ARBITRATION

Organization Information:

Association for International Arbitration (Brussels, Belgium)

AIA provides information, training and educational activities to expand the promotion of arbitration and ADR globally by means of securing partnerships with various organizations and parties to get involved in the life of the association.

AIA currently only accepts interns at their location in Brussels. The internships gives the intern a possibility to learn and practice skills and knowledge concerning international arbitration. The initial period of the internship is a minimum of two months. The AIA is unable to provide any financial assistance or remuneration to interns and service as an intern entails no financial implications for the AIA.

The intern will be requested to undertake tasks in connection with the ongoing projects of AIA. The internship's assignment may include:

- Assisting with the research and preparation of legal and administrative texts or studies about international arbitration
- Assisting with the drafting of promotion material, website-documents and pages
- Conducting related background studies and internet based research
- Undertaking ad hoc legal and administrative tasks as requested
- Assisting with the collection and analysis of case law in the field of international arbitration

Eligibility Criteria:

Interested students should have:

- First level university degree or advanced level university degree in law or economics, degrees in marketing, IT or related fields
• Previous knowledge – or at the very least a genuine interest in – international arbitration
• Excellent spoken and written English
• Good communication skills to interact with people from different countries and continents
• Computer skills and familiarity with applications such as Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, Microsoft Outlook and internet research. Familiarity with HTML and/or website administration will be considered an asset
• Previous experience in the organization of conferences, meetings or other events will be considered an asset

Organization Information:
Chicago International Dispute Resolution Association (Chicago, USA)
The Chicago International Dispute Resolution Association (CIDRA) is a forum for resolving transnational business disputes. Based in Chicago, one of the world's leading commercial centers, CIDRA provides a neutral, private setting for arbitration and mediation. It maintains a roster of qualified attorneys and experts ready to serve on arbitration panels and as mediators and fact-finders. CIDRA's objective is to resolve, manage or prevent cross-border commercial conflict. Though such conflict may be inevitable and sometimes even beneficial, it wastes time and money if it is not properly channeled.

CIDRA offers an internship program for selected volunteers who have completed their graduate studies or are pursuing postgraduate studies. The intern will be requested to undertake tasks in connection with the ongoing projects of CIDRA. The internship's assignment could include:

• assisting with the research and preparation of legal and administrative texts or studies about international arbitration
• assisting with the drafting of promotion material, website-documents and pages
• conducting related background studies and internet based research
• undertaking ad hoc legal and administrative tasks as requested

Eligibility Criteria:
Interested students should have:
• Completed their graduate studies or are pursuing postgraduate studies

International Court of Arbitration (Paris, France)

The International Court of Arbitration is an institution for the resolution of international commercial disputes. The International Court of Arbitration is part of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC).

The Secretariat of the International Court of Arbitration of the ICC has set up a program of two months internships and in any case not exceeding three months. Interns attend the sessions of the Court and participate in the work of the Secretariat. They are also expected, should the need arise, to contribute to particular research project related to arbitration.

Interns are required to handle their own travel/accommodation arrangements for their stay in Paris.

Eligibility Criteria:

Interested students should have:

- Law students who are not yet engaged in professional legal practice (required under French law to be simultaneously enrolled in school)
- Studied international arbitration
- Prior internship in the arbitration department of law firms is a plus
- Very good command of English (certificate from a language school is requested for non-native speakers)

Application Process:

Candidates are requested to submit with their request a detailed resume, two recommendation letters (from a professor or employer) as well as a summary of their motivations and their experience in relation with international arbitration.

Organization Information:

United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (Vienna, Austria)
The International Trade Law Division (ITLD) of the United Nations Office of Legal Affairs, which serves as the substantive secretariat of UNCITRAL, offers an internship program for a selected number of applicants who hold a first university degree (or equivalent) and are enrolled in a degree program in a graduate school (working towards a second university degree or higher) at the time of application and during the internship.

The Division includes a Legislative Branch and a Technical Assistance Section. Those are tasked, respectively, with the development of harmonized legislative texts, and the provision of technical assistance, with respect to the adoption and use of UNCITRAL legal texts.

Internship objectives:

In determining the area and substance of the intern's work, account will be taken of the projects currently being undertaken in the Division, the qualifications of the intern and the purpose of the internship as expressed by the sponsoring institution or the intern. Interns will be normally requested to undertake tasks, under the supervision of a legal officer, in connection with the ongoing projects of UNCITRAL working groups, or with the activities of promotion of UNCITRAL texts and assistance to legal reform.

Internship's assignment could include:

Legislative Branch:

- Assisting with the research and preparation of comparative legal studies.
- Assisting with the preparation and drafting of legal texts (e.g. draft conventions and model laws), including conducting related background studies.
- Undertaking ad hoc legal and administrative assignments as requested.
Technical Assistance Section:

- Contributing to the identification of legislative reform needs and assistance requirements in selected countries and/or sectors.
- Assisting with the collection and analysis of case law on UNCITRAL texts.
- Assisting with the development and maintenance of the UNCITRAL website.

Eligibility Criteria:
Interested students should have:

- First level university degree or advanced university degree in international trade law or international private law.
- Excellent spoken and written English; other UN languages (Arabic, Chinese, French, Russian and Spanish) are an asset.
- Computer skills, including familiarity with applications such as Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint and Internet research.
- Any advanced knowledge of work relating to website administration and familiarity with HTML will be considered an asset.

Application Process:
Admission to the UNCITRAL internship program is highly competitive. Prospective interns are encouraged to apply six to nine months in advance of the desired internship period.

The names of three persons who could give their opinion on the academic and/or professional qualities of the candidate are also required.

CRIMINAL LAW

Organization Information:
Coalition for the International Criminal Court (CICC)
CICC includes 2,500 civil society organizations in 150 different countries working in partnership to strengthen international cooperation with the ICC; ensure that the Court is fair, effective and independent; make justice both visible and universal; and advance stronger national laws that deliver justice to victims of war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide.

C ICC offers an internship program for students interested in learning more about the International Criminal Court, international law, the United Nations, the role of NGOs in the development and promotion of human rights and other related issues. The dynamic environment made possible by a global campaign involving thousands of large and small NGOs, governments, the United Nations, academics and others allows numerous educational and professional learning opportunities.

Applications are invited from individuals pursuing a course of study or practical training that is related to the establishment of the ICC or other relevant international law and human rights issues. In the past, interns have included undergraduate and graduate students from a variety of disciplines (Political Science, Economics, International Relations, Government, Law, Foreign Languages and Area Studies). We also accept applications from those who are not currently in an academic program.

Hague Internship

Responsibilities:

- Support the CICC’s regional efforts, including efforts to increase ratification and implementation of the Rome Statute of the ICC in collaboration with civil society, governments, and the media
- Monitor developments related to the International Criminal Court and international justice in the region by contacting NGOs, government officials, academics, parliamentarians and media that are working on the IC and related issues in the region
- Perform research as required
- Monitor and research human rights situations in the region
- Coordinate communication with CICC members in the region and collaborate with leading international human rights organizations and regional organizations such as the European Union (EU) and the Council of Europe
- Conduct membership outreach, including updating the membership database
- Monitor forthcoming events on the ICC
- Provide support with letter writing and translation
- Undertake special projects and assignments as required

Please note that this internship includes administrative work. However, supervisors will make a concerted effort to see that there is a balance of programmatic and research-related work

Eligibility Criteria:

Hague Internship

- Advanced undergraduate or graduate student working towards a degree in Law, International Relations, History, Political Science, Area Studies or related field
- The intern MUST have excellent written and spoken English. Native or language ability in French is welcome.
- Excellent research and writing skills
- Knowledge of the ICC, the EU, Council of Europe and/or Human Rights issues in the region
- Proficiency using Microsoft Office software
- Ability to work independently and within the constraints of tight deadlines
- Interest in the CICC’s mission

NY Internship
In the past, interns have included students from a variety of disciplines: undergraduate (Political Science, Economics, International Relations, Government, Foreign Languages, Law, etc.) Graduate (M.A/PhD Candidates in International Relations, Specialty Area Studies), and Law students (LLB, JD and LLM Candidates). We also consider applications from volunteers who are currently not in an academic program (preference is given to individuals who have past experience or training in international relations, human rights and international law). All internships require a proficiency in English and an interest in WFM-IGP’s mission.

Application Procedure:

Hague Internship
Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, and references. Please include the name of the internship in the subject of the email (if applicable) and in the cover letter.

NY Internship
Complete application form and include a CV, 3-5 page writing sample, and a brief cover letter expressing why you are seeking an internship with WFM-IGP

Relevant Dates:
For internships in New York, applications are due on the following dates: March 15 for Summer internships (full-time), September 1 for Fall internships, and November 15 for Spring internships. Applications received after these dates will be put forward into the next application pool. We welcome non-U.S. citizen/permanent resident applicants, however, they must show appropriate authorization to work in the US. CICC cannot sponsor individuals applying for internships to help them obtain visas.

For internships in The Hague, the starting Date of April 1 the application deadline is March 6. Internship applications for the Hague secretariat and the regional offices are welcome all year round and are reviewed on a rolling basis.

Hague Institute for the Internationalisation of Law (HiiL) – Legal Tools Project

HiiL is an international research institute that studies the challenges that globalization poses to legal systems, in particular at the national level. As a partner in the International Criminal Court’s (ICC’s) Legal Tools project and one of the Legal Tools Outsourcing Partners, HiiL would like to offer to interested students an opportunity to participate in our work on this project.

Interns will participate in the ICC's Legal Tools Project, collecting relevant material (case law, legislation, procedures, etc) from approximately 40 countries for two databases: National Jurisdictions and National Cases involving core international crimes. For the National Jurisdictions database the researched information includes documents on the nature and structure of the criminal justice system of a given country. For the National cases involving core international crimes database, research will include finding the most relevant decisions issued by domestic courts and tribunals concerning primarily genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes, both in civil and criminal matters. The internship involves active researching of information on selected national criminal jurisdictions and appropriate cases as well as deciding their relevance for the database and qualification, followed by their registration to the Legal Tools Database (uploading the documents and equipping them with relevant Metadata and keywords).

The necessary training and ongoing support will be provided by HiiL. After the training, interns will be granted usernames and access passwords to the ICC Legal Tools database and related online forum, the interns will be able to work online from home, at their preferred times.

This internship is available to students from anywhere in the world, not just The Netherlands. As training and communication can be accomplished from a distance, there is no issue with location, so long as a quality internet connection is available. Students from all over the globe are invited to apply.

After successful completion of the internship, the student will receive a certificate from the Legal Tools Outsourcing Partners and possibly internship credit (per University rules). For exceptional students, HiiL will provide an additional, personalized letter of recommendation.

Eligibility Criteria:
Interested applicants should have:

• An affinity with international criminal law
• Good analytical skills
• Attention to detail
• Knowledge of the law and the official languages of the respective states is considered to be a great asset, as this project deals with the law of specific national jurisdictions

Application Procedure:
Applications should include a cover letter and resume (highlighting especially any international criminal law classes and foreign language skills).

Relevant Dates:
Hiil’s participation in the project is scheduled for four years and we would like to commence internships as needed.

Organization Information:
International Criminal Court (ICC)
The ICC, governed by the Rome Statute, is the first permanent, treaty based, international criminal court established to help end impunity for the perpetrators of the most serious crimes of concern to the international community.

The internship is a practical educational experience whereby interns principally assist the staff of the Court in discharging their duties. Under supervision, interns are assigned projects and tasks that are relevant to their educational background and interests and provide them with the opportunity to put into practice and further develop their theoretical knowledge.

Eligibility Criteria:
The Internship and Visiting Professional Programme of the Court aims to attract candidates who are highly motivated and able to work well in an international, multicultural environment. Furthermore the Court is seeking candidates with very good academic qualifications and in the case of Visiting Professionals, relevant professional experience and expertise, with a commitment to positively contribute to the achievement of the aims of the Programme.

In addition to meeting any specific requirements indicated by the sections of the Organs of the Court participating in the Programme all candidates must fulfill the following criteria:
- Educational and professional background
  - Academic qualifications
    o All candidates must have a degree from or be in the final stages of their studies at a recognized university. Candidates should have a very good record of academic performance.
    o Applications to legal positions are welcome from graduates specializing in one or more of the following disciplines: national and international criminal law, public international law, international humanitarian law, human rights law, comparative law and criminology, legal expertise o Applications to positions that do not require legal training are welcome from graduates of history, international relations, political science, journalism, translation and interpretation, information technology and communication, logistics, human resources management, social psychology, administrative sciences, forensic science, statistics or economics and are encouraged to apply for places in the divisions and sections of the Office that do not require legal training.
    o Graduates of other disciplines may be considered
  - Practical experience
    o Since the Internship Placements are focused at candidates in the early stages of their professional careers practical experience is not an essential prerequisite for selection. However practical experience that is relevant to the work of the Court may be considered an asset.
- Language skills
  - Unless specific language skills are stated as a requirement by the participating sections of the Court, good oral communication and drafting skills in at least one of the working languages of the Court (English and French) are required. A working knowledge of the other working language is desirable.
  - Knowledge of any of the other official languages of the Court (Arabic, Chinese, Russian and Spanish), or of other languages relevant to the situations pending before the Court will be considered an asset.
- Other requirements
  - Applicants for internships should not be older than 35 years at the time of commencing the placement.
  - Adaptability to a multicultural and multilingual working environment encompassing the principal legal traditions of the world
  - Ability to work effectively in a team as well as independently
  - A good standard of computer literacy (especially Microsoft Office applications)
  - Other important qualities are discretion, reliability, intellectual rigor, precision, perseverance, honesty, creativity, co-operative spirit and integrity.

