

The University of the Pacific LAW REVIEW

Volume 50

Issue 4

2019

SYMPOSIUM— BLOCKING THE COURTHOUSE DOOR: FEDERAL CIVIL PROCEDURE OBSTACLES TO JUSTICE

- Due Process and the Myth of Sovereignty* 513 Michael Vitiello
- The Supreme Court’s Cloaking Device: “[C]ongressional judgment about the sound division of labor between state and federal courts”* 539 Donald L. Doernberg
- Justice Black Was Right About International Shoe, But for the Wrong Reason* 587 Richard D. Freer
- Over Passive-Aggressive Model of Civil Adjudication* 605 Thomas O. Main
- Is the Arc of Procedure Bending
Towards Injustice?* 611 Linda S. Mullenix

COMMENTS

- Democratizing Climate Change:
Litigation for the Era of Extreme Weather* 651 Kimberly Barnes
- Retaliatory Arrests: Seeking Compromise in a Constitutional Tug of War* 685 Paige Davidson
- One of These Things is Not Like the Other: Federal Law’s Inconsistent
Treatment of Domestic and International Terrorism* 711 Katie Dilts
- What Do You Get When You Abuse Your Spouse? Spousal Support.* 735 Tiffany Sala