds so simple, and yet hundreds of students have called the Registrar’s Office to ask this question during registration! You must select the term with “Law” in it, or you will get an error message.

!Select Term

versus

!Select Term

If you get an error message that says “No registration appointment has been assigned to you,” then you probably selected the wrong term. If you see this message, go back and try selecting the “Law” term before contacting the Registrar’s Office for help.

2. You are not automatically added to the waitlist when you try to add a full class.
To add yourself to a waitlist, you need to select “Web Wait List” from the dropdown menu and hit “submit” to make it official. Here’s what it looks like:

!Current Schedule

← You tried to add Evidence, but it was full...

!Current Schedule

← Select “Web Wait List” from the dropdown menu and hit the “submit” button...
3. Registration Appointment Time
Your Registration appointment time is not visible until 9:00 a.m. It is there, but you won’t see it until it goes live at 9:00 a.m. on the dot. We also recommend that you register at 9:00 a.m. on the dot!

4. Check for holds before registration begins.
If you have a hold on your account, you will not be able to register for classes. To confirm you do not have a hold, navigate to the student records screen and click on “View Holds.”

5. Registration Issues
If you experience registration issues and cannot register for a course, do not panic. Quickly send an email to: sacregistrar@pacific.edu with: your name, student ID number, CRN, and error message or registration problem. Unfortunately, we cannot answer calls, emails and walk-in traffic simultaneously, so we will answer the emails in the order they are received to be fair to all students. We are here to help you and will respond to each question or concern as quickly as possible.

Other Diversity Fellowships: Many law firms throughout California and the country offer diversity fellowship programs for law students the summer after their 1L year. Watch your email for more information.

Fellowships
Typically, a fellowship is a term-limited opportunity designed to give a recent graduate experience in a public interest practice. Fellows are able to use their legal skills to affect positive change for disadvantaged populations while receiving top-rate training and supervision. The CDO works with a number of organizations, and has contacts all across the United States, to provide our students with as many fellowship opportunities as possible.

Professional Development

Self-Assessment
Self-assessment will give you a new way to look at your strengths and talents, and allow you to modify or create your job-search strategy and professional materials accordingly.

Marketing Yourself and Your Online Presence
Social networking and your online presence can be one of the easiest ways to network and market yourself, but it can also expose you to unintended risks and consequences. The CDO will work with you individually, as well as provide you with resources and programs, to ensure that your online persona reflects who you are and where you want to be professionally.

“Day in the Life” Series
The CDO will partner with student organizations to bring you a series of programs and panels that will give you a glimpse into a “day-in-the-life” of attorneys from many different practice areas.

Networking
Networking is one of the best ways to make professional contacts, learn about practice areas and career opportunities, promote yourself and your law firm, obtain new clients, establish new relationships, and increase your own self-confidence. Throughout the year, the CDO will provide you with tips to improve your networking skills, and opportunities to practice.

Dine with Alumni
Dine with Alumni is an exclusive reception and dinner for McGeorge students, alumni, and Alumni Board members. The event is organized with an eye towards different legal specializations and geographic locations. This event is open to all class years and is a great opportunity to meet with alumni who practice in various areas.
Professionalism in a Digital Age

Professional Email Address
Your email address may be the first impression that many potential employers or network connections will get of you. Make sure that it reflects an appropriate level of professionalism. You now have a McGeorge email address – use it! If you choose to use a different account, make sure that it does not contain any nicknames, silly spellings, quotes, or quirks.

Check Your Email
Set up a regular routine of checking your email. Consider this preparation for your legal career (where a huge percentage of your communication with clients, co-workers, and opposing counsel will be via email). It is important that you read your email and don’t just delete emails that appear uninteresting – you might miss something important!

Professional Email Signature
Now that you are a law student, your automatic email signature should reflect this. It should include your full name, that you are a JD candidate at McGeorge, and your contact information. Please avoid the use of quotes, emoticons, or other add-ons.

Check Your Email
Always respond to your email in a timely manner. You don’t want to miss out on an important opportunity because you failed to RSVP or accept an offer before the deadline!

Professional Email Tone
In our digital age, we have become increasingly informal. Even when you are friendly with the person with whom you are emailing, always remember to maintain professionalism and formality.

Clean Up Social Media
According to a recent survey, an increasing number of employers who researched applicants on social media said they found things that resulted in negative hiring decisions. These things include inappropriate photographs or information, information about drinking or using drugs, bad-mouthing another employer or co-worker, and poor communication skills.

Correct Spelling
Even in a digital age, where everything has autocorrect, you must ensure that you use correct spelling in all of your communication. This includes verifying that your message has not been “autocorrected” into something embarrassing or unprofessional.