Application Procedure:
Each of the Organs of the Court participating in the Programme establishes an Internship Selection Committee or Panel to oversee that the selection of Interns is in accordance with the aims and objectives of the Programme and in respect of (i) the eligibility criteria governing the Programme and (ii) in so far as applicable, the criteria concerning competency, integrity, geographic and gender representation set out by articles 44(2) and 36(8) of the Rome Statute governing the selection of staff.

Requirements:

- A completed Internship Application Form (please select the specific application form for the appropriate Organ of the Court)
  - Internship Application Form (Presidency and Chambers)
  - Internship Application Form (Registry)
  - Internship Application Form (Office of the Prosecutor)
- A concise written statement presenting the candidate's reasons for seeking an Internship placement, explaining how their interests and experience (academic and non-academic) meet the requirements of the Divisions/Sections/Units selected on the application form and stating their expectations and the perceived benefits of the placement to their future career. (max 400 words)
- Two (2) written references/letters of recommendation from referees familiar with the candidate's academic background, achievements and work, including at least one from an academic instructor. NB referees should not be relatives of the candidates.
- Copies of university degrees and/or diplomas in their original language;
- Copies of transcripts of courses taken during university studies (preferably official);
- Short essay (two pages, single spaced, type written) on a topic relevant to the work of the Court and/or specific Organ of the Court
- Optionally, a recognized and recently passed language certificate in English and/or French, such as the IELTS or TOEFL test, the Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English, the DELF, or another recognized language test together with any related score report(s)

Candidates applying in response to a specific call for applications must comply with any additional requirements as stipulated in that call.

Relevant Dates:

Organization Information:

International Criminal Police Organization (INTERPOL)

INTERPOL is the world’s largest international police organization, with 188 member countries. Created in 1923, it facilitates cross-border police co-operation, and supports and assists all organizations, authorities and services whose mission is to prevent or combat international crime.

INTERPOL aims to facilitate international police co-operation even where diplomatic relations do not exist between particular countries. Action is taken within the limits of existing laws in different countries and in the spirit of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. INTERPOL’s constitution prohibits ‘any intervention or activities of a political, military, religious or racial character.’

INTERPOL offers internship possibilities for a limited number of persons from any member country. The main aim of the Internship Programme is to be of mutual benefit to the Intern and to the Organization.

The purposes of the INTERPOL Internship Programme shall be to provide the Interns with:

- A better understanding of the Organization's goals and objectives and how international police co-operation is organized
- An insight into how an international organization operates
- A framework to enhance their educational experience through practical work assignments, thereby developing skills which will be useful for their career and future employment
- The possibility of working in a multicultural, multilingual and multiethnic environment, contributing to the development of mutual understanding, trust and tolerance

Eligibility Criteria:

In order to be eligible for an internship at INTERPOL, applicants should:

- Be a national of a member country
- have attained the legal age of majority in the country of which they are a national
- Be enrolled in, or have graduated from, an accredited academic institution
- Be fluent in English and the official working language regularly used in the duty station where the Internship will take place (French, Spanish or Arabic), if that language is not English
- Have studied in an area of interest to INTERPOL

Additional assets will be:

- Knowledge of other official languages of the Organization (French, Spanish, and/or Arabic)
- Ability to work in a multilingual and multicultural environment
• Willingness to work as a member of a team

INTERPOL wishes to offer to as many people as possible the opportunity of in-service training. Therefore applications will not be accepted from candidates who have already benefited from an internship in INTERPOL.

Application Procedure:
Applicants are requested to complete an INTERPOL Internship Application Form. Applications are valid for a period of one year as from the date they are received by INTERPOL.

If you have not received a reply from INTERPOL within three weeks after submission of your application, this means that INTERPOL does not have an internship to propose you for the time being. INTERPOL will only contact you if there is a possibility of internship.

Once the internship has been approved by INTERPOL, the Intern will be requested to read the INTERPOL Internship General conditions, and sign the attached declaration.

Relevant Dates:
INTERPOL offers continuous openings for internships. The minimum duration of an internship shall be 2 months. The maximum duration shall be 9 to 11 months. Exceptionally, an internship of less than 2 months may be considered.

International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda (ICTR)
The ICTR was established for the prosecution of persons responsible for genocide and other serious violations of international humanitarian law committed in the territory of Rwanda between 1 January 1994 and 31 December 1994. It may also deal with the prosecution of Rwandan citizens responsible for genocide and other such violations of international law committed in the territory of neighboring States during the same period.

The purpose of the Program is:
• To provide the participants with important practical experience which compliments their field of study and which will, at the same time, be of benefit to the office to which the intern is assigned;
• To promote, among participants, a better understanding of major global problems confronting the world and to give them an insight into how the ICTR attempts to find solutions to the problems, and
• To expose the participants to the ICTR and its policies and programs and have them become ambassadors of good will.
Eligibility Criteria:
- Current enrollment in a graduate (Masters or equivalent) or post-graduate (PhD) programme
- Applicants pursuing their studies in countries where higher education is not divided into undergraduate and graduate stages should have completed at least three years of university studies
- Must be endorsed by their educational institution
- Applicants are expected to be at an early stage of their career, holders of public office or expecting to hold public office
- Must state clearly and precisely their particular field of interest and/or submit a topic for a thesis or paper on international humanitarian law/human rights/international criminal law/comparative law/ international law
- Must be proficient in English and/or French. Knowledge of Swahili and/or Kinyarwanda would be an asset
- Applicants in Diploma Programmes or at educational institutions in technical areas such as Law or Journalism who require an attachment in order to complete their educational requirements will also be considered

Application Procedure:
Submit a duly completed application form (Annex A), addressed to Internship Coordinator and accompanied by a covering letter stating the reasons for applying, as well as at least two written references which address the issues detailed in Annex B. The following documents should accompany the application form:
- Copy of most recent university transcript
- A sample of research/course work relevant to the preferred assignment area prepared in English or French
- An official endorsement from the student’s educational institution (official stamp on application form and letter).

Only applicants who have submitted all necessary material will be considered. Any previous correspondence with the ICTR will not be taken into consideration during the selection process, and only those accepted, as interns by the substantive office will receive acknowledgment.

Relevant Dates:
Deadline for receipt of applications is 3 months before the intended period of internship.

International Criminal Tribunal for Yugoslavia (ICTY)

The ICTY is a United Nations court of law dealing with war crimes that took place during the conflicts in the Balkans in the 1990’s. Since its establishment in 1993 it has irreversibly changed the landscape of international humanitarian law and provided victims an opportunity to voice the horrors they witnessed and experienced. In its precedent-setting decisions on genocide, war crimes and crimes against humanity, the Tribunal has shown that an individual’s senior position can no longer protect them from prosecution.

The Internship Program assigns interns to each of the three constituent organs of the Tribunal:

- The Registry: Roles and duties of interns within the Registry include, but are not limited to comprehensive, legal research on matters of public international law, private international law, humanitarian law, criminal law, drafting of legal documents and correspondence, assisting in negotiations and specific projects.
- The Chambers: Interns attached to Chambers are generally assigned to a specific Chamber and are responsible for assisting the judges and senior legal officers of that Chamber.
- The Office of the Prosecutor: Duties of legal interns include, but are not limited to, assisting in basic case work.

Eligibility Criteria:

- The Restricted Internship Programme is open to applicants at least in their second year of studies. It is not necessary to be in the final stages of the degree programme.
- Applications from first year students will not be accepted
- Must be at least 18 years of age
- Must be proficient in English and/or French, both written and oral. Knowledge of other languages, particularly Bosnian / Croatian / Serbian, is an asset.
- Candidates must make a choice when applying for an ICTY internship: one cannot apply for a Regular Internship and a Restricted Internship at the same time.
- All interns are expected to work on a full-time time basis
- All interns are eligible for 2½ days leave per month subject to their supervisor's approval

Application Procedure:

Complete the Restricted Internship Application Form and submit this together with a cover letter, the acceptance and undertaking form, the nominating form, two written references, a copy of degrees/diplomas obtained or courses taken and a photocopy of a valid medical insurance or a signed statement confirming intent to obtain medical insurance while in The Netherlands.

Special Court for Sierra Leone

The Special Court for Sierra Leone was set up jointly by the Government of Sierra Leone and the United Nations. It is mandated to try those who bear the greatest responsibility for serious violations of international humanitarian law and Sierra Leonean law committed in the territory of Sierra Leone since 30 November 1996.

The internship program will provide unique opportunities to work with the Court and contribute to its development. Interns will be given the opportunity to work on current cases, prepare decisions, draft opinions and work on overall issues surrounding the Court.

Interns will be working for a criminal court established by an Agreement between the United Nations and the Government of Sierra Leone, responsible for trying those accused of crimes against humanity, violations of Article 3 common to the Geneva Conventions and of Additional Protocol II, other serious violations of international humanitarian law and crimes under Sierra Leonean Law.

Eligibility Criteria:

Interns in the Registry Legal Office, the Office of the Prosecutor, the Office of the Principal Defender and Chambers must have a first level degree qualification, preferably in law and must pass the Bar. Study in the area of international humanitarian law will be considered as an advantage.

Interns in the Outreach and Public Affairs Section, Court Management, General Services Section, Detention, Communication/Information and Technology Section, Finance and Administrative Support Services and other offices require formal qualifications and must be recommended by their Institution, Technical College or any other qualified institution.

All interns must be proficient in English both written and spoken. Knowledge of local languages will be an advantage in applying for the programme.

Application Procedure:

Please complete the application form in full and return to the Special Court Personnel section, clearly marked 'INTERNSHIP PROGRAMME' to the address overleaf. You will be required to rank in order of preference the three offices in which you would like to work as an intern.

We encourage applicants based outside Sierra Leone to send the application form by email or fax.
Applications will be considered on a competitive basis. An acceptance of an internship is not an offer of a permanent job in the Special Court, and interns should not expect to be offered a job on the basis of having previously secured an internship.

Relevant Dates:
All internships will be for a period of 3 months (maximum 6). No extension will be granted after the maximum period. Internships for less than 6 months will only be allowed in circumstances agreed between the Programme Coordinator and the Head of Section requesting the intern(s).

Special Tribunal for Lebanon (STL)
The mandate of the STL is to prosecute persons responsible for the attack of 14 February 2005 resulting in the death of former Prime Minister Rafiq Hariri and in the death or injury of other persons. The Tribunal’s jurisdiction could be extended beyond the 14 February 2005 bombing if the Tribunal finds that other attacks that occurred in Lebanon between 1 October 2004 and 12 December 2005 are connected in accordance with the principles of criminal justice and are of a nature and gravity similar to the attack of 14 February 2005.

This connection includes but is not limited to a combination of the following elements: criminal intent (motive), the purpose behind the attacks, the nature of the victims targeted, the pattern of the attacks (modus operandi), and the perpetrators. Crimes that occurred after 12 December 2005 can be eligible to be included in the Special Tribunal’s jurisdiction under the same criteria if it is so decided by the Government of the Republic of Lebanon and the United Nations and with the consent of the Security Council.

Under supervision, interns are assigned projects and tasks that are relevant to their educational background and interests and provide them with the opportunity to put into practice and further develop their theoretical knowledge. The Program will also afford interns the opportunity to develop a more profound understanding of the STL and its mandate.

Eligibility Criteria:
In order to apply for an internship placement, candidates will need to ensure that they meet the general eligibility requirements listed below, as well as any additional requirements stated by the specific Organ of the STL to which the candidate elects to apply. Every application will be processed on eligibility criteria. Nationals from Lebanon are particularly encouraged to apply.

- Educational and professional background
  - Academic qualifications
    - All candidates must have a degree or be in the final stages of their studies. Candidates should have a very good record of academic performance and a demonstrated interest in the work of the STL.
    - Applications to legal positions are welcome from individuals specializing in one or more of the following disciplines: national and international criminal law, public international law, international humanitarian law, human rights law, comparative law and criminology.
    - Applications to positions that do not require legal training are welcome from individuals specializing in history, international relations, political science, journalism, translation and interpretation, information technology and communication, logistics, human resources management, social psychology, administrative sciences, forensic science, statistics or economics.
    - Graduates of other disciplines may also be considered.

- Practical experience
  - Since the internship is focused on candidates in the final stages of education or the early stages of their professional careers, practical experience is not an essential prerequisite for selection. However, practical experience that is relevant to the work of the STL may be considered an asset.

- Language skills
  - Unless specific language skills are stated as a requirement by the participating Sections of the STL, good oral communication and drafting skills in at least one of the official languages of the STL (English, Arabic and French) are required. Working knowledge of one or both of the other languages will be an asset.

- Other requirements
  - Adaptability to a multicultural and multilingual working environment encompassing the principal legal traditions of the world.
  - Ability to work effectively in a team, as well as independently.
  - A good standard of computer literacy (especially Microsoft Office applications).
  - Other important qualities are discretion, reliability, intellectual rigour, precision, perseverance, honesty, creativity, co-operative spirit and integrity.

