

McGeorge School of Law
M.S.L. Application Checklist

- Application
 - Create online account
 - Complete online application form
 - When completing the Online Application, please select "New Law & Public Policy" for "Student Type."

- Interview Process
 - A personal interview may be requested as part of the admissions process. Our goal is to admit professionals who already have experience in their fields that will serve as a foundation for legal studies and who bring diversity in all its forms to the law school community.

- Official transcript(s) from all universities and colleges attended
 - U.S. applicants must submit an official transcript from each undergraduate and graduate school attended.
 - Transcripts should be sent directly from the school, or may be submitted in a sealed envelope along with other application materials from the applicant.
 - International applicants must submit an official English translation or certified evaluation of an official transcript from each undergraduate and graduate school attended.
 - For applicants from countries in which a university will only release official transcripts to the student, the applicant may submit a photocopy if a notary or other official third party certifies that the photocopy is a true and correct copy of the original document.

- Resume or curriculum vitae
 - Please submit a current resume or curriculum vitae.

- Personal statement - Statements should address the following:
 - Relevant professional experience
 - Reason for application to the M.S.L. program
 - Any additional significant information

□ Writing Sample

- Please submit a professional or academic writing sample (written solely by the applicant) that showcases writing ability.

□ Letters of recommendation

- Please submit a minimum of two original, signed letters of recommendation.
- Letters of recommendation should be from academic or professional sources.
- Letters may be sent directly to Graduate and International Programs by the recommender, or may be submitted in a sealed envelope along with application materials.

Notice Regarding Submission of Application Materials

Please keep a copy of all materials submitted. Once original transcripts and documents are submitted as part of an applicant's admission materials, they cannot be returned or photocopied for any reason.

Note to all applicants: Working with an agent will not affect your chances of acceptance and scholarship. All applicants should disclose in their application materials if they are working with an agent. We encourage all applicants to communicate directly with us at graduatelaw@pacific.edu.