Professional LinkedIn Photo
A polished LinkedIn page can positively impact your job search. This starts with a professional LinkedIn Photo. You will learn more about the CDO program to provide professional photos at your CDO Orientation in the fall of your 1L year.

Bar Admission

Each state has its own character, fitness and other qualifications for admission to the bar.

California requires that you (1) register as a law student, (2) take and pass the Multistate Professional Responsibility Exam (“MPRE”), (3) complete the Moral Character Application, including obtaining Live Scan Fingerprinting, and (4) take and pass the California Bar Examination. More information about each requirement is included below; however, the definitive source of information about admission to the California State Bar is always the California Bar's website (calbar.ca.gov).

Nevada requires applicants to 1) take and pass the Multistate Professional Responsibility Exam, 2) complete the application to take the bar exam, which includes a character and fitness portion requiring supporting documents such as a driving record and fingerprints, and 3) take and pass the Nevada Bar exam. More information about admission to the State Bar of Nevada can be found on the State Bar of Nevada’s website, which is available here: nvbar.org/for-lawyers/admissions. As with California, the definitive source of information about admission to the State Bar of Nevada is the information available through the State Bar itself.

If you are planning to practice in another state, you should contact that state’s bar as soon as possible to determine their admission requirements. A comprehensive list of the admission requirements for each state is available on the National Conference of Bar Examiners website at ncbex.org. Look under Publications > “Comprehensive Guide to Bar Admission Requirements.”

First-Year Checklist

- Register as a law student with the California State Bar (see below).
- Review the admission requirements for the state(s) where you wish to eventually practice law and familiarize yourself with the subjects tested on that state’s bar exam.

How to Register as a Law Student with the California Bar

The California State Bar requires that you register as a law student before you submit anything else (such as the Moral Character Application or application to take the California Bar Exam). There is no deadline or late registration fee, but the fee generally increases annually, so it is best to register early. Take note of your registration number, as you must use your registration number on all subsequent correspondence with the bar.

To register as a Law Student with the California Bar: go to calbar.ca.gov, click on “Admissions” and then click on “create a new registration” under “Applying to the Bar.”

About the MPRE

The MPRE is a two-hour multiple-choice exam offered three times each year (usually March, August, and November). The MPRE is required for admission to the bars of almost every jurisdiction. In California, applicants must have a minimum score of 86. In Nevada, applicants must take the MPRE within three years of any Nevada bar examination they pass and must achieve a minimum score of 85. Most students take the MPRE during their second or third year, and we highly recommend completing it prior to graduation and bar exam preparation. You do not have to complete the Professional Responsibility course prior to taking the MPRE. Commercial bar review courses like Barbri, Kaplan, and Themis usually offer free MPRE review materials. When the time comes, you will sign up for the exam online at ncbex.org/multistate-tests/mpre.
About the Moral Character Application
Prior to admission to the bar, an applicant must complete the Moral Character Application (essentially a serious background check). The California State Bar can take a minimum of six months to process and approve Moral Character applications. The State Bar recommends that applicants file between eight and ten months ahead of time. The application involves extensive preparation and time, as the instructions are lengthy, and usually applicants must provide information regarding school, employment, and residence going back to high school. You can learn more about the Moral Character Application by visiting calbar.ca.gov, (click on “Admissions,” and then click on “Moral Character” in the blue menu bar at the top).

About the Live Scan Fingerprinting
A Moral Character Application is not considered complete without Live Scan Fingerprinting. Fingerprints are used to determine whether the applicant has a prior criminal record. Your fingerprints must be submitted within 90 days of when you file your Moral Character Application. Each year McGeorge offers on-campus Mobile Live Scan Fingerprinting in the Student Center, and a list of other places that provide Live Scan service can be found on the CA Attorney General, Department of Justice website at ag.ca.gov/fingerprints/publications/contact.php.

Apply to Take the Bar Exam
California bar exam application materials are available at calbar.ca.gov starting on October 1 for the February exam, and starting on March 1 for the July exam. Some locations do fill up (especially those in southern CA), so file your application early. Note that registering as a law student (see above) is different from applying to take the bar exam. Both steps are required before you may sit for the bar.

Nevada does not require separate law student/applicant registration. Applications for admission include the application itself and the character and fitness application in one complete application. Like California, the application for the Nevada bar is available October 1 for the February Exam and March 1 for the July exam. You may indicate whether you wish to take the exam in Reno or Las Vegas.
One and Done: Bar Preparation & Support

Sign up for a Commercial Bar Review Course.
There are several from which to choose, but it is vital to enroll in a commercial course. This is where you will get the substantive law you need to pass the exam, along with a study schedule, practice exams, and feedback on your work. Visit the major vendors’ tables throughout the semester on campus, and know that you do not have to make a decision right away, even if the representatives pressure you to take advantage of special discounts and sales. Take your time and choose the program that feels like the best fit for you. A good way to “test drive” a commercial course is by using its free MPRE preparation materials. If you have further questions about which course might be best for you, contact Professor Lee at clee1@pacific.edu.