Application Procedure:
All applicants to the Internship Programme are required to submit a completed application form and supporting documents as detailed below. Applications that are not submitted in accordance with these requirements shall be regarded as incomplete and may not be considered for the Programme.

- A completed Internship Application Form. Please indicate interest in one or more Organs (Chambers, Office of the Prosecutor, Registry, or Defence Office) and/or Sections within the Organ, in order of preference
• A concise written statement presenting the candidate's reasons for seeking an internship placement, explaining how their interests and experience (academic and non-academic) meet the requirements of the Organ/Section selected on the application form and stating their expectations and the perceived benefits of the placement to their future career (maximum 400 words)
• Two (2) written references/letters of recommendation from referees familiar with the candidate's academic background, achievements and work (if the candidate has work experience), including at least one from an academic instructor. Referees should not be relatives of the candidates
• Copies of university degrees and/or diplomas in their original language
• Copies of official transcripts of courses taken during university studies
• A recent, unedited writing sample (maximum two pages, single spaced, type written)
• Optionally, a recognized language certificate in English, French and/or Arabic

All documents should be in English or French. If official documents, such as university degrees or transcripts, are not available in English or French, a complete and accurate uncertified translation into either English or French together with copies of the document must by provide. Applicants may be asked to provide a certified translation if appropriate.

Relevant Dates:
Applications for the Internship Program may be submitted throughout the year. You are advised to apply at least three months in advance of your preferred internship period. Internships are between 3 and 6 months periods.

Website and Contact Information:
All applications, together with all required documentation, should be sent to stl-internship@un.org. The Organ to which the application is being submitted should be indicated in the subject line of the email. For example: Internship Application – Chambers.

DEVELOPMENT LAW

Organization Information:

African Development Bank

The African Development Bank (AfDB) Group’s mission is to help reduce poverty, improve living conditions for Africans and mobilize resources for the continent’s economic and social development. With this objective in mind, the institution aims at assisting African countries – individually and collectively - in their efforts to achieve sustainable economic development and social progress. Combating poverty is at the heart of the continent’s efforts to attain sustainable economic growth. To this end, the Bank seeks to stimulate and mobilize internal and external resources to promote investments as well as provide its regional member countries with technical and financial assistance.

The broad objectives of the program are to provide students with an opportunity to acquire professional and practical experience at the African Development Bank, and to provide the Bank with a pool of potential candidates for future recruitment purposes.

Eligibility Criteria:

To be eligible for internship, applicants must:

- Be a student, aged between eighteen (18) to thirty (30) years, and currently enrolled in a master’s level degree program or its equivalent in a recognized public or private institution of higher learning. The candidate can apply for an internship within one year of having obtained such a degree.
- Provide a letter from their school confirming their enrollment
- Be a citizen of one of the Bank’s member countries
- Be fluent in at least one of the Bank’s working languages (English or French)
Application Procedure:
Applicants are required to complete an AfDB internship application form and forward it, with the endorsement of their educational institutions, to internship@afdb.org.

Completed applications must contain:
• Duly completed AfDB internship application form, counter-signed by the applicant's educational institution or sponsoring agency
• Current CV and cover letter
• Copies of the latest certificates and transcripts or equivalent institutional records
• Recommendation letter from the academic institution they are currently attending
• Brief description of the program or the topic (thesis or dissertation) to be prepared during the internship (when applicable).

Relevant Dates:
Internships will initially be for a period of three months, renewable for up to six months maximum.

The internship program for 2011 is closed. The timing for the 2012 program is as follows:
• Winter - Session I: January through March 2012. Application period from 1st July 2011 to 30th September 2011
• Summer - Session II: June through August 2012. Application period from 1st December 2011 to 28th February 2012

Organization Information:
International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD)
IFAD is a specialized agency of the United Nations that was established as an international financial institution in 1977 as one of the major outcomes of the 1974 World Food Conference. IFAD is dedicated to eradicating rural poverty in developing countries. The Internship Programme aims at promoting amongst the participants a better understanding of the United Nations and IFAD. By the term “Intern,” IFAD intends outstanding undergraduates and graduates students who are offered the opportunity to acquire knowledge of a “real work” environment to the mutual benefit of both the Organization and the Intern. Interns are fully involved in the work programme of the Division that has selected them to carry out assignments relevant to their studies under the supervision of a responsible staff member. During this period, the intern may have a chance to visit IFAD-funded projects.

Eligibility Criteria:
IFAD maintains a roster of potential candidates. If applicants meet the following criteria, their curriculum vitae will be added to the internship roster and kept for one year as qualified candidates:

- Currently enrolled in a university or graduate school and have attended courses in the last 12 months; or have recently completed their university studies at the undergraduate or postgraduate level
- Fluent in English. Fluency in other IFAD official and working languages is an asset
- Of an IFAD member state
- 30 years old or less

Spouses, sons, daughters, brothers or sisters of IFAD staff will not be considered eligible for this Programme.

Application Procedure:
Applicants must fill in an electronic IFAD Personal History Form specifying the expected month/year of graduation and submit it to internship@ifad.org.

Applications will be screened by the Human Resources division. Interns will be selected for positions as and when needed by hiring managers at IFAD. Candidates will be contacted by interested IFAD divisions.

Relevant Dates:
Internship assignments will be limited to a maximum period of six months with no possibility of extension under any other contractual type.

Millennium Challenge Corporation (MCC)
MCC is an innovative and independent U.S. foreign aid agency that is helping lead the fight against global poverty. Interns will assist attorneys with providing legal advice to MCC staff on issues with development of new compact programs and implementation of existing compact programs; reviewing disbursement related documentation; drafting letters, certificates, notices, agreements and memos; sitting in on negotiations with foreign governments and conference calls with local counsel; researching international law issues, as well as general law topics; generating closing checklists, assisting attorneys in conducting due diligence, responding to due diligence questions, and drafting MCC policies and procedures. Interns will be required to utilize legal reference files, the Internet, and electronic databases to conduct research, compile information, and verify citations.

Eligibility Criteria:
Applicants must meet the following basic requirements:
- Be a U.S. citizen
- Current enrollment as second-year or LLM student
- Good academic standing
- Ability to pass a 'Secret' level security background check

Application Procedure:
Email a resume and all required documents to internapplications@mcc.gov. Please indicate in the subject line 'MCC Legal Internship' and ensure that all required additional information is attached in the same email as your resume.

All application materials must be received by 11:59 PM, Eastern Standard Time of the closing date of this announcement to receive consideration. Failure to provide complete information may result in non-consideration for this position.

Students must be willing and able to travel at their own expense to Washington, D.C. if selected for in-person interviews.

Required Documents:
- Cover letter - Your cover letter must clearly indicate the internship for which you are applying to for consideration (i.e., MCC Legal Internship)
- Resume.
- School transcript(s) - A copy of your school transcripts must accompany your resume at the time of submission. THIS IS REQUIRED OF ALL INTERNS. Failure to do so will result in an automatic disqualification. Unofficial transcripts may be submitted; however, if you are selected for placement, you will be required to bring an official copy with you on the first day of your internship. Transcripts should indicate current semester enrollment and include school name, location, course titles, grades, dates completed, and number of credits earned.
- Writing sample - A law-based writing sample is required and must be included as part of the entire application package.
- Service Agreement - Selected candidates will be required to submit a copy of the MCC Student Volunteer Service Agreement signed by the student and an approver from within the academic institution's career services office.

United Nations Office of Legal Affairs (OLA)

United Nations OLA provides a unified central legal service for the Secretariat and the principal and other organs of the United Nations and contribute to the progressive development and codification of international public and trade law. Its goal is to promote the strengthening and development as well as the effective implementation of the international legal order for the seas and oceans.

The United Nations OLA offers an internship programme to individuals who have obtained a first university degree and who have completed at least one year of a university degree course in law.

Interns are normally requested to undertake tasks in connection with the ongoing projects under the supervision of a legal officer of the respective Section/Division of the Office of Legal Affairs. In determining the area and substance of the intern's work, due consideration is given to the nature of the projects currently being undertaken in that area and of the purpose of the internship as expressed by the sponsoring institution or the intern.

Eligibility Criteria:
• First level university degree, either in law or in another subject.
• Completed at least one year of a university degree course in law.
• Proficiency in spoken and written English; working knowledge of other UN languages (Arabic, Chinese, French, Russian and Spanish) are welcome.
• Computer skills, including familiarity with applications such as Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint and Internet research. Familiarity with HTML and electronic document management an asset.

Application Procedure:
Procedural requirements-please visit the United Nations Internship website.

Relevant Dates:
Prospective interns are encouraged to apply six to nine months in advance of the desired internship period.

The programme is for an initial period of two months three times a year (mid-January to mid-March (spring session); early June to early August (summer session) and early September to end-October (fall session)).

U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID)

USAID is responsible for administering the United States Government's economic and humanitarian foreign assistance program. The Office of the General Counsel, which provides legal advice and guidance for all of the agency's operations worldwide, has legal internship positions for J.D. candidates who have completed at least one year of law school and, occasionally, for students seeking law degrees subsequent to receiving the J.D. degree.

Legal interns work with an Assistant General Counsel and one or more of staff lawyers within one of the ten divisions of the General Counsel's Office. These divisions are: Acquisition and Assistance; Africa; Asia/Middle East; Democracy, Conflict and Humanitarian Assistance; Ethics and Administration; Europe and Eurasia; Global Health/Economic Growth, Agriculture and Trade; Latin America and the Caribbean; Legislation and Policy; and Litigation and Enforcement.

The work normally assigned to an intern in most of the office divisions consists primarily of legal research, the writing of memoranda and the drafting and review of legal documents. USAID legal interns are regularly included in the bi-weekly meetings of the entire legal staff, during which current issues relating to USAID in general, and to specific foreign assistance programs in particular, are presented and discussed.

Eligibility Criteria:
The basic qualifying factors to be eligible for this program are:

- U.S. Citizenship
- Current Enrollment in a College or University
- A minimum Grade Point Average (GPA) of 2.0

Application Procedure:
Those interested in a legal internship position at USAID should send a resume to Mark Fittipaldi. Applicants should also indicate the approximate dates when they would be available. All legal interns must be United States citizens and have a security clearance. Since the security clearance process can take as long as three months, resumes should be received by our office at least this far in advance of the time desired for beginning an internship.

Relevant Dates:
The normal internship period is approximately three to four months and corresponds roughly to the fall, spring or summer semester of the standard academic year. During the summer an intern should be able to work full-time (40 hours per week), and a minimum of 15 hours per week during the fall or spring. Specific work hours can be determined between the intern and the particular division to which he or she is assigned.

Organization Information:
U.S. Department of Commerce, Office of General Counsel
The Office of the General Counsel provides legal services for the Secretary of Commerce and all of the Department's operating units. Summer legal internships are offered to outstanding first- and second-year law students and fall and spring legal internships to second- and third-year law students. Internships offer law students the opportunity to work on a broad range of legal issues. An intern’s assignments may include research and analysis of legal decisions, opinions, rulings and statutes; drafting legal memoranda on issues relating to the Department’s programs; case preparations for agency hearings and litigation before federal courts. In addition, interns are invited to participate in brown-bag lunches and other gatherings within OGC, so that they may obtain a broad overview of the legal issues that arise within the office. Highly qualified interns who demonstrate outstanding performance in their work may be considered for permanent attorney positions at the Department of Commerce as vacancies occur.

Eligibility Criteria:
Students are selected on the basis of merit. Selection will be based on many factors including: academic achievement, law courses, law review or other publication experience; moot court, legal aid or legal clinic participation; extracurricular activities; and previous summer and/or part-time employment.

Application Procedure:
First or second-year law students should submit a resume, an official or unofficial law school transcript, and a short legal writing sample of less than 10 pages to:

Office of the General Counsel
Executive Office
14th and Constitution Avenue, N.W.

ATTN: Summer Legal Intern Program

Alternatively, you may apply electronically at ogcexecutiveoffice@doc.gov and you must have the subject line read “Summer or Fall/Spring Intern”. Only send one application packet whether electronically or via mail. Recruitment for the Summer Intern Program is during the winter/spring which precedes the summer internships.

If applicants only wish to be considered by specific offices, please note your preferences in the application package. The majority of the offices participating in the Summer Law Intern Program normally require candidates to interview in person. Interviewing for the Summer Intern Program is done at a number of locations in addition to Washington, D.C. Travel expenses for initial interviews are the responsibility of the applicant.

Relevant Dates:
For the summer program, applications must be submitted to the Executive Office no earlier than January 3 and no later than March 15. The application, interview and offer process for this Program is structured and conducted within a specific time frame. Applications will be shared with all of the Department of Commerce legal offices.

Recruitment for the Fall Internships begins in July, while recruitment for Spring Internships begins in November. Applications for Fall Internships must be submitted to the Executive Office no earlier than July 1 and no later than September 15. Applications for Spring Internships must be submitted to the Executive Office no earlier than November 1 and no later than January 15. Applications will be sent only to those legal offices interested in having interns during the academic year.

