

McGeorge School of Law

LL.M. Application Requirements and Checklist

To be eligible to apply to one of our LL.M. programs, the applicant must present evidence of:

- Graduation from a school of law approved by the American Bar Association; or
 - Admission to the Bar in a foreign jurisdiction, or of a state in the United States; or
 - Graduation from a faculty of law in a foreign country whose educational authority has authorized that faculty to issue degrees in law
-

Application Process

- Create online account through GradCAS
- Find the McGeorge LL.M. Program by clicking on the "Add Program" tab
 - Under "Institutions" tab, choose University of the Pacific
 - Under "Program Level" tab, choose Masters
 - Scroll down to LL.M. programs to add to your application
- Complete online application form - all necessary documents should be uploaded to the application site
 - Personal Information
 - Academic History
 - Program Materials / Supporting Information

Below are the items required to complete the application process:

Official transcript(s) from all universities and colleges attended

- Applicants must submit an official transcript from each undergraduate and graduate school attended.
- Transcripts may be ordered through the GradCAS system.
- International applicants must submit an official English translation or certified evaluation of an official transcript from each undergraduate and graduate school attended.
- For applicants from countries in which a university will only release official transcripts to the student, the applicant may submit a photocopy if a notary or other official third party certifies that the photocopy is a true and correct copy of the original document.

- Resume or curriculum vitae
 - Please submit a current resume or curriculum vitae.

 - Personal statement - Statements should address the following:
 - Relevant professional experience
 - Reason for application to the LL.M. program
 - Any additional significant information

 - Two (2) Letters of recommendation
 - Please submit a minimum of two original, signed letters of recommendation.
 - Letters of recommendation should be from academic or professional sources.
 - Letters may be sent directly to Graduate and International Programs by the recommender, or may be submitted in a sealed envelope along with application materials.

 - For non-native English speakers, proof of English proficiency:
 - Receipt of an undergraduate or graduate degree from an English language institution
 - Multi-year employment in a position which English is the primary language of communication; or
 - A minimum test score of 88 (Internet-based) on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), or 6.5 on the International English Language Testing System (IELTS)
-

Documents should be uploaded via the online system, GradCAS. If you have any issues with the online system, please contact the Graduate & International Programs Office.

Questions?

Contact the Graduate & International Programs Office

Email | 916.739.7019