Check Your McGeorge Email Account for Bar Prep Opportunities.
McGeorge offers various means of support to help students master the skills necessary to pass the CA Bar Exam on the first attempt, such as a supplemental, post-graduation support program called BEAT (Bar Exam Attack Track). Be sure to check your McGeorge email and/or the McGeorge Bar Prep Blog or Facebook page so you don’t miss the application deadline or other opportunities. (BEAT is offered for the winter and summer bar exams.)

Play the Mental Game.
Don’t underestimate the mental aspect of passing the bar! Eating healthfully and taking good care of yourself are more important now than ever. Have a plan for how you will deal with the stress, whether it’s running, working out, yoga, meditation, cooking, going to the farmers market, knitting, painting, walking, etc.—whatever helps you stay healthy and focused.

Get Your Life in Order
It’s never too early to develop a plan to ensure that you can spend the bulk of your post-graduation time focusing on studying for the bar exam—because you WILL spend that much time studying! Start saving money, start saving vacation time, arrange for childcare, etc. If at all possible, we highly recommend that students do NOT work during their bar prep. If you would like to discuss your individual situation and options, contact Professor Lee at clee1@pacific.edu.

Follow the McGeorge Bar Prep Blog, “Like” the Facebook Page, and Follow @mcgeorgebarprep on Instagram and Twitter.
These are the primary platforms we will use to communicate with you during bar prep. Enroll in Practical Analysis, Strategies, and Skills I & II during your final year.
Enroll in the Practical Analysis, Strategies, and Skills (PASS) Courses during your final year. PASS I is a pass/fail three-unit course that introduces students to the bar exam: how it’s graded, what it covers, and what applicants need to do to pass the first time. Students in PASS I write multiple practice exams under realistic conditions, and receive extensive personalized feedback on their work. Student evaluations have been overwhelmingly positive. PASS I may be taken during either Fall or Spring of your senior year.

PASS II is a graded, three-unit course offered in the Spring semester that focuses on the substantive law of Civil Procedure, Contracts, and Property. Students in PASS II use commercial bar course materials to review the law and complete multiple in-class exam simulations to give them a head start in reviewing these challenging bar subjects.
California Bar Exam: Description & Grading

To be admitted to the California State Bar, applicants must take and pass the California Bar Examination. The California Bar Exam is a two-day exam, consisting of five one-hour essay questions and a 90-minute performance test on the first day, and 200 MBE (multiple choice) questions on the second day. The bar exam is administered during the last week of February and July each year.

Grading

The Committee of Bar Examiners maintains a diverse pool of approximately 150 experienced attorneys from which Graders are selected for each examination grading cycle. Eight groups of 14 Graders are selected to grade the essay and PT answers, which together are worth 50% of the final score. Graders evaluate answers and assign raw scores (ranging from 40 to 100; in 5-point increments) based on the content of the responses. The Committee then uses a statistical technique called “scaling” to convert your raw score into your scaled score. This process is designed to ensure that the difficulty of passing the bar exam remains consistent from one administration to another. You can learn more at calbar.ca.gov/Admissions/Examinations/California-Bar-Exam/Description-and-Grading-of-the-California-Bar-Exam.

Essay Questions

This part of the exam is designed to measure your ability to analyze legal issues presented by fact patterns. Your answer is expected to demonstrate that you can analyze the facts given, tell the difference between material and immaterial facts, and discern the points of law and fact upon which the question turns. Your answers must show knowledge and understanding of the pertinent principles and theories of law, their qualifications and limitations, and their relationships to each other. Your answer should evidence your ability to apply the law to given facts and to reason in a logical, lawyerlike manner from premises adopted to a sound conclusion. Writing timed practice essays is vital to bar exam success, so enroll in PASS I to get a head start.