Organization Information:
International Court of Justice (ICJ)
The ICJ is the principal judicial organ of the United Nations (UN). The seat of the Court is at the Peace Palace in The Hague (Netherlands). Of the six principal organs of the United Nations, it is the only one not located in New York (United States of America). The Court’s role is to settle, in accordance with international law, legal disputes submitted to it by States and to give advisory opinions on legal questions referred to it by authorized United Nations organs and specialized agencies.

The Registry is the permanent administrative organ of the Court. It is accountable to the Court alone. It is headed by a Registrar, assisted by a Deputy-Registrar. Since the Court is both a court of justice and an international organ, the Registry’s tasks are not only those of a service helping in the administration of justice - with sovereign States as litigants - but also those of a secretariat of an international commission. Its activities are both judicial and diplomatic, as well as administrative.

The internship is an opportunity for them to put their knowledge and experience into practice, while performing certain tasks for the Court under the supervision of Registry officials.

Eligibility Criteria:
The International Court of Justice offers internships of one to three months to students and young professionals who are in the early stages of their careers. The working languages of the Court are English and French.

Application Procedure:
Complete the online application form and submit it via the website. The application form must be accompanied by a letter of recommendation in electronic format including the contact details of the referee.

Relevant Dates:
Internships are offered throughout the year.

Website and Contact Information:
All applications will be given careful attention. However, owing to their large number, the Court will not reply to telephone, e-mail or fax enquiries. Should you receive no reaction from the Court within eight months, please consider that your candidacy has been rejected. You may, however, submit a new application.

Organization Information:
Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA)
The PCA is an intergovernmental organization with over one hundred member states. Established in 1899 to facilitate arbitration and other forms of dispute resolution between states, the PCA has developed into a modern, multi-faceted arbitral institution that is now perfectly situated at the juncture between public and private international law to meet the rapidly evolving dispute resolution needs of the international community. Today the PCA provides services for the resolution of disputes involving various combinations of states, state entities, intergovernmental organizations, and private parties.

The PCA's internship program provides law students and graduates with the opportunity to participate in the functioning of the International Bureau. Internships are offered to individuals with outstanding academic records seeking work experience at an international arbitration institution.

Interns are expected to participate to the greatest extent possible in the regular functioning of the organization. The PCA aims to offer a balance of legal and administrative assignments, enabling interns to gain insight into both the practical and legal aspects of international arbitration.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Prospective applicants who have completed one year of a J.D. or LL.B. program may apply, provided that they have completed a four-year bachelor's degree. Law students who do not hold a bachelor's degree must be qualified to enter the final year of study at an accredited law school to be considered for the program. The program is open, however, to applicants whose qualifications exceed these minimum requirements (e.g., law degree holders, LL.M. and LL.D. candidates, practicing lawyers and other legal professionals, etc.).

- Applicants must be fluent in either French or English, the PCA’s two working languages. Additional language skills are a strong advantage, especially Arabic, Chinese, Russian and Spanish.

- Non-native speakers of English and/or French must present proof of proficiency in one of these languages. See the “Proof of Proficiency in a PCA Working Language” section below for details.

- Though not strictly required, specialization in International Dispute Resolution, Public International Law or International Environmental Law would be an asset.

Application Procedure:

Applicants must submit an application package consisting of the following documents:

- Cover letter that indicates:
  - Desired term;
  - Short statement about how the applicant expects to benefit from the program and/or what the applicant hopes to contribute to the organization; and
  - Description of areas of interest and knowledge of law

- Curriculum Vitae

- Letter of recommendation from a professor or senior professional

- Copies of academic transcripts

- Proof of proficiency in a PCA working language (for non-native speakers of a PCA working language only, see above)

We do recommend, however, that electronically-submitted applications be followed up with a hard copy sent in the mail.
Relevant Dates:
Complete application packages can be submitted at any time up to four months prior to the beginning of the desired term. Application deadlines are thus:

- September 1, for Term 1;
- December 1, for Term 2;
- March 1, for Term 3; and
- June 1, for Term 4.

ECONOMIC AND TRADE LAW

Organization Information:

Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC)
APEC is the premier forum for facilitating economic growth, cooperation, trade and investment in the Asia-Pacific region. APEC is the only inter governmental grouping in the world operating on the basis of non-binding commitments, open dialogue and equal respect for the views of all participants. The APEC Secretariat offers internship programs, which provides qualified people with an opportunity to work in a leading regional secretariat in Singapore. Only nationals and permanent residents of APEC member economies are eligible to apply.

Internship work may include research, project management and publicity. Where possible, interns are invited to attend official functions and meetings as observers or staffers.

Eligibility Criteria:
To be eligible, candidates must possess an undergraduate degree and may be enrolled, or planning to enroll, in a full-time graduate study program. The Secretariat seeks candidates from a variety of academic disciplines, specifically those who have a strong interest in the work of international organizations and, in particular, international affairs and international economics. The ability to work in written and spoken English and computing skills are essential.

Application Procedure:
Submit APEC Secretariat Internship Framework Application Form.

Relevant Dates:
Currently, the Secretariat conducts two intakes per calendar year, commencing at different times and depending on the Secretariat's needs. As such, applications are accepted on an on-going basis. Applications, however, must be submitted no later than three months and no earlier than six months before the start of the desired internship.

The applications for the APEC Internship Program for 2011 will close on 31 March 2011.

Organization Information:
Blenheim Foreign Law Student Internship Program
Blenheim is a Netherlands law firm specializing in Dutch business and corporate law. Interns at Blenheim have the opportunity to learn about international legal practice in The Netherlands. Activities include legal research, attending meetings, and being present at court hearings.

Eligibility Criteria:
• Applicants for the Foreign Law Student Internship Program preferably have a university degree, or are in the final stage of their university studies.
• Preference is given to law graduates who are acquainted with private international law and (or) comparative law, and have an outstanding academic record and a demonstrated interest in business law.
• Applicants must be proficient in English or Dutch, both written and oral. Knowledge of other languages, particularly German or French, is an asset. Applicants must have a superior writing ability.

Application Procedure:
Applicants must submit the following documents, all together in an application (documents should be in English, German or Dutch) to the program coordinator:
• A covering letter stating the reasons for applying
• Two written references
• A sample of written legal work; and
• Copies of university and other degrees, and (or) diplomas, and a list of courses taken; and
• A copy of the applicant’s passport.
Applications that are not submitted in accordance with the requirements set out above, are regarded as incomplete, and may not be considered for the Foreign Law Student Internship Program.

A definite selection for the Foreign Law Student Internship Program is made from candidates who have submitted their application before the deadline.

Relevant Dates:
Candidates for the Foreign Law Student Internship Program must submit their application approximately 3 months before their intended start date.

Moreover, the following deadlines apply:
- For an Internship during the period from January to June, applications must be submitted before 30 October of the previous calendar year.
- For the term July to December, applications must be submitted before 1 April of the same calendar year.

Organization Information:
Council on Hemispheric Affairs (COHA)
COHA is a nonprofit, tax-exempt independent research and information organization that was established to promote the common interests of the hemisphere, raise the visibility of regional affairs and increase the importance of the inter-American relationship, as well as encourage the formulation of rational and constructive U.S. policies towards Latin America. Internships provide entry level practical experience in dealing with a variety of hemispheric political, economic, diplomatic and trade issues. They also provide young scholars with an excellent opportunity to be exposed to the policymaking process. COHA is seeking highly qualified undergraduate and graduate students, and those who already have earned degrees.

COHA internships, which are available throughout the year, are entirely voluntary and are highly competitive (with summer positions being the most sought after). Schedules for the 18-week internships (14 weeks for the summer internships) can be arranged to meet the individual’s needs, although full-time and full-term applicants are given preference in the selection process. Interns play an integral role in COHA’s activities, which include the following: issuing statements and providing commentary to the print and electronic media; submitting articles on hemispheric issues to regional and national media; monitoring human rights and press freedom violations; promoting constructive U.S. policy initiatives; formulating viable alternatives that seek a diplomatic rather than a military solution to disputes; attending briefings by visiting Latin American dignitaries; and surveying legislation focused on social justice and the expansion of authentic democratic institutions.

Eligibility Criteria:
Intern candidates should have some knowledge and/or interest in U.S.-Latin American affairs or international relations and should display impressive research and writing skills. Proficiency in Spanish or Portuguese is desired, though experience in journalism, English, or one of the social sciences may be substituted for the normal background requirements. Ideal internship candidates should be highly motivated and will be expected to show initiative and a capacity for innovation.

Application Procedure:
Please send a completed internship application form, along with a resume, cover letter and a brief writing sample (two pages), to COHA. Also arrange for an official transcript (photocopies are acceptable) and two letters of recommendations to be mailed. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis, but positions tend to be filled quickly; it is advised that you apply several months prior to your desired starting date.

Organization Information:
U.S. Federal Trade Commission (FTC)
The FTC is a dynamic, independent federal agency offering challenging careers in a variety of fields. We enforce antitrust and consumer protection laws and promotes competitive markets, free of deception and undue restrictions.

The FTC provides summer employment opportunities (for up to 10 weeks) for law students who have completed one or more years of law school OR who are law school graduates going on to judicial clerkships. The Commission recruits dedicated law students with an exceptional level of commitment to the public interest to enforcing antitrust and consumer protection laws as mandated by Congress. We prefer — but do not require — applicants to have a background in economics or business. Our goal is to offer our summer law clerks intellectually stimulating projects, similar in complexity to those given to junior attorneys, which afford them an opportunity to demonstrate writing, analytical and advocacy skills. The Bureau of Competition and Bureau of Consumer Protection hire summer legal interns.

Eligibility Criteria:
Bureau of Consumer Protection
While citizenship is required for most federal government employment, the FTC may hire non-U.S. citizens for certain positions. All non-U.S. citizens must meet State Department hiring conditions in order to be eligible for consideration. To determine if you are eligible, please visit the Office of Personnel Management’s website at http://www.opm.gov/employ/html/Citizen.asp for more information on citizenship requirements for federal government employment.

Application Procedure:
Bureau of Competition
Students may email the following materials to berecruit@ftc.gov to apply for a Summer or Semester Internship. Students applying for summer positions may also apply through the on-campus interview process.

- Cover letter indicating your interest in antitrust and the Bureau
- Résumé
- Transcript (an official copy is not necessary)
- Short writing sample (no more than five pages)
- List of three references

Bureau of Consumer Protection
To apply online please submit the following to bcpsummerlawclerk@ftc.gov:

- Cover Letter

U.S. Trade Representative (USTR)

USTR is an agency of more than 200 committed professionals with decades of specialized experience in trade issues and regions of the world. We negotiate directly with foreign governments to create trade agreements, to resolve disputes, and to participate in global trade policy organizations. We also meet with governments, with business groups, with legislators and with public interest groups to gather input on trade issues and to discuss the President's trade policy positions.

The student intern program at USTR is a year-round, volunteer program in which undergraduate and graduate students gain knowledge and experience on U.S. trade policy and, in many cases, earn college credit at the same time. Assignments may include research, analysis, statistics, coordination of briefing books, report preparation, meeting and conference planning, letter writing, and covering meetings, hearings, and/or legislative markups.

Eligibility Criteria:

- US Citizens
- Eighteen years of age at the time of application
- Enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate program at a college or university (2-4 year institution), or have graduated in the past two years from undergraduate or graduate school.

Selected applicants will be required to obtain a favorable security determination as a prerequisite to employment.

USTR is a drug-free workplace. Recent or current drug use is not acceptable, and selectees will be required to complete a confidential pre-employment security questionnaire that includes questions on alcohol and drug use. USTR reserves the right to disapprove tentative selectees based on information provided in this questionnaire.

Application Procedure:

Students are required to submit a cover letter and resume. The cover letter must state the dates of availability and the approximate number of hours per week you can work. Also in your cover letter, briefly state the reason for applying and your expectations from an internship with USTR. A detailed writing sample may be required at a later date. Students may wish to include particular area(s) of interest within USTR (i.e., Africa, China Affairs, Americas, Europe & the Middle East). Each resume must include current address, telephone number, and e-mail address.

Click on the USTR Organization to view a brief description of the functional responsibilities of each office within USTR.

Applications will be received by the Intern Coordinator and circulated to interested senior staff for consideration. If an office expresses interest, applicants will be contacted directly by the office for an interview.
APPLICATION MUST BE SUBMITTED VIA E-MAIL TO ustr_hr@ustr.eop.gov or faxed to 202-395-9677

Applications should be addressed to the attention of:

For additional information on the program, please contact USTR Human Resources at (202) 395-7360.

Organization Information:

Washington International Trade Association (WITA)

WITA is a non-profit, non-partisan voluntary organization dedicated to providing a neutral forum in the nation's capital for the open and robust discussion of international trade issues. We rely heavily upon the support and assistance of our volunteer interns. In return, interns are given tremendous opportunity to learn about the global trade community, the Washington political environment, and specifics of international trade--as well as practical office skills, event management, networking, and professional interaction.

Eligibility Criteria:

Students with a demonstrated interest in international trade policy are strongly preferred. Experience, interest or knowledge in website creation, social media marketing, and digital video creation is a plus. Please highlight any Information Technology or Multi-Media experience in cover letter. Due to the nature of the office work, WITA has found that graduate level students, law students, and others seeking higher degrees will likely NOT gain as much from the WITA internship experience as undergrads or fresh graduates with a strong demonstrated interest in international relations, trade, and/or economics. Those fitting this description will do well to apply. Master's candidates as WITA interns are rare but do occur; law students will not be considered.
Please review Intern Duties Word Doc before applying.