Essay questions may involve issues from one or more of the following subjects:
1. Business Associations
2. Civil Procedure (California & Federal)
3. Community Property (California)
4. Constitutional Law
5. Contracts
6. Criminal Law and Procedure
7. Evidence (California & Federal)
8. Professional Responsibility (California & ABA)
9. Real Property
10. Remedies & Principles of Law
11. Torts
12. Trusts
13. Wills and Succession

Performance Test (PT) Questions

PTs are designed to test your ability to understand and apply a select number of given legal authorities in the context of a factual problem. Each question consists of a fact “file” and law “library” with instructions advising you what task(s) you must perform. PTs are graded based on analytical content, responsiveness to instructions, thoroughness, organization, time management, and professional presentation of written tasks. The PT is worth two essays in terms of bar grading, so enroll in PASS I to practice successful PT strategies.
Multistate Bar Examination
(MBE)
The MBE on day 2 of the bar exam consists of 200 multiple choice questions developed and graded by the National Conference of Bar Examiners, not the California State Bar. The MBE is worth 50% of your final California bar score. Enroll in the PASS courses to get early exposure to MBE questions and practice effective attack strategies.

California’s Practical Training of Law Students Program (Certified Law Students)

The State Bar of California’s Practical Training of Law Students (PTLS) program certifies law students to provide legal services under the supervision of an attorney. Students interested in the PTLS program should read the Rules Governing the Practical Training of Law Students and all instructions for certification, which are available on the State Bar of California website.

Requirements
To be eligible, a student must have successfully completed one year of law school and be enrolled in the second, third, or fourth year of school in good standing or have graduated from law school. The student must be registered with the State Bar of California’s Office of Admissions and have either completed or be currently enrolled and attending courses in Evidence and Civil Procedure.

How to Apply for PTLS Certification
The application can be found at calbar.ca.gov by following this path:
• Click on “Admissions”
• Click on “Special Admissions”
• The last link on the left is the “Practical Training of Law Students” link

Your application for certification must include four items, which you must submit at the same time:
1. Student Application
2. Declaration by a supervising attorney
3. Declaration by the Dean of the law school (this form is typically signed by Dean Carr)
4. $55 non-refundable application fee, made payable to the State Bar of California

All items must be submitted together. Any documents received separately will be returned.

Instructions for Completing the Dean’s Declaration
Bring your “Declaration by Dean of Law School” to the Office of the Registrar, where it will be reviewed and signed by Dean Carr. Do not bring this form to Dean Schwartz! Before dropping off your form, fill in your name and graduation date. The Office of the Student Affairs will have the signed form ready within 48 hours of receipt from the student, pending Dean availability. (Please note that the Dean cannot sign this form until the first day of the semester when you are enrolled in Evidence.)

After you Submit your Application for PTLS Certification
You will receive a reply by email or fax (sent in care of your supervising attorney) within one month of the date the State Bar receives a complete and accurate application. If the application is not completed accurately, it will be returned to you. Please retain a copy of your application and rules governing the PTLS program.

If you have questions about the PTLS program, please contact The State Bar of California at PTLS@calbar.ca.gov or 415.538.2117. For information about becoming a certified law student in another state, please check that state’s website.
Pro Bono & Community Service

McGeorge provides robust opportunities for students to engage in the community, including the Oak Park neighborhood surrounding the campus and in the broader Sacramento region. Students come to McGeorge to make a difference, and these activities allow you to achieve personal and professional fulfillment by helping others. Through these activities you will gain professional experience, enhance your resume, and build relationships with other professionals. Opportunities fall into two related groupings: pro bono and community service. The Capital Center for Law and Policy recognizes McGeorge students with a Capital Commendation at different levels depending on the number of hours provided.

Pro Bono

PRO BONO comes from pro bono publico which means “for the public good.” JD students use their growing legal skills under the supervision of a practicing attorney to help provide free legal services on campus at one-day clinics sponsored by McGeorge, and on behalf of a variety of government, nonprofit, educational, and civil programs. Students do not receive compensation or academic credit for doing pro bono work. These programs are often coordinated by the McGeorge Legal Clinics, the Career Development Office (CDO), or by faculty and student organizations, and many involve invaluable cross-cultural experience.

Annual Immigration Fair

Law students team up with local immigration attorneys and McGeorge law professors to offer assistance for Naturalization applications and Deferred Action for Early Childhood Arrivals applications at this one-day clinic on our campus. Most of the direct service opportunities are for students enrolled in the Immigration Law Clinic and the Immigration course, but limited opportunities are available for other students (including non-JD students) who attend a training session.

Elder Abuse Prevention Events for Seniors

Law students from the Elder & Health Law Clinic and the Elder & Social Policy course provide seniors with legal check-ups and education about financial safety and protection at a one-day clinic on campus. There are some opportunities for other students who attend a training session to participate in the event. The Elder & Health Law Clinic students also sponsor a World Elder Abuse Awareness Day event, in cooperation with actors from Capital State Company, entitled “Act 1: ‘No.’ is a complete sentence” on elder abuse prevention.

Pro Se Help Day

Law students, law professors, and volunteer attorneys from the Federal Bar Association and the Sacramento County Bar Association, together with UC Davis students and professors, help litigants who are representing themselves in cases pending in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of California. Without forming an attorney-client relationship, law students and volunteer lawyers provide procedural guidance, read orders from the court, and help litigants understand the next steps they need to take in their litigation.

OneJustice

The OneJustice Justice Bus© operates in rural communities for one or two days during a weekend in both the Fall and Spring semesters. JD students gain real world legal skills while bringing free legal services to communities with significant need by meeting one-on-one with clients under careful supervision. Working with the CDO, OneJustice coordinates training for the JD students, provides transportation, accommodations, and food, and collaborates with organizations in the host locations.

Workers’ Rights Employment Summer Volunteer Clinic

This pro bono employment clinic operates one night a week on the McGeorge campus for ten weeks during the summer, in coordination with the CDO. JD students practice interviewing and other professional skills, interact with clients, and learn substantive CA employment law. The clinic is run by the Executive Director of the Center for Workers’ Rights.

More Pro Bono

McGeorgeCareersOnline (go.McGeorge.edu/MCO) regularly posts other pro bono volunteer opportunities for students from a single-day to semester-long from a variety of agencies and organizations.
Community Service
Volunteer Opportunities include community-based activities that support the Oak Park neighborhood or the broader community but do not involve the use of legal skills. Students in the MSL/MPP/MPA degree programs are encouraged to participate in these community events.

Reading Partners
In Sacramento, just 45% of third graders are reading at a proficient or advanced level. Through this program, tutors work one-on-one with kindergarten through fourth graders struggling with reading comprehension. The Reading Partners Program is approximately a 1-2 hour per week time commitment. Please contact Dean Simmons at tsimmons@pacific.edu if you are interested in volunteering.

Registered Student Organizations
Many of our RSOs engage in all sorts of volunteer activities. You can count on Phi Delta Phi’s annual Thanksgiving Food Drive (collecting nonperishable food items) and Angel Tree Holiday Drive (collecting gifts for local children in need), plus each year there are also a multitude of other opportunities to engage with the Sacramento community and give back. Keep an eye on The Docket and The WRIT for events and attend club general meetings to get involved.

McGeorge Night of Service
CDO coordinates an Annual Night of Service in August with current students, recent graduates, and other local alumni at the Sacramento Food Bank in Oak Park.

Public Service Career Resources
There are a number of resources available to students who wish to pursue careers in public service:

Public Legal Services Society (PLSS) Summer Stipends
JD students who work in public service or public interest positions for up to 40 hours a week and for up to 13 weeks during the summer may be selected by a PLSS committee to receive a stipend of up to $3,500. The stipends are funded by the PLSS Annual Auction (held in the Spring by the Capital Center for Law and Policy) and by public interest endowments.

McGeorge Public Interest Job Fair
This event is held each February at the student center on campus. More than 20 government and public interest employers will be on campus to meet individually with students about internships, externships, and post-graduate employment.

Public Interest/Public Sector Job Fair
The Northern California Public Interest/Public Sector Legal Job Fair provides JD students a unique opportunity to meet and interview with more than 100 public interest and public sector legal organizations. This is an annual event that is sponsored by the Consortium of Northern California Law School Career Services Offices (including McGeorge) and OneJustice.

Public Service Jobs Directory
The CDO pays for a subscription for each student to psjd.org, which allows you to access information on volunteer opportunities, post-graduate fellowships, and other information about public service opportunities.

Peggy Browning Fund Workers’ Rights Conference
Each year, one McGeorge JD student is selected by the CDO to receive a scholarship to attend this annual conference in Maryland, whose mission is to educate and inspire the next generation of legal advocates for workplace justice.

Equal Justice Works Career Fair
This event is held in Washington, D.C. and is the largest public interest career fair for JD students in the country, with more than 150 employers from across the country. Students apply for pre-scheduled interviews and attend table talks as well as multiple workshops. The event consistently draws McGeorge students each year and the CDO will award travel grants to some JD students who attend this career fair and conference.

Post-Graduate Fellowship Program
A limited number of recent JD graduates are awarded Post-Graduate Fellowships (including a small stipend) by the CDO for volunteer work at a nonprofit organization, government agency, or a small private or lobbying firm. Students are selected based on an application, resume, one-page statement of interest including explanation of the connection between the placement and long-term career goals, and host verification form. A number of these fellowships lead to permanent employment upon bar passage.
Student Business Cards

McGeorge has arranged with moo.com to provide students with the opportunity to purchase customizable, high-quality student business cards with the McGeorge logo brand. At the start of the semester, each McGeorge student will receive a personalized email invitation and link to order cards. When used appropriately, student business cards can be a helpful networking tool. Questions about business card etiquette may be directed to the CDO.