Schedules are flexible but should be a minimum of 35 hours or 5 days a week--as close to full time as possible. However, PREFERENCE IS GIVEN TO CANDIDATES ABLE TO WORK FULL TIME (40 hours/wk).

Application Procedure:
Serious applicants should submit a cover letter and resume to internships@wita.org. Cover letters should be the body of an email, and should state:
- Three main things that you hope to accomplish or learn during your internship
- Your time requirements and expectations
- Your dates of availability

Any information technology experience should be highlighted in the cover letter. Resumes should either be cut and pasted into the body of an email, or sent as a Microsoft Word document, PDF attachment, mailed as hard copy, or faxed to 202-312-1601.

Resumes without cover letters will not be considered. A cover letter can be an email attachment or in the body of the email, but must cover the information in the prior paragraph.

Preferred: Send cover letter and resume via email to: internships@wita.org
With the subject line: Internship Application (or similar)

Or mail hardcopy to:

Organization Information:

World Trade Organization (WTO)

The World Trade Organization (WTO) is the only global international organization dealing with the rules of trade between nations. At its heart are the WTO agreements, negotiated and signed by the bulk of the world’s trading nations and ratified in their parliaments. The goal is to help producers of goods and services, exporters, and importers conduct their business.

The WTO secretariat maintains a limited internship program for post-undergraduate students wishing to gain practical experience and deeper knowledge of the multilateral trading system. Assignments given to interns are intended to enhance interns' knowledge and understanding of the WTO and of trade policy more generally.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Interns are recruited from among nationals of WTO Members and countries and customs territories engaged in accession negotiations.
- Interns will have completed their undergraduate studies in a relevant discipline (e.g. economics, law, political science, international relations), and shall have completed at least one year of their postgraduate studies.
- The minimum age for an intern shall be 21 years and the maximum age 30 years.
- A roster of suitable candidates is maintained from which interns are selected. In addition to the regular internship programme, the need may also arise to recruit interns at short notice for particular tasks. These recruits will also be drawn from the roster. Names will not be maintained on the roster for longer than one year.

Application Procedure:

Online applications are strongly encouraged to enable WTO to store your profile in a permanent database.

Please visit WTO's E-Recruitment website at: www.wto.org. The system provides instructions for online application procedures.

Relevant Dates:

Intake to the programme is on a continuing basis, with no specific recruitment period. There is no opening or closing date for applications.

ENVIRONMENTAL LAW

Organization Information:
Center for International Environmental Law (CIEL)
CIEL has worked to strengthen and use international law and institutions to protect the environment, promote human health, and ensure a just and sustainable society. With offices in Washington, DC and Geneva, CIEL’s staff of international attorneys provide legal counsel and advocacy, policy research and capacity building in the areas of: human rights and the environment, climate change, chemicals, international financial institutions, law and communities, trade and the environment, and biodiversity and wildlife.

Responsibilities of fellows and interns include researching and writing about areas of international law and policy; assisting with policy analysis and advocacy; attending meetings and conferences; assisting with the production of CIEL publications; and otherwise working closely with CIEL staff on various projects.

Eligibility Criteria:
Successful applicants generally possess excellent research and writing skills in English and a strong dedication to public interest law. While CIEL actively seeks applicants with diverse backgrounds, CIEL's office in Geneva particularly needs students and graduates with an interest in international chemical management, or students and graduates interested in issues of new technologies (e.g. nanotechnologies), international intellectual property and sustainable development. Knowledge of French, Spanish or German is also useful. Due to our current limited infrastructure, we ask (but do not require) interns to work on their personal laptop computers.

Application Procedure:
To apply for Geneva internships, please send the following materials (only in English) by email to geneva@ciel.org (No calls please!):

- Cover letter (which should include, inter alia, exact period the applicant is applying for);
- Resume (which should include, inter alia, nationality/ies and date of birth); and
- Writing sample (minimum of two pages, demonstrating your legal writing skills - preferably not a legal memo or brief from a legal writing course).

To apply for internships or fellowships in Washington, D.C., please send a cover letter, resume, and short writing sample to Sofia Plagakis at splagakis@ciel.org, or mail them to:

International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN) Environmental Law Centre (ELC)

IUCN helps the world find pragmatic solutions to our most pressing environment and development challenges. It supports scientific research, manages field projects all over the world and brings governments, non-government organizations, United Nations agencies, companies and local communities together to develop and implement policy, laws and best practice.

Conserving biodiversity is central to the mission of IUCN. We demonstrate how biodiversity is fundamental to addressing some of the world’s greatest challenges: tackling climate change, achieving sustainable energy, improving human well-being and building a green economy.

Interns with high interest in environmental law are welcome to apply to spend some time at the ELC. Successful applicants will spend time supporting the work of our legal professionals and will gain the opportunity to participate in an exciting array of projects, conferences and workshops.

Eligibility Criteria:
- Between 18 & 30 years of age;
- Current enrollment in, or completed studies at university, or higher level institution, either in environmental law or in a course of studies with a strong legal component
- Thorough knowledge of English (written & spoken) and a good knowledge of a second language, preferably French or Spanish. German is also useful.
- Computer-literate, preferably with experience in data-bases and internet searches.

Natural Resources Defense Council (NRDC)
NRDC is the nation's most effective environmental action organization. We use law, science and the support of 1.3 million members and online activists to protect the planet's wildlife and wild places and to ensure a safe and healthy environment for all living things.

NRDC helps train the next generation of environmental advocates. NRDC hires students who possess the intelligence, skill, self-confidence, and maturity to take on enormous responsibility. Our interns play an active role on the frontlines of the environmental movement. Over the course of an internship, NRDC interns work with lawyers, scientists, or policy analysts in different program areas and amass experience that they could not have obtained anywhere else.

NRDC's summer legal internships are available to students enrolled in law school. Interns write briefs, draft complaints, prepare legal analyses, obtain affidavits, investigate corporate and government malfeasance, and draft white papers and comments for submission to Congressional committees and administrative agencies.

Secretariat of the Basel Convention on the Control of Transboundary Movements of Hazardous Wastes
A central goal of the Basel Convention is “environmentally sound management” (ESM), the aim of which is to protect human health and the environment by minimizing hazardous waste production whenever possible. ESM means addressing the issue through an “integrated life-cycle approach”, which involves strong controls from the generation of a hazardous waste to its storage, transport, treatment, reuse, recycling, recovery and final disposal.
The internships are conducted within the framework of the United Nations Internship Programme and the objectives of the internship programme are:

- To provide current students with important practical experience which complements their field of study, which at the same time will be of benefit to UNEP/SBC.
- To promote among the students a better understanding of major global problems confronting the world and to give them an insight into how the UN attempts to find solutions to these problems.
- To expose the students to the UN and its policies and programmes and have them become ambassadors of good will.
- To enable students from all parts of the world to exchange information during and after the internship so as to appreciate cultural diversity amongst different peoples and have them become ambassadors of peace and goodwill.

Eligibility Criteria:
Please note that if you do not meet all the minimum eligibility criteria, your application will not be processed. Applicants for internships MUST:

- Be currently enrolled in the third or fourth year of an undergraduate programme, or in a graduate (masters) or post-graduate (PhD) programme at the time of application and throughout the internship; and
- Be willing to intern on a full-time basis for a period of not less than three months and not exceeding six months.

Secretariat of the Framework Convention on Climate Change
We support cooperative action by States to combat climate change and its impacts on humanity and ecosystems. This is our contribution to a sustainable world and to realizing the vision of peace, security and human dignity on which the United Nations is founded. Guided by the Parties to the Convention, we provide organizational support and technical expertise to their negotiations and institutions and facilitate the flow of authoritative information on the implementation of the Convention. UNFCCC is committed to making a contribution to sustainable development through support for action to mitigate and to adapt to climate change at the global, regional and national level.

The objective of the internship program is to provide a framework through which postgraduate students from diverse academic backgrounds may be assigned to the UNFCCC secretariat to enhance their educational experience through practical work assignments. It allows selected candidates to gain insight into the work of the United Nations and provides assistance and training in various professional fields.

Eligibility Criteria:
• An undergraduate degree should have been completed with work on a Master degree in progress. Applicants should therefore be enrolled in a recognized university course of study in fields related to the work of the UNFCCC secretariat (including economics, environmental sciences, international law, international relations, natural sciences, political science, human resources and/or public administration) at the time of application and during the internship.
• Applicants should be able to work in English.
• Applicants pursuing their studies in countries where higher education is not divided into undergraduate and postgraduate stages should have completed at least four years of study and be a student at the time of application and during the internship.

Application Procedure:
Applications should include the following:
• Recent detailed Curriculum Vitae
• An explanatory paper indicating the reason for requesting an internship and intended goals to be achieved if selected

Relevant Dates:
The deadline for receipt of applications is generally around 2 months before the start of the internship period.

Center for Justice and Accountability

CJA is part of the movement for global justice for those who have been tortured or have suffered other severe human rights abuses. CJA was founded on the principle, first used during the Nuremberg trials after World War II, that certain crimes are so egregious that they represent offenses against all humankind. These crimes include genocide, crimes against humanity, extrajudicial killing and torture. CJA believes that perpetrators of such violations should be brought to justice wherever they are found.

CJA uses two civil laws to hold perpetrators of international human rights abuses accountable in the United States: the Alien Tort Statute (ATS) and the Torture Victim Protection Act (TVPA). We also pursue criminal human rights cases before the Spanish National Court which has initiated investigations into abuses around the world. The most famous of these cases, against Chilean dictator Augusto Pinochet, represented the first time that a former head of state was prosecuted on the victims' initiative.

CJA has pioneered a survivor-centered approach to the quest for justice that combines legal representation with medical and psycho-social services to both empower and heal torture survivors and their communities.

CJA leverages resources by partnering with pro bono law firms and expert witnesses to help litigate our cases. We have built a unique network of partners which includes medical professionals, therapists, military and forensic experts, refugee groups, law school clinics, and other human rights non-governmental organizations.

Eligibility Criteria:
We are particularly interested in students with some familiarity with human rights law and evidence. The work that you do will depend greatly on our case needs at the time of your internship, but you can expect that much of the work will involve legal research and writing. Please be aware that much of our work is litigation-related, and that a majority of research assignments may relate more to evidence, procedure and domestic law than to matters of international or human rights law.
Application Procedure:

To apply for an internship please mail or email us a cover letter, resume, and transcript. Please state the semester for which you are applying. Mail to:

CJA, 870 Market Street, Suite 680, San Francisco, CA 94102 or email: center4justice@cja.org

Please identify in your cover letter and/or resume:

1. Any relevant coursework (especially evidence, trial advocacy, human rights law, public international or comparative law, and immigration law), and your professor(s) for any human rights or international law courses;
2. Any language abilities, especially Spanish, French, Arabic, Farsi, Haitian Creole, Swahili, Somali or any southeast Asian languages.

Important Dates:

The deadline for Spring 2012 is October 15, 2011.
The deadline for Summer 2012 is November 15, 2011.
Applications for the winter term are filled on a rolling and as-needed basis.

Organization Information:

Center for Justice and International Law (CEJIL)
CEJIL is an organization dedicated to defending and promoting human rights in the American continent, litigating before the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights and the Inter-American Court of Human Rights.

CEJIL’s internship program is primarily directed at students and graduates who wish to have more practical experience in the field of human rights to complement their academic and professional training. CEJIL aims to provide broad and realistic knowledge of the functioning of the Inter-American System as well as the human rights situation in the hemisphere.

Legal interns are paired with a CEJIL staff attorney and are actively involved in three areas of work: The Legal Defense Program, the Training and Dissemination Program, and the Campaign to Strengthen the Inter-American System. Interns will collaborate with his/her tutor on cases before the Commission and the Inter-American Court. This could entail researching the case background and precedents, helping to draft and edit briefs, attending hearings, developing legal arguments, and communicating with NGOs.

Eligibility Criteria:
Internships at CEJIL have a minimum of three months and require a commitment, preferably full time. While not an exclusive condition, receive priority applicants who have such availability.
Interns at CEJIL are expected to:

- Be responsible, motivated and proactive to adapt easily to work in a multicultural and dynamic environment
- Have the capacity to handle a wide variety of tasks and to work together
- Have excellent writing skills
- Have a good oral and written proficiency in Spanish. The vast majority of documents and work in CEJIL is mainly in Spanish. In the case of the office in Rio de Janeiro (Brazil), are essential the same skills with the Portuguese. English proficiency is always welcome, especially in the office in Washington (USA).
- Previous experience with NGOs will be particularly taken into account

Application Procedure:
Complete the online form (http://cejil.org/en/internships-cejil) by selecting the office of desired internship. As each office conducts an independent selection process, those interested in running for more than one, must repeat the process. It is essential to read the form carefully and ensure that no fields are incomplete at the time of sending. CEJIL will only review complete applications that have been submitted and received on time.

Relevant Dates:
Period One (January to April) must be turned in by October 15
Period Two (May to August) must be turned in by February 15
Period Three (September to December) must be turned in by June 15

Website and Contact Information:
There is a contact form that can be filled out on the website for more information or inquires.