How to Apply

The Student Ambassador Application Process takes place each summer and is advertised via email.

Questions:

Please contact the JD Admissions Office with any questions at 916.739.7105 or mcgeorge@pacific.edu.

SBA Peer Mentor Program

The senior students on campus want to help you. To help facilitate that process, the McGeorge SBA has created a senior student to incoming student mentorship program that focuses on helping incoming students integrate with the McGeorge Community. The senior students who volunteer for the program have been involved with various student clubs, student organizations on campus, and student-driven McGeorge events.

How do I sign up?

To request a mentor, please email SBA President, Andrew Blan at a_blan@u.pacific.edu and include a small bio: where you are from, where you went to undergrad and what you studied, things you like to do, favorite food, legal interests, hobbies, what you would like from your mentor, that sort of thing. The information you provide will help the SBA match you with a mentor who will be a good fit.
Capital Commendation for Public Service

The McGeorge Capital Center for Law & Policy recognizes students who give their time to others through pro bono legal services and/or unpaid community service.

As an ongoing Capital Commendation student, you may be invited to a yearly recognition reception. At graduation, you will receive a certificate and medal for your achievement, recognition at the annual senior luncheon, and special notation in the commencement program.

You may earn the Capital Commendation for Public Service at the following levels, based on your total hours devoted to service during the entirety of your time at law school:

- Admireable Commitment (50 hours)
- Superior Commitment (100 hours)
- Extraordinary Commitment (150 hours)

Any public service performed while enrolled at McGeorge may count towards the Commendation, provided the hours were unpaid and not for academic credit, subject to approval by the program director.

While Legal Clinic hours typically do not count towards the Commendation, those hours in excess of what is required to earn units for the Clinic will count towards the Commendation. Hours of service performed through the Reading Partners Program, although compensated through work-study, may count toward the Commendation.

You can find opportunities to get involved through:

- Service events sponsored or promoted by the law school, such as the Citizenship Fair, Reading Partners or the Justice Bus Spring Break Service Trip.
- Student group events to provide service or raise funds to support service.
- Other non-legal community service like local cleanup events, service night and volunteer mentoring.

How to Apply
Students interested in receiving the Capital Commendation for Public Service should complete the following two forms:

1. Registration Form
2. Public Service Timesheet

Both forms are available online at go.mcgeorge.edu/commendation.

Center for Inclusion and Diversity
The Sacramento Campus Center for Inclusion and Diversity (CID) is located upstairs in the Student Center. The Center is open to all students and is staffed by peer volunteers. Students are encouraged to explore the center for kinship and support. Programming from the Center seeks to build community, foster understanding on issues of diversity, and promote an atmosphere of inclusion for all members of the Sacramento campus.
Diversity Week
Diversity Week is an annual Admissions/Diversity Initiatives program that takes place in February. The theme in 2018 was “Celebrating Diversity, Embracing Unity” and it included a broad array of programs aimed at both raising awareness and cultivating community. The week kicked-off with Distinguished Speaker and Georgetown Professor of Law Paul Butler, who discussed his book Chokehold: Policing Black Men. Health care inequality issues in the Trump era were discussed by bioethics expert and University of California, Davis Professor of Law Lisa Ikemoto. The campus hosted a panel on increasing diversity in government work, the Wage Equity Bakery sparked discussion on the gender wage gap, salsa dancing lessons highlighted Latin culture, a screening of the movie Marshall was combined with a discussion of civil rights issues, and the ever-popular International Food Fair raised funds for the Faculty Diversity Scholarship that were matched dollar-for-dollar through the Powell Matching Gift Fund. Contact Dean Salcido if you’d like to get involved with planning Diversity Week 2019, and keep an eye on The Docket for engaging events to attend.

Diversity Affairs Committee
McGeorge’s Diversity Affairs Faculty Committee addresses issues relating to diversity such as scholarships for minority students, outreach to diverse applicants, and campus climate. Several student representatives sit on this committee and provide input as well as inspiration (and often hard work!). In the past, this Committee has spearheaded fundraising for scholarships for minority students, planned Diversity Week mixers for current students to mingle with faculty and practicing attorneys, and offered an implicit bias training for faculty and staff.

University Diversity Committee
The University Diversity Committee (UDC) is responsible for assisting in the development of programs, projects and policies which will enhance diversity with emphasis on issues related to, but not limited to, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation and disability at University of the Pacific. The UDC serves as a centralized group in support of the University’s diversity aspiration to "pursue diversity to transform and enliven our community, curricula, programs and policies” as stated in Pacific Rising: 2008 – 2015 (PR15). This aspiration is further emphasized through the University’ intention to “Build upon a culture which values and cultivates diversity and intercultural competence” (PR15: 5.3).