Organization Information:
Commission on International Religious Freedom
The Commission was created to monitor the status of freedom of thought, conscience, and religion or belief abroad and to give independent policy recommendations to the President, Secretary of State, and Congress. Work includes researches on a variety of other international human rights and comparative law topics, as assigned.

Eligibility Criteria:
- At least second-year law students or recent law graduates with coursework or experience in constitutional law, international affairs, human rights, religious affairs, or a related field
- Familiar with legal research techniques and the Microsoft Office suite.
- Ability in Arabic is helpful, but not required
- Interested in the field of international human rights

Application Procedure:
To apply for an internship, please e-mail, fax or mail a resume, 3-5 page writing sample, 2-3 references and a cover letter explaining your qualifications and why you would like to intern at the Commission. Please specify for which internship you are applying (Policy Department: Legal Research Intern) in your cover letter and in the subject line of emailed applications.

Organization Information:
Commission for Security and Cooperation in Europe
The Commission on Security and Cooperation in Europe, also known as the Helsinki Commission, is an independent U.S. Government agency created in 1976 to monitor and encourage compliance with the Helsinki Final Act and other OSCE commitments. The Commission contributes to the formulation of U.S. policy on the OSCE and takes part in its execution, including through Member and staff participation on U.S. Delegations to OSCE meetings and in certain OSCE bodies.

Interns for the Helsinki Commission get the opportunity to work for an organization that provides a blend of international relations, human rights, and Capitol Hill experience. Interns research Helsinki Final Act-related issues on human rights, religious liberties, corruption and rule of law, and free media as well as a wide range of other tasks.

Eligibility Criteria:
Qualified Helsinki Commission internship candidates should have a keen interest in learning more about international affairs and the inner-workings of Congress. A background in international relations is helpful, but not required, and both graduate and undergraduate students with a focus in political science, international relations and journalism are encouraged to apply.

Application Procedure:
A letter indicating your interest and the hours you're available to work, accompanied by a curriculum vitae, academic transcripts, a list of references and a 2-3 page writing sample of your choice, should be addressed to:

Intern Coordinator
Commission on Security and Cooperation in Europe
234 Ford House Office Building
3rd & D Streets, SW
Washington, DC 20515
Fax: 202-226-4199

Any applications not including the requirements listed above will not be considered for an internship position with the Commission. Due to the continued delay in Washington's mail delivery, applicants are encouraged to apply early or fax their materials.

Relevant Dates:
Internships are unpaid and generally for one semester. Applications for the Fall term have a deadline of July 31st, and Spring internship applications are due on November 1st. Summer internship applications are due no later than March 15th.

Global Justice Center
The Global Justice Center (GJC) is a human rights legal organization that develops innovative strategies to enforce international law. With projects in Burma, Iraq, Sierra Leone and U.S. foreign policy, the GJC applies a unique twofold approach to its human rights work. The GJC equips local leaders in project countries with the legal strategies to promote justice and equality rights using international law.

The GJC offers internships for law students for the spring, summer, and fall terms. Interns must be willing to work a minimum of 12-16 hours a week for a period of at least 10-12 weeks. The internship is unpaid, but the Global Justice Center will assist in any way necessary to ensure that students who are eligible to receive school credit for this activity will or to assist the student in obtaining outside funding. Applications accepted on a rolling basis.

Global Justice Center law interns will be involved in current projects as well as have the opportunity to develop their own areas of research as it fits within the mission of the organization. Interns often work closely with the organization's President, Janet Benshoof and are supervised by GJC Counsel. In working closely with the GJC leadership and staff (as well as with our in-country partners) the intern will learn directly from experts in the field.

Eligibility Criteria:
• Interest in and knowledge of women's rights, international relations, law, public policy, transitional justice, or nation-building preferred.
• Strong verbal, written, and interpersonal communication skills.
• Languages, particularly knowledge of Arabic, Spanish and Chinese a plus.
• Ability to work independently.

Application Procedure:
Send a current resume, a cover letter, writing sample, and list of 3 references to: Akila Radhakrishnan, Staff Attorney, aradhakrishnan@globaljusticecenter.net. Only applicants who have been selected for an interview will be contacted.

All documents should be sent in PDF format and should be labeled in the following format: last name, type of document (Jones Resume.pdf, Jones Cover Letter.pdf, Jones Writing Sample.pdf)
Please note: only complete applications will be considered.

Organization Information:
Inter-American Commission on Human Rights (IACHR)

IACHR is one of two bodies in the inter-American system for the promotion and protection of human rights. The Commission receives, analyzes and investigates individual petitions which allege human rights violations, pursuant to Articles 44 to 51 of the Convention.

The IACHR internship program is designed for law students and recent law school graduates to allow them to work within their field of study. The objective of the internship is to provide law students and recent law school graduates (or other related disciplines) from OAS Member States the opportunity to learn about the Commission’s work. It is also an opportunity to acquire practical training in the area of human rights. During the internship, the participants have the opportunity to work together with the lawyers of the Executive Secretariat in different activities that are carried out by the IACHR.

Eligibility Criteria:
The program requires a good command of two of the four official languages of the Organization of American States (English, French, Portuguese and Spanish).

Application Procedure:
Interested applicants should apply via the OAS Internship Program web page where an electronic application is accessible during application periods only (which are indicated in the above table): http://www.oas.org/EN/PINFO/HR/gi n_information.htm. In this electronic application please be sure to indicate your interest in the IACHR. Additionally, please inform the IACHR of your application submitted via the OAS page, preferably by sending a copy of your documents already uploaded electronically in the OAS system, via email to cidhdenuncias@oas.org.

If for any reason you are not able to complete the OAS online application process, please send the following required documents to the IACHR at cidhdenuncias@oas.org:

- A cover letter requesting the internship, specifying the start and ending dates. In principle the internships of the IACHR are full-time (40 hours per week) unless reasons can be provided to establish a part-time internship, for which the minimum number of hours is 20 per week.
- Complete enclosed form. (APPLICATION FORM)
- Two letters of recommendation: one from a professor in your major and the other from an employer or another professor.
- Copy of university transcript.

Relevant Dates:
The IACHR internship program offers three sessions per year and has established a minimum duration of two months and a maximum of four months. However, longer or shorter periods can be considered, with founded reasons, if applicable. The deadlines to apply are as follows:

Inter-American Court of Human Rights
This autonomous judicial institution is part of the human rights protection system of the Organization of American States. The Court hears and rules on the specific cases of human rights violations referred to it and issues opinions on matters of legal interpretation. The Internship and Visiting Professionals Program at the Inter-American Court of Human Rights offers students and professionals in the areas of law, international relations, political science, linguistics and translations an opportunity to gain a practical experience in the Inter-American System for the Protection of Human Rights.

Eligibility Criteria:
Internship and Visiting Professionals candidates are expected to be people who are motivated and have the ability to carry out their work in an effective and professional manner, within an international and multicultural environment.

It is essential to have good oral and written skills in Spanish and English. Spanish is the principle language used at work. Additionally, knowledge of other official languages of the Court, such as Portuguese and French, are greatly valued.

The applications that do not meet the requirements of each program, as described below, will not be considered:

- Applicants must be students committed to the subject of human rights, who have at least completed their second year of university. Law students will be given priority, as legal assistance is the chief necessity of the Tribunal. However, applications from students in different areas related to the work of the Court will also be considered.
- A minimum of 3 months of availability is required. Applications for internships longer than three months are highly valued.
- The on-line application must be completed.

Application Procedure:
Submit online application. Complete applications will receive an automatic acknowledgement of receipt.

All requested documentation should be submitted on-line through the Court’s webpage or via email to corteidh@corteidh.or.cr. If it is not possible to send all of the aforementioned documents electronically, applicants may submit them to the Inter-American Court of Human Rights, Apartado 6906-1000, San Jose, Costa Rica, or by fax at +(506) 234-0584.

International Anti-homophobia Legal Clinic--El Salvador

International Anti-homophobia Legal Clinic--El Salvador is a new start-up international human rights NGO, helping shape its future, combating the spread of HIV/AIDS, fighting discrimination in education, employment, medical care and the impunity of hate crimes. The legal clinic in El Salvador will, for the first time, make justice accessible to the LGBTQ community. The Mission of the Legal Clinic for HIV/LBGTQ in El Salvador is to fight the spread of AIDS and promote the health, safety, dignity, civil rights and legal empowerment of HIV/LBGTQ, including children abandoned & orphaned because of their HIV status.

The work of the Anti-Homophobia Legal Clinic--El Salvador includes: Advocacy & Policy--working with branches of the Salvadoran government and other NGOs to develop resolutions to human rights violations. Thus, improving the LGBTQ community's access to their civil & human rights. Legal Aid--Our legal advocates, Promoters, and pro bono attorneys will provide legal counsel and representation to persecuted HIV/LGBTQ. We aim to help the community navigate the legal process to access education, healthcare and employment rights and demand equal protection of police & courts. Legal Empowerment—Our plan is to train members of the LGBTQ community as para-legal ‘promotores’, so they are empowered to provide basic legal advice and facilitate civic engagement within the community. We also conduct Street Law-Know Your Rights education with the HIV/LGBTQ community and other social actors and services providers. Social Movement Building --We are advancing the LGBTQ human rights agenda and planning to launch additional legal services offices in other Central American countries. Strategic Litigation--The LGBTQ legal clinic will set legal precedent for human rights, through ‘emblematic’ test cases in regional courts as advised by the local LGBTQ community.

The Project: The leading LGBTQ human rights groups--Asociación Entre Amigos (‘AEA’), as well as other LGBTQ activists, have expressed the dire need for pro bono legal services for LGBT persons in El Salvador. This community is the most vulnerable, at-risk-population including transgender persons and those living with HIV/AIDS who are grossly marginalized and persecuted. The need for pro bono legal services has been confirmed by a report on the human rights situation of the LGBT community---Sexual Diversity in El Salvador July 2012, International Human Rights Law Clinic University of California, Berkeley, School of Law.

Background: Post conflict El Salvador is undergoing an exciting transformation after years of conservative Right Wing politics. Through the new democratically elected FMLN liberal party, the country has real opportunities for strengthening the rule of law by asserting and defending the rights of LGBTQ. We seek pro bono advocates to bring about historic change for the LGBTQ community in El Salvador's legal justice system through the work of this new Anti-Homophobia Legal Clinic (in El Salvador known as ‘Asistencia Legal Para la Diversidad Sexual’).
Intersection of Health & Human Rights: The International AIDS Conference in Vienna 2010 focused on legal and human rights issues faced by the 'vulnerable and most at risk' i.e., LGBTQ persons. It recognized the need of securing human rights to achieve medical access goals.

Challenges: The AIDS Conference found that LGBT persons often have the poorest access to HIV medical care because of stigmatization and marginalization. A panel 'Opposing Grave Human Rights Violations On The Basis Of Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity' at UN headquarters, discussing arbitrary arrests, degrading treatment, torture and murder concluded that a major challenge in controlling the spread of AIDS in the Global South remains the social stigma and discrimination faced by these vulnerable, high risk groups.

Popular Perceptions in Salvadoran Society that Contribute to Discrimination & Stigmatization
- 81% believe that employers have the right to request HIV tests as a requirement to employment,
- 65% believe that children with HIV should be educated at separate institutions,
- 54% believe that God has punished prostitutes and homosexuals with HIV/AIDS due to their lifestyles,
- 51% state that people with HIV/AIDS should not be able to use public places.

Hate Crimes against LGBTQ & Lack of Legal Protection--Although the need for legal services is immense, there is no legal organization asserting the civil rights of LBGTQ in El Salvador. By most accounts there have been more than 47 murders of gay men, transsexuals & transvestites. In all these murders, no one has been brought to trial! Many other LBGTQ are regularly assaulted, battered, threatened and shunned. (See report 'La Alianza por la Diversidad Sexual LGBT de El Salvador' a report on the aggression suffered by LGBT community in El Salvador between Jan--Sept 2009)

Duties & Responsibilities: Assist in promoting Thematic Hearing for LGBT in OAS Inter-American Commission of Human Rights. Work to solicit the American Bar Association or other international pro bono NGOs to and establish high-impact legal advocacy projects. Help organize the first LBGT Human Rights Conference at the University of Central America ('UCA') w/academics, LGBT presenters, human rights advocates/NGOs, along with cultural activities—art exhibit, musical performance, poetry/literature film etc. Assist organizing Anti-Homophobia Day May 17, 2013 Celebration at the University and or other additional forum. Help develop a LBGT Human Rights Training Curriculum and creating a panel of local legal professionals capable of applying internationally recognized protections for LGBT rights. This may include prosecutors, Supreme Court justices, members of the Ministry of Justice and Interior, NGO representatives and other policy makers and legal professionals in El Salvador. Research & Writing Projects including compiling a Human Rights Violations Report on documented hate crimes from currently available materials on the 47 (or more) hate crimes committed, in recent years, against LGBT in El Salvador. An important facet of your work at the clinic is Accompaniment ('acompanamiento') of individuals looking to assert their civil rights. This is your opportunity to work one-on-one with members of the LBGTQ community wherein you accompany them to institutions and venues where they seek to assert their civil rights for education, health care and fair labor/employment. Your advocacy efforts will be guided by an attorney from the Salvadorian bar. You may choose to participate in Outreach Activities to LGBT & NGO community. Other projects that are of interest to you are welcome and will be considered.

Explore different kinds of legal work to help you figure out what you really want to do. Gain International development experience, and ‘on-the-ground’ field experience & knowledge about human rights violations. Have an impact and contribute to the protection of human rights in action. Learn about LGBT & HIV/AIDS issues. Make professional contacts and develop your legal career network. Strengthen your Spanish language, and cross-cultural communication skills. Work abroad with fun, intelligent, inspiring co-workers. All legal advocates with the Anti-Homophobia Legal Clinic-El Salvador are encouraged to view their legal work as a dynamic factor in their agent-of-change activities through global human rights lawyering. We a comfortable, secure, home stay program and there is the opportunity to attend an intensive Spanish Language program if needed.

Eligibility Criteria:
• Experience with HIV & LGBT issues
• Able to work independently, and also as part of a team
• Competence with Microsoft Office, Outlook, PowerPoint, Excel & other applications
• Highly motivated with energy and ability to multitask, Ethical and compassionate
• Possess excellent interpersonal skills
• Spanish language competency desirable—but non-Spanish speakers are also invited to apply
• Self-starter, able to work effectively with minimal supervision
• Sensitive to cultural differences, comfortable working with low-income clients
• Skilled communicator with effective oral, presentation and written communication skills
• Willing to work with people living with HIV/AIDS, including sex workers and those who may be terminally ill and who suffer severe discrimination, prejudice and stigma.
• Willing to travel and live in El Salvador for the duration of 12 weeks minimum
• Economically self-sufficient, as this is a self-funded position.

Application Procedure:

The Clinic opened in April 2012; positions are available on a rolling basis. Applicants please send a cover letter and resume to Ana Montano, Director & Supervising Attorney--ana@alrp.org with the Subject Line 'Legal Advocate for El Salvador’. Please describe your international experience, Spanish language proficiency and preferred dates of travel. This is a self-funded position for attorneys, law school graduates, law students and others who have a passion for LGBT rights.

International Center for Transitional Justice

ICTJ works to help societies in transition address legacies of massive human rights violations and build civic trust in state institutions as protectors of human rights. In the aftermath of mass atrocity and repression, ICTJ assists institutions and civil society groups—the people who are driving and shaping change in their societies—in considering measures to provide truth, accountability, and redress for past abuses.

1. ICTJ advises state institutions and policymakers at the local, national, and international level.
2. ICTJ works with victims’ groups and communities, human rights activists, women’s organizations and others in civil society with a justice agenda.
3. ICTJ researches, analyzes, and reports on transitional justice developments worldwide.

The Research Unit at ICTJ is accepting applications for a Research Intern for summer 2012 (June through August 2012). Tasked with producing the most innovative work in the field, the ICTJ Research Unit addresses important gaps in scholarship and provides comparative analysis of transitional justice measures and the difficult contexts in which they take place to ICTJ staff and to practitioners worldwide. The Research Unit works to develop a rich understanding of the field as a whole, and to identify issues that merit more in-depth research and analysis.

The Research Intern will work under the supervision of ICTJ’s regular staff, and have the opportunity to:

1. Learn about the Center’s work in key areas of transitional justice.
2. Enhance his or her research skills by assisting with ICTJ’s current research projects.

Eligibility Criteria:
Candidates should have:

1. Experience in conducting research (doing bibliographic searches in different database systems, drafting annotated bibliographies, drafting summaries and commenting on papers);
2. Editing, formatting, and proofreading various types of documents;
3. InDesign and Endnote knowledge is desirable.
4. Must still be enrolled in a degree program at the time of the internship, and preferably should receive academic credit for their internship.
5. Must also have strong writing and verbal communication skills.
6. Proficiency in foreign languages is also desired, but not required.

Application Procedure:
To apply, please email your resume and cover letter along with a brief (3–4 page) writing sample to internships@ictj.org, and write “Research Intern” in the subject line of your email. We will consider applications on a rolling basis. All internship positions are unpaid. Please note that ICTJ is not able to obtain work authorization and visas for non-U.S. citizens and residents.

International Institute of Humanitarian Law (IIHL)

IIHL is an independent, non-profit humanitarian organization founded in 1970. Its headquarters are situated in Villa Ormond, Sanremo (Italy). The main purpose of the Institute is to promote international humanitarian law, human rights, refugee law and related issues.

IIHL accepts interns at its headquarters in Sanremo and at its Geneva Liaison Office on an ad hoc basis depending on the number of applicants and the capacity of its staff to supervise them. All interns must be either graduate or post-graduate students with a good legal background and exposure to humanitarian issues. Selected interns will be involved in the activities of the Institute. In particular, they will be engaged in the Secretariat and/or Military Department and/or library, according to IIHL needs. Interns will contribute to the organization of the activities assisting IIHL’s staff in the preparation of material and/or drafting documents of different nature.

Although interns are not considered to be officials or staff members of the IIHL, they are expected to work full time as if they were and to carry out the duties assigned to them. They are bound by the same duties and obligations as the regular staff members. They must keep confidential any unpublished information made known to them during the internship as well as any reports or papers on the basis of information thus obtained.

Application Procedure:

Application form (found online), which should be sent with detailed curriculum vitae, will be examined by a Commission chaired by the President of the Institute.

Relevant Dates:

The duration of an internship is from a minimum of two to a maximum of six months.

International Justice Mission (IJM)

IJM is a human rights agency that rescues victims of violence, sexual exploitation, slavery, and oppression. IJM lawyers, investigators and aftercare professionals work with local governments to ensure victim rescue, to prosecute perpetrators and to strengthen the community and civic factors that promote functioning public justice systems.
The IJM summer legal internship program provides exposure to legal work and helps participants develop skills in legal research, writing briefs, and preparing case documentation. IJM interns have the unique opportunity to join teams of Christian attorneys in Washington DC, Africa, South Asia, Southeast Asia and Latin America to help protect clients from sex trafficking, slavery, unprosecuted rape, illegal detention, police brutality and illegal land seizure.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Candidates must have completed at least one year of law school.
- IJM requires all interns to possess a mature orthodox Christian faith as defined by the Apostles’ Creed.
- IJM conducts business in English at all field offices, except those located in Latin America. Candidates who desire to work with the IJM staff in Guatemala or Bolivia must be fluent, or near fluent, in Spanish.

Application Procedure:
A completed application will consist of the following items. Please send all items together in one mailing to: International Justice Mission, Attn: Internship Program, PO Box 58147, Washington, DC 20037.

- Completed Application Form
- Cover Letter describing your interest in an IJM internship
- Resume
- Application Form Addendum
- Statement of Faith (if not addressed in cover letter)
- Two Reference Forms (in self-enclosed envelopes)
- Official transcripts of all undergraduate and graduate studies
- Writing Sample (can be excerpted from a longer sample)

Application Form Addendum
Applicants should answer all questions on a one page document.

- List your experiences living outside of your home nation beyond one week, noting the specific length, the purpose of and activities conducted during your trip.
- List and briefly describe your current and prior commitments to social justice or service to the poor and vulnerable.
- Briefly describe how you see an IJM internship experience impacting your future.

Statement of Faith
All IJM candidates must be in agreement with the Apostles' Creed and subscribe to an orthodox Christian faith. Please describe your Christian faith and how it is relevant to your involvement with IJM. This statement should outline your spiritual journey and discuss your current spiritual disciplines (prayer, study, etc.), including your current place of worship.

Organization Information:
British American Security Information Council (BASIC)
An independent research organization that works to promote public awareness of defense, disarmament nuclear policies and conventional and biological weapons issues on both sides of the Atlantic. BASIC offers unpaid internships throughout the year to all students.

BASIC’s London and Washington offices each supervise up to two interns at any time. (Internships are unpaid. However, the Herbert Scoville Jr Peace Fellowship pays a stipend for graduates to work with Washington NGOs for six to nine months.) Interns will gain an understanding of many of the current issues affecting security; familiarity with the arms control communities in Europe and the United States; an understanding of employment opportunities in the field; a first-hand view of how a small think tank influences international media coverage and national policy formulation; and exposure to the challenges and responsibilities of international networking.

Eligibility Criteria:
We encourage people with a relevant Masters degree to apply. We may consider applicants with a first degree and relevant experience. Interns should have excellent research, writing, editing, networking, and organizational skills. They should be familiar with MS Office. Interns are asked to commit to working at least three days per week for three months so they can establish a sense of continuity and undertake substantive assignments. Longer internships are possible.

Application Procedure:
Applications are considered as and when a place becomes vacant, so please apply well in advance.

You should send the following:
- A cover letter which should state when you are available and how many days a week you wish to work, and why you are interested in working at BASIC
- Your CV/resume
- A recent writing sample (1,500 and 2,000 words)
- Two academic references from former or current professors and/or employers

Organization Information:
Business Executives for National Security (BENS)
BENS is a highly respected national, nonpartisan organization of senior executives dedicated to enhancing our national security using the successful models of the private sector.

At BENS, our Research Associates are a valuable resource. Research Associates are given substantive research and writing assignments in one of more of BENS’ major policy areas. These include the “New Threats” activities in the areas of homeland security, cyber security, port security, terrorist finance and nonproliferation in addition to the Pentagon and military-reform focus of our “Tail-to-Tooth program.”

Along with tracking and analyzing policy, there are ample opportunities for attending Congressional hearings and meeting with key governmental figures. In addition, as a final project, Research Associates may be asked to create and present an original proposal for new BENS action. These are not ideas simply put on a shelf; several of these projects have been implemented in the past. RAs are paid, but many student-RAs have used these papers to fulfill internship credit requirements, as well.
Eligibility Criteria:
BENS accepts Research Associates from all backgrounds and degree programs (e.g., International Affairs, Security Studies, Public Policy, MBAs). Strong writing and research skills are a must, as is an interest in national security issues. Previous work experience is strongly desired. You must be computer-literate and Internet-savvy; we use the Microsoft Office suite of software.

Application Procedure:
Please send a concise cover letter, a one-page resume, and a 2-3 page writing sample to the Research Associate Coordinator at internships@bens.org. Applications that do not include all documentation will not be considered.

Relevant Dates:
BENS offers Research Associate positions throughout the year. Spring terms typically run January-May, Summer terms June-August, and Fall terms September-December. Because this is a paid position, you must be available to work full-time for four or five days each week.

Deadlines for receipt of applications:
• Fall: July 31
• Spring: November 30
• Summer: April 1 (We may begin review in March.)

UN Special Rapporteur on the Human Rights to Water and Sanitation
The mandate of the Special Rapporteur on the Human Right to Safe Drinking Water and Sanitation has been established by the UN Human Rights Council in March 2008. As part of her mandate, the Special Rapporteur annually reports to the Human Rights Council and the General Assembly and carries out thematic research for these reports. The 2012 report to the Human Rights Council will deal with stigmatization in the realization of the human rights to water and sanitation, while the 2012 report to the General Assembly will take up the issue of human rights recommendations for the post-2015 development agenda for water and sanitation. The Special Rapporteur also conducts country missions, looking in depth at specific country situations. She also undertakes a range of activities (including speaking at conferences, writing academic articles, preparing promotional and informational material etc.) to generally promote the human rights to water and sanitation. Finally, she engages with a range of stakeholders to provide support and advice for the implementation of the rights to water and sanitation.

The summer position is intended to provide support to the mandate, working directly with Dr. Inga Winkler, who is part of the Special Rapporteur's team and will be based at Berkeley to work with the International Human Rights Law Clinic from April to October 2012. Specific activities to be undertaken include research assistance for the annual report to the General Assembly and academic articles on the issue, as well as support in designing a project looking at the implementation of the human rights to water and sanitation in California, which will be part of the International Human Rights Law Clinic in the fall semester.

Eligibility Criteria:
• Candidates should be a 1L or 2L with prior academic or professional experience in international public or human rights law

Application Procedure:
Submit cover letter, resume, transcript and a short writing sample (5 to 10 pages) via email
Relevant Dates:
March 15, 2012

Organization Information:
U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ)
The DOJ enforces the law and defend the interests of the United States according to the law; to ensure public safety against threats foreign and domestic; to provide federal leadership in preventing and controlling crime; to seek just punishment for those guilty of unlawful behavior; and to ensure fair and impartial administration of justice for all Americans.

The Department's management offices, litigating divisions and offices, legal and policy offices, and investigatory and law enforcement offices offer internship opportunities to undergraduates, graduates, and law students.

Eligibility Criteria:
First-year (second-semester), second-year and third-year law students are eligible to apply at any time. First-year, first-semester law students may apply after December 1 for internships the following summer. The Department follows the National Association of Law Placement guidelines that prohibit employer contact with first-year (first-semester) students regarding summer employment prior to that date. Law students may work in volunteer positions only while attending law school. Law school graduation terminates eligibility, except for graduate law students enrolled at least half time and who are not practicing law. Part-time and joint-degree law students may apply provided they meet eligibility requirements.

Application Procedure:
The Department publishes detailed information about volunteer opportunities and announces upcoming vacancies for specific offices in late summer (for internships during the academic year) and in December (for summer internships). Each participating office conducts its internship program independently and has its own internal deadlines. Students should apply separately to each office in which they have an interest. Offices typically request a resume and a law school transcript. Application requirements vary and are outlined in the "Qualifications" section of each announcement. Some organizations request a writing sample, a cover letter listing times and dates of availability, and references.