Wellness and Campus Resources

McGeorge strives to be a campus where students can balance work and leisure, but there is no avoiding the fact that law school (and legal practice) can be stressful. Developing healthy habits to manage stress and maintaining a healthy and well-rounded lifestyle is key to a balanced and happy work life. Law school is the perfect time to practice fostering healthy habits, so we offer an array of programs and resources to address students’ intellectual, physical, spiritual, social, and emotional needs. We want to create an environment that gives students the tools, resources, and support they need to lead a healthier lifestyle.

Student Health Insurance
In order to ensure your academic success, Pacific mandates that you maintain comprehensive health insurance if you are enrolled in 6 or more units per semester. Each academic year you are required to complete an insurance waiver if you have your own insurance that meets university requirements. If a waiver is not completed by the posted deadline date, you will be enrolled in the student plan at a cost of $1,592 per semester. For more information and instructions, please visit pacific.edu/insuranceoffice or contact us at insuranceoffice@pacific.edu or 209.946.2027.

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)
Many students experience a variety of emotional challenges while in school. Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) is available to students on the Sacramento campus. Some common reasons students access CAPS services include relationship issues, stress management, anxiety, depression, substance abuse, traumatic experiences and more. CAPS therapists are experienced working with graduate students and provide a confidential, nonjudgmental environment in which to work on your issues. CAPS DOES NOT bill your health insurance. CAPS services are available to those students who pay the Student Health Fee. Please visit the CAPS website at pacific.edu/CAPS/McGeorge for details.

Pacific Health Services
Pacific Health Services is an on campus health clinic available to all students at the McGeorge School of Law at a cost of $20 per visit or $165 per semester. Services include treatment for acute injuries or illness, physicals, immunizations, women’s care, medication management and referrals. Please view the website at pacific.edu/Campus-Life/Student-Services/Health-Services/Services/McGeorge-School-of-Law.html for more information.

Additional Mental Health or Substance Abuse Resources
In addition to CAPS and the mental health benefits covered under the Student Health Insurance Plan, please note the following resources:

- California Lawyer Assistance Program – helps lawyers and law students who are grappling with stress, anxiety, depression, substance use or concerns about their career. Free professional mental health assessment available to those who have registered with the California State Bar
- ABA Commission on Lawyer Assistance Programs – committed to promoting both the physical and mental wellness of legal professionals and disseminating information about resources available to help lawyers and law students in need.
- The Other Bar – a network of recovering law students, lawyers, and judges throughout the state, dedicated to confidentially assisting others within the profession who are suffering from alcohol and substance abuse problems.
- Lawyers with Depression – the first website and blog of its kind in the country, created to help law students, lawyers and judges cope with and heal from depression.
- Law Lifeline – an anonymous, confidential, online resource center, where college students can be comfortable searching for the information they need and want regarding emotional health.
- Dave Nee Foundation – seeking to eliminate the stigma associated with depression and suicide by promoting and encouraging not only the diagnosis and treatment of depression among young adults, but also education about the disease of depression.
Religious and Spiritual Life
University of the Pacific fosters a supportive and welcoming community for all students, no matter what your religious tradition or whether or not you consider yourself religious or spiritual. To help facilitate religious and spiritual life in all its many forms, Pacific has an Office of Religious and Spiritual Life on the main campus in Stockton. Rev. Laura Steed, Interim Director of Religious & Spiritual Life and Associate Multifaith Chaplain, and the Affiliate Campus Ministers make visits to the Sacramento campus for individual spiritual care visits and/or religious and non-faith group support. The McGeorge students are encouraged to contact them for advice, guidance, and support (religiouslife@pacific.edu). The Sacramento campus also maintains a quiet room for quiet contemplation or prayer, and there are several active faith-based student organizations.

Quiet Room
The Pacific Sacramento Campus has a Quiet Room, a place where any member of the Pacific community may take some time to reflect, pray, meditate, breathe, or simply be in a quiet place. This room is open to all and is intended as a place where people of all religious and spiritual backgrounds can seek solitude. The Quiet Room is available on a drop-in basis and is large enough to accommodate more than one person at a time.

Wellness Week
Hosted annually by the SBA Wellness Committee and the Office of Student Affairs, Wellness Week provides a forum to inspire the McGeorge Community to think about the different dimensions of wellness and take small steps towards healthy choices. Contact the SBA Vice Presidents if you would like to get involved.

On-Campus Meditation
For thousands of years people have used meditation to move beyond the mind’s stress-inducing thoughts and emotional upsets into the peace and clarity of present moment awareness. Beginner-friendly guided meditation sessions are provided by the Office of Student Affairs on a weekly basis. These drop-in sessions are advertised in the Docket and all students are welcome to attend. You may also contact Rebekah Grodsky at rgrodsky@pacific.edu for more information.