Relevant Dates:
Applications are accepted on a rolling basis.

U.S. Department of State

The U.S. Department of State is the lead U.S. foreign affairs agency responsible for advancing freedom for the benefit of the American people and the international community. The Department’s employees, Foreign Service Officers and Specialists, Civil Service professionals and Foreign Service Nationals work at over 265 locations overseas, and throughout the United States. Together, they help to build and sustain a more democratic, secure, and prosperous world composed of well-governed states that respond to the needs of their people, reduce widespread poverty, and act responsibly within the international system.

The U.S. Department of State Student Experience is an unpaid, intensive internship offering U.S. citizen undergraduate and graduate students a chance to participate in the formulation and implementation of U.S. foreign policy, working closely with representatives of the U.S. Department of State’s Foreign and Civil Services. The program is both professionally and academically beneficial, providing participants with hands-on experience and insight into the substance and daily operations of U.S. foreign policy.

Responsibilities and Duties Include:

The Department of State tries to provide Student Experience Interns with opportunities both educationally and professional substantive in nature. The purpose of the program is to provide students with insight into work of U.S. foreign policy and the administration of the U.S. Department of State and our diplomatic facilities around the world. Specific duties and responsibilities vary according to the domestic office or overseas post of assignment. Former Department of State Student Experience Interns have written reports on human rights issues, participated with trade negotiations, assisted with U.S. citizen's services or visa work, helped Americans in distress abroad, supported and helped to coordinate international conferences and visits of high-level officials, researched economic or environmental issues, monitored and evaluated media reporting, supported educational and cultural exchange activities and identified U.S. experts to speak overseas, and worked on web pages and electronic journals.

Other examples include interns with scientific and technical backgrounds working on issues such as arms control, genetically modified organisms (GMO's), infectious diseases, and remote sensing.

Also, students interested in management and administration may use their expertise working on projects involving budgets, human resources, information systems, or general logistical support. to posts abroad.

Student Experience Interns should also expect to do some routine administrative work.

Organization Information:
International Institute for the Unification of Private Law (UNIDROIT)
UNIDROIT is an independent intergovernmental organization with its seat in the Villa Aldobrandini in Rome. Its purpose is to study needs and methods for modernizing, harmonizing and coordinating private and in particular commercial law as between States and groups of States. The UNIDROIT Secretariat regularly welcomes as interns law students who are either required to carry out an internship with an international organization as part of their university studies or wish to acquire experience within an organization such as UNIDROIT.

UNIDROIT welcomes a limited number of interns to be involved in the work of the Secretariat of the Organisation on one of the subjects, including non legislative activities (data bases, in particular UNILEX), on the Institute's current Work Programme. The type of activity proposed consists mainly in research work on specific aspects of the subject chosen and the preparation of concept notes. The minimum length of an internship is two consecutive months (excluding the month of August). Regretfully Unidroit cannot remunerate interns who moreover must have appropriate health and personal injury insurance coverage during their stay in Rome.
Eligibility Criteria:
Interns must have a degree in law (or be in their final year of law school). They may spend part of their time carrying out their own personal research in the Unidroit Library in the context of their university curriculum.

Graduate translators (English/French) specialized in the legal field (or translators who are in the process of obtaining their degree) may also apply. Internships in the Unidroit Library are also offered to students in information and library sciences. Applicants must have a good knowledge of both spoken and written English and/or French (and knowledge of other languages is appreciated).

Application Procedure:
Individual applicants should send their applications, which must be motivated and contain a curriculum vitae, to Ms Laura Tikanvaara ltikanvaara@unidroit.org.

Relevant Dates:
Applications are being accepted for internship periods from September 2011 onwards.

Organization Information:
Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference on Private International Law
The Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference on Private International Law accepts stagiaires who, in the context of their degree studies or their doctoral research, wish to deepen their knowledge of private international law, to understand how the Conference functions and, as far as their competence permits, to provide assistance in the work of the institution.

The Permanent Bureau of the Hague Conference on Private International Law seeks interns who, in the context of their degree studies or their doctoral research, wish to deepen their knowledge of private international law, understand how the Conference functions and provide assistance in the work of the institution.

As a general rule, the duration of an internship is three to six months. The Permanent Bureau also occasionally seeks candidates for internships of two or three weeks only; these missions de stage are then devoted to a very precise task that can be completed quickly.

Eligibility Criteria:
The intern should speak the two official languages of the Conference, French and English. Knowledge of other languages is an asset.

Application Procedure:
Any person interested in interning at the Hague Conference should submit the following:

- a curriculum vitae
- a letter of motivation
- a description of courses followed
- a transcript
- one or more academic references
- a writing sample

Please indicate your specific area of interest within the Hague Conference (international protection of children, family and property relations, international legal co-operation and litigation, or international commercial and financial law) and refer, if applicable, to a specific Convention or current project. Please also identify your desired dates for an internship.

Applications should be submitted by email to secretariat@hcch.net, preferably six months before the desired starting date. Please include all of the requested documentation.

International Organization for Migration (IOM)

IOM is the leading inter-governmental organization in the field of migration and works closely with governmental, intergovernmental and non-governmental partners. IOM is dedicated to promoting humane and orderly migration for the benefit of all. It does so by providing services and advice to governments and migrants. IOM works to help ensure the orderly and humane management of migration, to promote international cooperation on migration issues, to assist in the search for practical solutions to migration problems and to provide humanitarian assistance to migrants in need, including refugees and internally displaced people.

The IOM Internship Programme provides students with the opportunity to learn about IOM's activities, to gain initial work experience, and/or to prepare for a degree dissertation. IOM provides on the job training to interns so that both they and the organization can benefit. In addition to this, IOM evaluates interns who may eventually be included on the roster for future external vacancies. Furthermore, internships build links with their institutions and universities.

Application Procedure:

Unless otherwise specified, applications should be written in one of the IOM official languages (English, French, and Spanish).

For internships in our field offices, you can send your application directly to the office you are interested in and copy the Staffing Unit in the cc line. You can find the email addresses and the contact details by selecting one of the countries on the 'IOM Worldwide' box on the right.

Relevant Dates:

- There is no specific time of the year for sending your application for an internship. Please register your profile in IOM e-Recruitment and select the interest group ‘Intern’. Also release your profile for our review.
- If you have applied for a vacant internship position and you have not heard from us in the following month from the closing date then it is most likely that the post has been filled. You can check your status in the service ‘Applications’.
- If you have been interviewed, you will get written notification of the results of your interview.

Organization Information:
South African Constitutional Court
The Constitutional Court is South Africa's highest court on constitutional matters. So its jurisdiction - the scope of its authority to hear cases - is restricted to constitutional matters and issues connected with decisions on constitutional matters.
The Constitutional Court is the first court in the history of South Africa to have law clerks for all judges. Law clerks are appointed to work for a specific judge. The primary responsibility of the law clerks is to assist the judges in performing their duties.

Each judge has two South African law clerks and may have one foreign law clerk. Although responsibilities among South African and foreign clerks are essentially the same, different conditions apply to the appointment of foreign law clerks in respect of period of employment and remuneration.

Specific responsibilities may vary between chambers, but include:

- Writing analytical summaries of written argument or evidence and assessing arguments in the light of academic legal literature and case law
- Carrying out detailed research on particular topics
- Preparing pre-hearing memoranda, media summaries and opinions as well as identifying key issues in matters to be heard
- Assisting the judge in Court
- Taking detailed notes of oral argument during hearings
- Assisting the judge in Court-related work such as committees, organizational work and international human-rights work
- Cite-checking draft judgments before delivery
- Taking part in various clerks' committees
- Administration of Court papers and case management
- Public relations

Law clerks’ workload varies during the year and will depend on the demands made by an individual judge. The working hours are flexible and chamber specific. Foreign law clerks (except those who are part of the German trainee lawyer programme) are appointed for a minimum period of six months. Occasionally foreign clerks may be appointed for a period of a year.

Eligibility Criteria:
Law clerks are required to have the following skills:

- Knowledge of, and the ability to apply legal principles, concepts and procedures
- Familiarity and experience in the use of a variety of legal research sources, including electronic sources
- Excellent English language and writing skills
- Computer proficiency
- Analytical skills
- Drafting skills, including the ability to write clearly and concisely and under pressure
- Ability to plan work and manage conflicting priorities
- Capacity to work independently and in a team setting

Some training will be provided to new clerks by the Orientation Committee during the two week orientation period.
Application Procedure:
The application should indicate whether all judges, or a specific judge is being applied to, as well as and the period for which the applicants wish to be considered. Applicants must be in possession of an LLB (or equivalent) or in their final year of study for such degree and have an interest in subjects relating to constitutional law. Applications must also include, as a minimum:

- Motivational cover letter
- Full Curriculum Vitae
- Certified copies of academic records
- Example of written work
- Names and contact details of two references (one academic/professional and one personal)
- References regarding working experience and/or any special qualifications (if appropriate)

Relevant Dates:
All foreign applications must be received by no later than 30 April each year. Because the judges have specific requirements and because they work so closely with their law clerks, appointments are made, where possible, after one-on-one interviews either in person or telephonically.

Website and Contact Information:
Foreign applicants should email their applications to Mr Mosala Sello at sello@concourt.org.za

Organization Information:
U.S. State Department, Office of the Legal Adviser
The Office of the Legal Adviser furnishes advice on all legal issues, domestic and international, arising in the course of the Department's work. This includes assisting Department principals and policy officers in formulating and implementing the foreign policies of the U.S., and promoting the adherence to and development of international law and its institutions as a fundamental element of those policies.

The Office typically selects about 12 highly qualified second-year law students to participate in its Summer Intern Program. This provides a unique opportunity for students interested in public service and foreign affairs to become acquainted with the work of the Office as well as the Department (and to demonstrate their legal skills and acumen). Summer interns are normally given the same level of work as junior attorney-advisers. Interns are ordinarily assigned to two offices that they serve consecutively to ensure that they receive as broad an exposure as possible to the various facets of the Office’s practice within the time allowed. Interns are encouraged also to take advantage of special summer programs and activities sponsored by the Department, the Federal Bar Association, the Department of Justice, and others.

Eligibility Criteria:
The summer intern program is highly competitive. Outstanding academic achievement, relevant international experience and/or extracurricular activity, and demonstrated professional potential are important factors in the selection process. Consideration is given only to U.S. citizens.

Application Procedure:
All applicants must submit a complete resume, including a law school transcript, together with a list of at least three professional references. Applications submitted without a law school transcript will not be considered.

Relevant Dates:
Applications must be received no later than September 1 of the second year. Successful applicants will be notified around December 15, but their participation is conditional upon eligibility for receipt of a Secret-level security clearance.

Organization Information:
Vera Institute of Justice
The Vera Institute of Justice is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit center that combines expertise in research, demonstration projects, and technical assistance to help leaders in government and civil society improve the systems people rely on for justice and safety.

Vera’s International Program collaborates with national governments, civil society leaders, and international agencies to improve systems people rely on for justice and safety. Vera’s international program is seeking a summer intern to work on Vera projects focused on legal reform in China. The China Program works collaboratively with reformers in China to facilitate justice innovations and policy changes that are rooted in experience, guided by empirical methods, and consistent with international human rights standards. Vera’s work in China builds on the knowledge and drive of local universities and government partners.

Potential responsibilities may include: assisting in the preparation of written briefing materials and proposals; serving as liaison with Mandarin-speaking partners in China; assisting in organizing a conference for Chinese partners in Los Angeles; supporting the development of substantive presentations of Vera’s work in Mandarin; participating in strategic planning sessions for the growth of the program; and, providing general administrative help to the China Program.

Eligibility Criteria:
Enrollment in a relevant graduate program (e.g. Public Policy, Criminal Justice, etc.) or law school with a demonstrated interest in criminal justice and legal reform in China. An ideal candidate would also possess solid interpersonal, public speaking, research and writing skills, as well as a fluency (both written and oral) in Mandarin and English. Strong quantitative and analytical skills are also preferred

Organization Information:
World Jurist Association
The World Jurist Association was founded under the name of the World Peace Through Law Center in 1963, created in response to an international outcry for a free and open forum where judges, lawyers, law professors and others from around the world could work cooperatively to raise public support for the institutions that govern and enforce the administration of international law. The World Jurist Association offers volunteer internship opportunities throughout the year for both undergraduate and graduate students around the world and is a unique opportunity for students to gain practical experience in international law. All positions are in the Washington, DC area office. The hours are flexible.

Typical intern tasks include:
• Help plan and organize upcoming conferences and seminars
• Research and write international news stories for a bi-monthly newsletter as well as write articles on law and technology for a quarterly law journal. The topics include human rights, technology and law, international arbitration and mediation, international commercial law, environmental law, democracy, and legal education
• Help organize and manage the daily business operations; including but not limited to, accounting (Quickbooks software), payroll, data entry, and correspondence
• Help with fundraising and locate private and public grants
• Interested interns will also be given the opportunity to perform legal related research on the internet

New tasks and responsibilities arise regularly. The WJA is willing to help you meet requirements to receive credit, locate research paper topics, and discuss careers. This is a unique opportunity for students to gain practical experience in international law.

Eligibility Criteria:
Fluency in English is required.