Library Stress-Relief
Our Law Library has hula hoops, horseshoes, frisbees, board and card games, and hacky sacks available for check out from the Reserve Desk. Enjoy!

Recreation Center
The Pacific Sacramento Campus has a Recreation Center for use by students, faculty, staff, and their accompanied guests. A school ID card is needed to gain entry and a release form is required prior to use of the facility. Along with a swimming pool and ping pong table outside, there are weight machines, free weights, treadmills and bicycle machines. Towels are provided, and there are showers.

Recreation Center Hours:
Hours: 7 a.m. to 11 p.m. Monday through Thursday
7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Friday
11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Weekends

Mothering Room
The Pacific Sacramento Campus has a Mothering Room in the Admin Building, Room 108, that offers mothers a quiet, private area for breastfeeding or pumping while on campus. The room also includes a Medela’s Symphony hospital-grade pump (mothers will need to bring their own kit to operate the pump). The revamped Mothering Room was made possible thanks to the donations and leadership of our wonderful alumni, including Rebecca A. Dietzen ’04, who was the driving force behind the project. The Mothering Room is available whenever the Admin Building is open, or by request to Public Safety.

Victims of Crime Resource Center
Since 1984, McGeorge has hosted the state-funded California Victims of Crime Resource Center, which provides crime victims with legal reassurance and aid. Through the Resource Center’s toll-free number, 1.800.VICTIMS, and their website (800victims.org), crime victims can obtain information from law students concerning compensation, restitution, their roles and rights in the criminal justice system, and referrals to local assistance providers and advocacy groups.
Community Garden

Behind the Recreation Center sits our Community Garden. Managed by the Pacific Garden Program, this space offers the Pacific Community an opportunity to slow down and connect with the natural environment. Students, staff and faculty can tend plots of vegetables, fruits, herbs, and flowers. Food growing is a part of the history and culture of the California Central Valley and our campus garden provides a connection to the land, to our community heritage, and to the food systems that sustain us. Community Garden Coordinator Maria Schiffler staffs the garden part time, and Dr. Patty Gray, Garden Program Director, oversees the Sacramento Community Garden as well as the Stockton Campus’s Ted and Chris Robb Garden. Interested in learning more or adopting plot or a garden plant? Email: Maria Schiffler mschiffler@pacific.edu or Patty Gray pgray@pacific.edu.

Dining Services (Bon Appetit Café)

The Gary V. Schaber Memorial Student Center provides a setting for breakfast, lunch, snacks, special events, speakers, student meetings, social gatherings or simply hanging out. Here you’ll find the campus bookstore, student lounges, study areas, lockers and the Café Bon Appétit, which features food services with a sustainable focus. Bon Appetit chefs cook from scratch using fresh, authentic ingredients, making food that is alive with flavor and nutrition. Wondering what is on the menu today?

Visit pacific-sacramento.cafebonappetit.com to view this week’s menu.

Bon Appetit also offers DCB (declining balance) dollars in two convenient block plans: buy a $500 block plan and get a 5% bonus, or buy a $1,000 block plan and get a 10% bonus. DCB dollars are loaded onto your student ID and make it easy and cost-efficient to purchase food from the Student Center. Leadership & Engagement Opportunities

Not all learning takes place in class! Valuable opportunities to build connections in the legal community abound – everywhere you look, there is another event or activity you could attend or another leadership opportunity you could pursue. Although your time is limited, getting involved is important and tremendously improves the law school experience.

Some of the key leadership opportunities you might consider pursuing include:

- Student Government (The Student Bar Association, or SBA for short)
- SBA Student Committees
- McGeorge Faculty Committees with Student Representation
- American Bar Association Law Student Division Representative
- Registered Student Organizations

Student Bar Association

All McGeorge students hold membership in its Student Bar Association. The SBA serves as a forum for student interests and concerns and it sponsors school-wide events throughout the year including the Barrister’s Ball. The SBA also organizes and oversees several student committees, and provides funding for the Registered Student Organizations.

The SBA is administered by a student-elected Board of Governors comprised of the SBA President, JD Day and Evening Division Vice-Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, a Representative for each JD class year (1D, 2D, etc.), and an At-Large Representative.

In consultation with the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, the SBA President appoints student representatives to several of McGeorge’s standing committees to insure student input to faculty and administrative policy decisions. The SBA President is also invited to attend and participate in faculty meetings.

Each Spring, SBA elections are held for the following year. First-year classes elect their representatives shortly after the Fall semester begins.
